mediately the companies were formed and after which the following permanent officers marched to the forts which surrounds the towa. I was called upon to guard a prisoner; It was in an upper room of a store house that gave us an excellent view of the enemy and the supposed battle ground. At this time the Governor arrived with his staff, U. S. troops, and immediately rode to the enemy. When he returned, he reported to the inhabitants. that the enemy had agreed to return to their Theday the Idib a company of two passed by my shanty. They had a flag, with this inscription upon it.

"SOUTHERN RIGHTS OR DEATH." I had passed by it, when one of the gentlemen,-gentlemen did I say! I beg your pardon, when one of the foul mouthed blas-phemers cried out, "Hal you dad blue bellied son of a b-h." They passed on about two miles, stole four horses and shot a cripple unarmed, named Buffum, from Salem Massachusetts, a man very much respected : I have this day attended his funeral. He was buried under arms, and in the cemetery where sleep the lamented Tho's, W. Barber (who was shot last December upon my claim, by an officer appointed by Frank Pierce to deal justly by the Indians; in other words, an Indian agent, and has never been arrested for the murder.) Stuart and others who have died martyers to the cause of Freedom in Kansas; the time will surely come when they will stand before their God and be swift wirnesses against these murderes. 'Now Brothers, have you got a majority in vour State (the Old Key Stone) that will conction these outrages in Kansas next November-or will they repudiate the acts of Frank Pierce and his lickspittles.

Recollect that the Ruffians have broken up the Friends Mission, in this Territory. Now, as you have many of those pious persons in your State; I trust that they together, with every Freedom loving voter will go to the polls in November and cast their votes against every candidate pledged to carry out the principles of Frank Pierces administration. Instead of " Southern Rights or Death." In the words of PATRICK HENRY, I sav-"Give me Liberty, or Give me Death!" If Pennsylvania says, Free men, Free Kinsas and FREMONT, it will be so; and all the Free North and the world, (except Southern Slavery) will say Amen.

But if she cast a majority of votes for Buchanan, she will be a disgrace to the Union, and slavery propagandist will rule this nation, I fear, forever. Yours Truly, BELOIT, Rock Co. Wis, Oct. 6, 1856.

O. P.

FRIEND COBB: For the last three weeks I have travelled, over some portions of North ern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin, and have been considerably bothered to ascertain that Buchanan is such a " mighty man" as many claim him to be In Wisconsin the " Burstow clique," are loud in their praises of the "Sage of Wheatland," And who should they not be? The very party who now support James Buchanan sanctioned the infamous feauls that were carried on by this Governor Barstow and his compeers. The prople are indignant, and will and should use every honorable means to subvert the power of any party which will thus piller from the State funds to apply it to their particular wants and purposes. While on my was hither I had occasion to stop at Chicago and while there, made it convenient to strend a Buchanan demonstration; for I anticipated a grand display from the Democracy. Flaming hand-bills were posted at every corner tolling the good friends of Democracy that they were for "one Union" one "constitufion" and one destiny. And from the meagre crowd present, I was naturally led to the conclusion that it was none other than a destiny that lends on to "eternal oblivion." In northern Illinois Buchanan's greatest strength lies in Chicago and Galena. Fillmore's name has been mentioned once or twice to my knowledge, but he is hardly known as a Candidate. The Pathfinder J. C. Fremont is the anan who finds a cheerful and hearty support in the great West. He is considered a second Washington come to deliver our Nation from the black reign of a power which, being allowed to guide the Ship of State, converted it into a machine for advancing the wishes of a few, to the detriment of a larger, freer, nobler, and more intelligent class. With Fremont at the helm of government for the four years following the 4th of March next and we have every reason to believe that a great change will be brought about in the means of communication between this and other Nations. The time has already come if we would keep pace with the demands of the teeming population that rise as by magic in the great West, it we would add the millions now accumulating to the material wealth of the Nation, that new and extended channels of intercourse be perfected from the shores of the Atlantic to the broad waves of the Pacific. In John C. Fremont the Repubheans recognize a mun for the times, one who will not swerve to the right or the left, but will ever keep in view the consummation of those principles which recognize the right-of every mon to himself, and those principles promulgated by the philosophic Jefferson and upon which our Republic was founded. The Fremont & Davion clubs are doing a noble work. The ball of Freedom moves on with double pace, and by "eternal vigilance" the victory is ours. God speed the right. We are looking to Pennsyvania with inter est. Southern Illinois is considered by some to be doubtful. I have written at greater length than I intended. Since I have been here I have lost track of matters in Tioga, and request that you send me a copy or two of your paper. At some future time I will write you again giving you something of a history of western life. I am not writing for the Agitator, but for M. H. Cobb this Yours &c.

CLYMER, Sept. 25, 1856. MR. EDITOR: A call for a meeting in Clymer Township, on the 20th of Sept. inst. to organize a Republican Club, was heartily responded to by a large attendance of our citizens at the appointed place. Wm. A. Douglass Esq. was called to the chair, and B. B. Strang Esq. by invitation of the chairmen, briefly stated the object of the meeting; IV.

Tanner, Lymon Pritchard, Thompson Labar, Almond King. John Sykes, and G. Larison. On motion, the Republican Platform of Principles was unanimously adopted, as the Platform of the Club. B. B. Strang Esq., was then called for, who took the stand and treated the audience to a forcible, eloquent and timely speech, which was listened to throughout with marked attention and intense interest. At the close of the sneech a resolution was passed, extending an invitation to the ladies; to attend the meetings of the Club. A motion was then adopted, that the above proceedings be forwarded to the Agitator for publication, after which the meeting adjourned, one week.

Allow me to add that the political complexon of our town induces no very great necessity for missionary labors amongst us, a the work is already nearly completed. Still, the people love to meet occasionally to celebrate their victories, and erect trophies. hink we have less than a dozen Buchanan men, (in a town always Democratic) and some of these grow faint, occasionally, like Peter, and deny their master; and who can blame them for denying such a master? committed as he is to the policy of forging fetters for human limbs, and revealing, even through the scales of prejudice, by virtue of his adoption, the mark of Cain, with the blood of scores of murdered Abels crying to heaven against him, from the fields of Kansas. It's enough to stagger a Pharach.

Yours respectfully, C. W. BEACH, Sec.

ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE OF FREMONT'S CATHOLICISM. - An interesting correspondence has appeared in the New York Tribune between two members of a Know. Nothing Council, one of whom visited Fremont's house, and was shown into the private appartments during the absence of the family. He was in search of evidence of Fremont's Catholicism. The house maid, he says, "went up, and finding the family out, she took me up the back stairs to the bedroom, and such a room! The wealth of California has been lavished upon its decorations. The floor is paved with gold; the walls hung with grizzly sear skins, all over with diamonds of great size and immense value; and here and there portraits of Weed and Seward. Still there was no cross in sight. I was not satisfied, and told the girl I should search the bed. She objected, which only made me the more determined. Incordingly threw the bed upon the floor, and there lay before me the damning proof of his attachment to the Church which he indulges in secret. He kept his crasses where he could nightly adore them: they were under him, his bed rested upon them But so cunningly has he managed the secret, that few Profestants, except myself, would have detected it. He has had the end and i ide rails of his bedstend bored, the holes opposite each other and a cord pos shough engthwise, and then crosswise, and thus, by

We have just received a letter from Rev. S. L. Adair, Pastor of the Congregational Church at Ossawatamie, K. T., written from to continue the Drug business at the old stand. The says: his Asylum near the Territory. He says:

"Inm now where I have fled from the tyrant Pierce and his "B rder Ruffins."-They seek to shed my blood. They have shot down a nephew of mine who chanced to be in the road near my house. This was soon followed by the murder of a cousin of mine. an invalid Christian man, who was near and tried to e-cape, he fled to the wood, two horseman pursued him, and shot him. Another man, near by, was badly wounded. I shall not attempt to describe my feelings while I lay concented, much less the feelings I had. when late at night I got help, and with lantern in hand went to the woods, found the dead body of my cousin, and brought it home on the Sabbath. May God have mercy on the murderers, they know not what they do," [Mr. Adair then describes the battle, and proceeds to say.] "God only knows when these things will end. Many can not get away and must die unless God Almigh'y saves them,-My children are in constant fear, but my wife is not in a situation to leave, nor could I leave her alone. Do pray for us. We feel shot up to the morey of God. Oh that the country could realize our situation. We will look up and put our trust in Gad."

THE Philedelphia Bulletin makes some interesting inquiries about old Buck and furnshes, at the same time, suitable answers,-Thus, in view of Mr. Buchonen's political character and history, in what Pennsylvania County should be reside? The answer of course will be Somerset; or in view of his horns, Bucks; or, as he blows his own horn, Clarion; or, as his political cureer is almost run, Hunt ing done; or, as he is being houled over the coals, Carbon; or, as he proclaimed Polk a better tariff man than Clay, Lie-coming; or, as his prospects are scaly, Pike; or, as he is going to pot. Potter; or, as his chances are declining, Wayne! It is suggested after this, that Mr. Buchanan had better withdraw.

THE SALAMANDER SAFES OF PHILADELPHIA AGAINST THE WORLD. EVANS& WATSON.

made of them, as rendering an imdoubted accurity against the terrific element;

Print Statistical Cents: "It affords us the highest satisfaction to state to you, that owings to the very protective qualities of two of the Splannander Eafes which we perchased of you some few months since, we saved a large-portion of our Jewelry, Books, Paperis, &c., exposed to the celamitous fire in Banstead Place, on the morning of the 1th inst.

When we reflect that these Safes were located in the fourth story of the building we's occupied, and that they fell subsequently into a heap of burning mins, where the vast concentration of heat caused the brass plates to mail, we cannot but regard the preservation of the valuable contents as most convincing proof of the great security afforded by your Eafes. We shall take much pleasure in recommending them to man of business as a zere reliance against fire.

PHILADELPHIA, April 12, 1858. PHILADELPHIA, April 12, 1856.

Mentre Reams & Walton—I have to offer you my testimony in favor of the great security afforded to my entire stock of jewelry, books, papers, &c., during the recent disastrous confingration in litanstead place, from the fact that thesame, were contained in two of the Salamander Safes manufactured by you. Having milen from the fifth story of the Artisan Building, where they were previously placed and exposed to a vast heat for a long time, the preservation of the valuable deposits seemed to every one who witnessed the opening and interior examination, a matter of profound satonishment.

To ail who may require a perfect protection from the ravages of fire, I shall not hesitate to recommend the use of your Safes, as I consider they have now undergone the most trying test.

PHILADELPHIA, April 14. 1856.

Westers Evans & Watson—Gentlemen—No doubt you will be deeply grailfold to learn the good condition in which I discovered my book, policy of insurance, certificates of stock, and other valuable documents, when on Friday last I opened the safe made by your firm.

With my knowledge of its great exposure, both to the intensity of the heat from so hot a fire as that which destroyed the Artisan Building, as also from the force of the fall from its former elevated position in the third story, I could entertain but slender hopes prior to its interior inspection, that the contents which I once so highly prized would ever be of any service to me, but as these fears are now happily removed, I feel it only due to say to yon, that I can hencetorth recommend the use of your Safes to all who may wish to feel a confidence in the perfect security which such means provides against so frightful an element.

REFRENCES.

The Medicine is now well known and appreciated, and will chave a steady and increasing sale. I know of no preparation that can compare with it for the particular complaints for which it is designed. I am satisfied, by the use now making of it in my own family, and by almost every day's evidence of its benefits to others, that it justly merits the warmer of its benefits to others, that it justly merits the warmer of its benefits to others, that it justly merits the warmer recommendations its best friends have given of it.
