Buchanan Demonstration in Hector. (A correspondent in Hector, Potter County Pan sends us un amusing account of a Buchanan meeting at that place on the 9th inst., from which we extract the following.

By hiring a Republican to blow the fife, and another to beat the drum, they made out to raise a "band of music." About 2 o'clock the crowd was called together by the band. The meeting was then organized by calling upon C. R. Skinner to preside. As soon as the multitude was comfortably stowed away in the three wagons which composed the seats. the President arose and with great solemnity expressed his heartfelt gratitude at seeing such a demonstration of democracy as was manifest upon the present occasion. He then introduced to the people, Col. John M. Kilbourn, democratic candidate for Sheriff in Petter. . The Colonel made a few very effective remarks and then wound up by affirming that he was not around begging votes, but the did hope when the people of Hector came to the polls they would remember him. H. H. Dent was next introduced; didn't make much of an impression. Guess as how he was'nt quite far enough from home.

Erastus C. Grover, alias monkey Grover next occupied the stand. He made a very effective speech, occupying the stand about two hours and five quarters. His speech was very palatable to the democrats, being well seasoned with "monkeys and Fremont The monkey orator has, unquestionably a very happy faculty of telling only half the truth when he cannot think of a falsehood, which is not very often. We don't know another man in whom a modicum of honesty could have been more advantageously invested. If he were a younger reprobate, there might be some hopes of him. If he were a more formidable demigogue, we might even dissect his long speech, and expose its sophistries and perversions. But the people, whom he is seeking to mislead, understand him; and although he is a smooth talker, and has an infinite fund of words, yet no dexterous use of them can suffice to convince one intelligent, candid man, that he is not laboring desperately to overthrow the very principles and doctrines, which in the days of Jefferson, were the landmarks of the democratic

Mr. Crawford was next introduced, and the way he went into the footing up of the comang elections was a caution to Fremonters. He had not got fairly under way however, before some drunken Buchaneers "kicked up a row" in a "cake and beer shop," when a general rush was made for the scene of conflict, and the speaker was left without an audience. After much expostulation on the part of the presiding officer, the crowd collected around the speaker's stand and gave three hearty cheers for Buchanan and Whiskey, which was followed by three cheers from the Fremonters for Fremont and Dayton.

We adopt the yankee fashion of ending a story with the beginning.

On Monday preceding the 'demonstration' "Old Hickory" was conveyed into town from a distance of about five miles, escorted by a possee, with fife, drum and two jugs of whis-

The marshal, who was an Irishman of the old school, rode in advance of the posse, making a "Virginia fence" as he went, and like old "Buck" a little limber in the back." Pike Valley, Oct. 11. SPECTATOR.

MR. EDITOR .- On the evening of the 11th inst., the Buchaneers held a meeting at Elkland and had at least six townships represented, numbering in all (Fremonters at least one sixth) 75 by actual count as the second spea-

It was reported that a Philadelphia gun would be there to fire a few "facts" into the Republican ranks, but his "facts" were so roughly handled at Westfield and Deerfield that he thought best not to attack us at Eikfand, but left the place about half way between Friday and Saturday, for a more genial clime where the truth of his "facts" would not be questioned We were favored however with a few shots from their usual guns, Messrs II. Sherwood and J. W. Ryon. The first speaker accused the Republicans of being Abolitionists, and a dishonest party, "for" said he " if they were honest why did they not take Wm. H. Seward for their candidate, who was a professed Abolitionist. Sir they dare not do It, his character was too well known to meet with success," showing his ignorance of the proceedings of the Philadelphia Convention .-Mr. Dayton too was dishonest because "he voted against Arkansas with her slave constitution, violating the Missouri Compromise.' With them, our candidates were dishonest, our party dishonest, aye all was dishonest except the so-called democratic party, and whatever principles they adhered to, all was honest, all was righ. One of their blackest bullets was, that their party was not pro-slavery, or in the speakers own words, "The democratic party is not a sectional party, but goes for equal rights,-North South and West.'

If the democratic party is not, or has not been sectional, then it gives, or has given the North an equal share of the Territories, for it is in these that lies the conquest of sectionalism. The democratic party (for they were in the ascendency then) has made out of the territory jointly purchased by all the states, five new slave states, Louisiana, Missouri, Arkansas, Florida and Texas, having an aggregate area of 543,369 square miles, while NOT ONE SINGLE FREE STATE HAS BEEN FORMED FROM THAT TERRITORY! Is this "going for equal rights, North and South, or has the party been sectional?

The principal aim of the second speaker was however directed at the Kansas question, which he battled with arguments and "facts" taken principally from the minority Report of the Kansas Committee, and such like docu-

He daubed over the difficulties there, with untempered mortar, which dropped off before he finished it, and left it about as he took it up except a few muddy spots, such as laying all the disturbance to the Aid Societies, for provoking the Ruffians to the assault by their presence, and by declaring in favor of a free State. In the same way Cain never would have committed the first murder had there

Osceola, Oct 13. The Truth.

The following letter is from the Rev. J. B. Finly to the Editor of the Northern Christian Advocate. Mr. Finley is one of the oldest ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and no person who is familiar with the name of the Old chief, as he is familarly called, will doubt his veracity, and his attachment to his country. We occasionally hear men say, these stories from Kansas are exaggerated, we dont believe half of them. They are abolition "If the abolitionists were out of Kansas all would be quiet there." Perhaps so. If freemen will quietly suffer slavery to extend and rule the country, there will be no trouble.

LETTER FROM REV. J. B. FINLEY.

KANSAS MATTERS. DEAR DR. HIBBARD :- These lines leave me in good health. I have just returned to this place from a tour to the West where have been preaching, and looking at the scenes passing off in the new part of our great Valley. These scenes are all familiar and pleasant, as they are the reacting of the scenes of our youthful days, with the exception of the Kansas war. Sixty-eight years since, I was familiar with the war-whoop of the savage Indians. But I here confess they are nothing to compare with the cold-blooded murder, thieving, house-burning, horse-stealing and ravishing of females, by slaveocracy and Missouri Ruffians. I think history has no record of anything like it. I feel my American blood boil in me with indignation to think that liberty for which my father and kinsmen fought, and watered the tree of our glorious liberty with their blood, must now be trodden down under the unhallowed feet No. The traitors to our liberties must be routed; the sink of corruption and tyranny ed in a speech, commencing as follows: broken up, peaceably if we can, but other wise if we must.

I was amongst some of the refugees some that had been robbed and burnt out, horses stolen and oxen killed. And yet we have men and editors of papers, who will deny that any such things have transpired and at the same time know that they do not tell the truth. The tories and traitors are not all dead, but truth and righteousness must and will prevail. May God save the Republic!

Will you have the goodness to send me your paper until the next New-Year, or the beginning of the year, and I will pay you at the Book-room here. I hope you will succeed. God bless you and yours!

I am as ever, Your brother in Christ.

J. B. FINLEY. Another letter from B. C. Dennis, says that Indians are gathering to assist the proslavery men, to drive out the free soilers.

The Baptists of N. W. for Freedom. The New York Baptist State Convention has just closed its forty-ninth Annual Meeting in Penn Yan, after a very interesting session of two days.

In addition to the legislation of a denominational character, the Convention enthusiastically adopted, with but two dissenting votes, the following out-spoken expression of its views on the question of all absorbing interest now before the country:

FOR THE REASON, That during the past year, events have occurred unprecedented in their character, in the history of this country, wherein freedom of speech has been assailed in the capital of the nation, and stricken down on the floor of the United States Senate -while in a large territory of the United States, long since consecrated by solemn compact to Freedom, free presses have been silenced by destruction-churches of Christ have been broken up and scattered—his faithful servants ruthlessly murdered, and ministers of the gospel compelled to flee for their

We resolve-1st. That as Baptists we should be unfaithful to our history as a denomination, did we not earnestly protest against these outrages, and faithfully labor for the restoration and establishment of civil and religious freedom in every part of our common country.

2d. That we consider the great question soon to be decided by the people of this country, to be whether freedom of speech, a free press and a free pulpit shall be sustained and perpetuated, or their destruction encouraged and ensured.

3d. That inasmuch as the Church of Christ has a vital interest in the right decision of this all-important question, we view it to be the duty of all her members to use their influence. their votes, and above all their earnest, faithful prayer to Him who holds the hearts of men in his hands, and who has declared that He will cause even their wrath to praise him, so as to promote the glory of God, the highest interests of humanity, and hasten forward the time when Liberty shall be proclaimed "through all the land, to all the inhabitants thereof.'

General Dix has taken the stump for Mr. Buchanan, but according to the Journal of Commerce, he is quite too virtuous for the work in which he is engaged. His conscience is terribly in the way. He is hampered by an inconvenient desire to do ljustice to his opponents. That should not be, and the Journal very properly takes him to task. We quote an example of his short-comings in political disputation, and the reproof which the Journal of this morning administers. That print says:

"We observe that General Dix, in his recent speech at Westchester, in support of Mr. Buchanan, used, in regard to the Kansas Emi grant Aid Society, this language :

"Now it happened that he was in Boston immediately after the Emigrant Aid Society was formed, and as it was very much talked about there, he became acquainted with its plans. These were to buy lands in Kansas, to erect hotels for the temporary accommodation of emigrants, until they could construct habitations for themselves. The Massachusetts So-It is plain to all, how the democratic party | ciety was, nevertheless, a peaceful organization, con-

in the North stand upon the great issue now before the people. They cling with a death like grasp to the word democracy for a life boat, and with the other clinch the Cincinatti, Platform for their rudder, and try to brave the storm now raging on the political sea; but their rudder will be broken and lost, and

A common Error of many inconsiderate persons, is to suppose that the organization of emigration Aid Societies in the North, led to the troubles in Kansas. This is dispelled by the report of the Congressional Investigating Committee, which shows that, in the latter part of the year 1853, before the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, a public meeting was held in Platte county, Mo., at which Atchison made a speech and where the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That if the Territory shall be opened to settlement, we pledge ourselves to each other to extend the institutions of Missouri over the Territory, at whatever sacrifice of blood or treasure.

The proceedings of this meeting were published in the Platte Argus, one of the organs of the Atchison party. Before the Investigating Committee, a man named Davis, a Missourian, testified that he was a member of the samous "Blue Lodge" in Missouri, in February, 1854, before the Kansas bill passed. the avowed object of the order being to make Kansas a slave State.

Botts Better and Better.-Botts, of Virginia, constantly improves. He has received a challenge from Pryor, of the Richmond Enquirer, and declined it for nine reasons. The third is excellent :-In the third place: Your life could not be the value of a pin's head to me, and I am sure I should derive no comfort from making your wife a widow or your children fatherless -therefore I have no desire to take it; whilst my own life is not only of value to me, but indispensable to the support and happiness of my family, and I hope to make it useful to my country-therefore I am not disposed to place it at your disposal.

On receiving news of the success of the allies of Border Ruffianism in Pennsylvania, of the tyrants over slaves. Will a free some of the party in Lancaster county, called Christian people suffer it? I indignantly say, on Col. Reah Frazer one of their leaders, and announced the fact to him, when he respond-

" God and Liberty-the State is ours .-Yes, we have them, fellow Democrats; and not only that, we have got Kansas, too, to put our slaves in."
