THE TIOGA COUNTY AGITATOR.

The Difference between Freedom and

The Bulfalo Republic publishes the fol lowing extract from the speech of Senator HUNTER, of Virginia, at Poughkeepsie, on Wednesday of last week. It is equal in, atrocity and boldness to anything in the Richmond Enquirer, but that such sentiments should be uttered before a Northern audience is almost incredible.

Unblushing Effrontery.

" Fellowscitizens, what is property in man. and what involuntary servitude ? Property may be absolute or limited, it may be in fee James B. Clay that in 1845 was one of those for a number of years. In practice, one man may hold property in the service of another for life, as in the law of slavery; for a term This last named act of rascality, was perof years, as in apprenticeship; or for months, weeks, duys or hours, as in the case of domessics, or mechanics, or lawyers or doctors. In civilized society, there is no man, except in the rare cases of those living on accumulated capital, who does not sell to another a property in his service. This is servitude, and if constrained by the necessities of poverty, it is as much involuntary as if it were formed by any other physical necessity. The I have spoken."

" Are hard cases of separation in families to be found where slavery exists, do they not also occur when a man is forced by his necessity to sell his labor in the highest market? Are many revolting instances to be found of the submission by one man of his wife to another in the one case, do they not also occur in the other. Whatever evils are the Court House to listen to the Fillmore ascribed to involuntary servitude in the one Elector. case, can and have been ascribed to the other. Shall we, for this reason, proclaim that no give a right of property in his services to another ?

The plain English of the foregoing, stripped of its rhetoric, is that all men who live by labor are slaves to all intents and purposes,as much so, practically, as the bondman who is bought and sold, like the beast of the field. But even the insulting sentiment is mildly slandcrous when compared with the contemptuous imputations cast upon free society. There are few men at the North who are not "laboring men," and the insult applies to all who labor with their brains, as well as those who labor with their hands-so long as they hire their time and services to another for a supulated sum. Such is the doctrine of Buchanan orators, exported from the slave plantations of Virginia to enlighten the free votera of New York. Similar sentiments were uttered, not long since ; by Harris of Kentucky, in Onio. What say the people, will they endorse them by their votes?

DEATH IN THE CARS. - A touching incident took place in the cars on Monday, the 13th inst., in the train leaving Harrisburg at 14 o'clock p. m. A lady, apparently between thirty and forty years of age, poorly clad and evidently considerably indeposed, took her seat in the car. Our attention was drawn to her by the Conductor kindly asking her whether she would not have the window open so as to enable her to have fresh air, to which she replied affirmatively, and told him she wished to go to Marietta to attend the funeral of her deceased mother, and requested him to help her out of the car upon arriving at that place. We would occasionally hear her moan and speak to the passengers occupying the seats nearest her. What was said we could not hear, being three or four seats from her .---When we came near Bainbridge it was discovered that to all appearance she was in a dying condition. A gentleman, a passenger name we learn is Edward Ri ddle, esq. of Boston, Mass., manifested what we consid- paralled since the first settlement of our couner the true "Samaratan" spirit by stepping forwad and doing all he could under the circumstances to render the dying woman as comfortable as possible. He not only plead ter, by those who should have seconded and that she should be taken to some house and aided them-and all this because they would under such circumstances deserves to be noticed, and will contrast layorably with what we feel impelled to mention. Having arrived at Bainbridge, the sufferer was taken into a public house and placed upon a settee in the hall, where in a low brief moments she breathed her last. What seemed to us peculiarly hard, the person we took to be the lady of the house, peremptorily refused to suffer her dead fellow-mortal to remain, but compelled it to be put into the baggage car, against the entreaties of those around her, and taken away. Surely this woman, instead of showing forth the sympathy and humanity of her sex, disand Levite, of whom we read in the sacred serpent slavery !" volume. The body of the deceased was left at Columbia, to be disposed of as humanity, religion, and custom demand. In her bosom was found a certificate setting forth that a Mr. Strauss and Mary Ann Schrall, both of Dauphin County, were united in bonds of wedlock, on Feb. 12, 1856, by Esq. Reader, also of Dauphin County.-Lancaster Pa. Daily.

James B. Clay of this State, son of Old Hal, has been dispatched to Pennsylvania to help carry the State for James Buchananthe most violent of the traducers of his father. This is the same J. B. Clay that broke up and sold the old Homestead of his father for work boxes and walking canes, and the same petrated while Cassius M. Clay was confined to his bed by sickness.

All right ; every citizen in every part of the United States is entitled to a hearing, no matter what side he is on.

Now, mark the contrast. On Monday night last, Cassius M. Clay had an appoint evils which are ascribed to one form of this ment to speak 'at the Court House. It was servitude are common to them all, and so the first Republican speech delivered here claimed to be by this socialist sect of which during the canvass, and thousands of our citizens of all parties were desirous of hearing it. Soon after Mr. Clay commenced speaking, a determined effort was made to put him down. Cries of "Hurrah for Fillmore." "Hurrah for Fillmore," " move him," " put him out," "get a rope to hang him" &c., &c., were heard for half an hour, when Mr. Clay desisted and retired to another part of

This gentleman spoke till after 10 o'clock, and then asked the audience that remained to man shall be allowed to sell his labor, or hear Mr. Clay. This they did with apparent reluctance, and with constant interruptions. It being very late Mr. Clay could of course only make part of the remarks which he intended to make, and nearly all of those who came to hear Mr. C. had returned home. One of the most noisy of the crowd bawled One of the most noisy of the crowd bawled out repeatedly, "what did you do with your own niggers, Mr. Clay." When Clay could cap which we dont intend to have placked out soon. stand it no longer, he turned to the intruder and replied, "I liberated them, sir, and they are free." "Yes," responded the blackguard,

'you sold them and put the money in your vocket." "You are a liar, sir," should Clay in a voice of thunder, and the brawler slunk away in the crowd, who were evidently well pleased to see him silenced in this sum mary manner.

In his repartees Clay was excedingly happy, and although there were many threats of personal violence, none had the courage to put them into execution. Wrong is general y cowardly. Your free State men may well value your freedom of speech, for in fifteen of the States of this Union that privilege does not exist except in name. Hurrah for free speech, but to get that we must have

TAMPERING WITH THE RETURNS .- The Locofocos determined to carry the State by a system of the most barefaced frauds.
