After the formal intertiew was over, Mr Buchanan said playfully, but in the pregance of the whole audience, wif Lang De instrumental in fettling the Stavery question upon the terms I have named, and then add. Could there be a more noble ambition. You may well be proud of your early choice of a candidate, and congratulate voursell that ho adverse influences ever moved you an inch from your stern purpose of giving the great Pennsylvanian a steady, earnest and cordial support. In my judgment he is as worthy of Southern confidence and Southern votes as Mr. Calhoun ever was; and in saying this I do not mean to intimate that Mr. Buchanan has any sectional prejudices in our favor. Fonly mean to say that he has none against us, and that we may rely with absolute certainty on receiving full justice, according to the Constitution, at his hands ? ? !

Knewing your long, laborious and faithful adherence to the fortunes of Mr. Buchanap, I have thought it proper to address you this letter, to give you assurance that you had not mistaken your man, nor failed in the performance of a sacred and filial duty lo the South. In doing so I violate no confidence. Very truly, your friend, A.G. BROWN.

Dreadful Accidenti

A sad accident happened on the New York & Erie R. R., on Saturday evening last, at Scio, by which HENRY WRIGHT, aged 17, son of Col. J. N. Wright of Covington, lost his life. Mr. Wright was fireman on a freight train, and his brother, Clark Wright was engineer of the same train. It seems that Henry was standing on the bunting beam of the engine, oiling the cylinders, while his brother was running the train on to a turnout for the purpose of stopping over the Sabbath. By some motion of the engine, Henry lost his balance and fell upon the track in front of the engine. His brother Clark seeing him jump, reversed the engine and tried to stop the train, but he was knocked down by the cow-catcher and was run over by the engine, tender, and seven freight cars before the train stopped so that he could be picked up.

His body was terribly mangled. His brother George and Clark Wright and brother-in-law, John L. Lee, passed through this place with the body on Monday evening, taking him to Covington, where he was buried on Tuesday .- Mansfield Express. ...

WHERE ME. BUCHANAN STANDS .- President Pierce, in a late speech, says of the nomination of Mr. Buchanan :

"I congratulate you that your choice has fallen on a man who stands on the IDENTI. John Shoff CAL PLATFORM THAT I OCCUPY, and that he will take the SAME with the standard lowered never an inch!"

Stephen Arnold Douglas in his late New York speech said .

"Buchanan and myself have for several years back, ever since I came into public life. HELD THE SAME POSITION on the stavery question from beginning to end."

Now hear what Buchanan says:
"I have been placed on a PLATPORM OF WHICH I HEARTILY APPROVE, and Samuel Rexford I must square my conduct by that plat-

Having rallen from the fifth story of the Artisan Building, where they were previously placed and exposed the grant heat for a long time, the preservation of the valuable deposite seemed to stery one who witnessed the opening and intolior examination, a matter of profound astonishment.
