A song for our banner, the watchword recall,
And the flag of our Union forever!

The Young Men's Candidate

The United States truly remarks that John C. Fremont is the Young Men's Candidate. They feel that they are bound to support him...

John C. Fremont possesses just that energy, decision, fortitude and perseverance that please the young men...

On what principles and for what object do the followers of Buchanan—the black Democracy—enter this campaign?

The course of John Charles Fremont is a pattern, and his success an encouragement to every noble mind...

A RASCAL who was caught with his hand in another man's pocket, the other evening, excused himself thus:

ENTICING.—A sailor, giving testimony in a Boston Court, about an assault and battery, stated that (the traverser) had powerfully enticed Sam (the complainant).

"What do I mean sir?" said the honest tar—"Why, sir, I mean this—Jack took a big handspike and drove it plump into Sam's back—that's what I call enticing."

FROM KANSAS

Back and Murder in a Year

Submitted is a statement made in my presence by a witness who has been sworn to the facts...

On Sunday evening, about 9 o'clock, a party of about 80 men, mostly Missourians and Georgians, armed with United States muskets, came into the city of Leavenworth...

Some of the party dismounted, and breaking the door, rushed in; a light ensued. There were only five or six men in the house...

The prisoners taken were temporarily put into a building, and afterward sent to the camp on Stranger Creek. I left town at 6 o'clock, p. m.

Such is a statement which may be implicitly relied upon. I was present at the sackings of Lawrence, but the terrors of that scene were slight indeed, compared with the barbarous scenes above described.

A census taken just before the American Exploring Expedition was there, showed the indigenous population to be 9,000.

A Good Story is told by the New Haven Register of a "Bishop" who was sent down to New York with one of his parish's trap machines...

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

Adopted by the Republican National Convention, Philadelphia, June 1856.

This Convention of Delegates, assembled in pursuance of a call addressed to the people of the United States...

Resolved, That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence and embodied in the Federal Constitution...

Resolved, That we hold it to be a self-evident truth that all men are endowed with the inalienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness...

Resolved, That the Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government, and that in the exercise of this power it is both the right and the duty of Congress to prohibit in the Territories those twin relics of barbarism—Polygamy and Slavery.

Resolved, That we recognize the right of the people of all the Territories, including Kansas and Nebraska, acting through the fairly expressed will of the majority of actual residents...

Resolved, That the questions connected with the foreign policy of the country are inferior to the domestic question whatever; that the time has come when the people of the United States should declare themselves in favor of free seas...

Resolved, That the great highway which nature, as well as the assist of those States most immediately interested in its maintenance, has been marked out for a free communication between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans...

modern times and unconquerable energy of our people; that this result should be secured by the timely and efficient control which we have a right to demand...

Resolved, That in view of so commanding an interest, the people of the United States cannot but sympathize with the efforts which are being made by the people of Central America to regenerate that portion of the continent...

Resolved, That the Democratic party will expect of the next Administration that every proper effort will be made to insure our ascendancy in the Gulf of Mexico...

Resolved, That the Administration of Franklin Pierce has been true to the great interests of the Country. In the face of the most determined opposition it has maintained the Laws, enforced economy, fostered progress, and infused integrity and vigor into every department of the government at home.
