PLATTE Co., Mo., Sept. 10, 1856. To the Editors of the Richmond Whig: .

I sead hou allow facts in writing believ. ing that you know very little of what is daily transpiring in the great West. What information you Virginians get, coming from some little papers in Kansas and the borders thereof, is not to be relied on. -11

What those papers contain is false in part chase." "A fairer land than this never sun viewed in his wide career. A lovely spot for all that life can ask. "Salubrious mild."

The settlerain Kansas are from every state in the confederacy, but shiefly from the free States ; the restare mostly Missourians.

t is doubtless known to you that the Missourians have made repeated invasions on Kansas. When the election came off, (the first one particularly,) hundreds of winguns, loaded with provisions, arms of every calibre and name, ammunition, and barrels of , whiskey, were driven to within balf a mile of the polfs; there the invaders encamped; and such shouting, swearing, drinking, firing hallooing, roaring, damning, &c., this world never, saw, before. Next ... morning. they marched to the polls, and gave a Democratic sole. After voting they returned to their camp and renewed their Bacchapalian orgies, and the next day crossed over to Missouri .--This is as true as any record in the the United States. It would require many sheets of foolscap to contain a tithe of the barbarities, robberies and murders committed in Kansas. You know that the Missourians have thrown every printing press into the Missouri river that did not hoist the negro flag. It is thus you hear ex parte testimony, and nine-tenths of that is fabrication. A majority of the people in Kansas are for making it a free State They are not abolitionists, but free State mer. 'The Missourians knowing this, have had recourse to various expedients .---The last or dernier resort, is to expel or ostracise them

About ten days ago, the Missourians invested Leavenworth city, the largest town in Kansas and gave peremptory orders to every man in the city, whom they suspected of free State sentiments to leave in one hour and a half or die. One hundred peaceable, orderly, artisans, merchants, &c., were thus compelled to leave their houses, furniture, shops, tools, stores, &c., to the honesty and mercy of-One of them had in his store $20,000 worth of goods as per invoices. If you have any idea what were the feelings of the Athenians when they abandoned Athens, and Cimon took with him only a part of his horse's furnure, then you may form some opinion of the great calamity that fell on these one hundred families. They left their homes-their all. One might have bought houses and lets worth thousands of dollars for '$8 to $10; might have bought a wagon loud of furniture. or rich and cosily cloths, cossimeres, and silks for $10 to $20. The recent arrival of the Tennessce at New Orleans has put us in possession of news of more than ordinary importance from Nic. aragua. Dwo battles have been fought, one at Granada and another at Massaya, between

Walker and/ the invading & forces, in synies the latten were so utterly discomfitted that is scarcely probable they will attempt to meas. ure their strength with the Americans again. On the occupation of Massaya by the energy with a force said to number 4,000 mea, Walker left Granada to dislodge them. They advanced to meet him, and were driven back casion of Walker's absence to attempt, the capture of Granada. Intelligence of this movement reaching Walker, while fighting at Massaya, he immediately countermarched his troops, and the next morning re-appeared before Granada-charged the besiegers, some 1,400, in momber, and drove them from the city with great carnage, capturing their chiefe and all their field pieces and ammunition. The loss of the enemy is computed at 11,00 men. That of Walker is reported at 16 killed and 30 wounded. This decisive battle, if correctly reported, will unquestionably confirm Walker's power in Nicaragua. A BOY ALMOST EATEN UP BY A DOG .-Yesterday afternoon, while a boy named James O'Connell, aged about 12 years, son of Mr. Barney O'Connell, who lives on Third street, South Troy, while passing along the sidewalk near his father's' residence, a man, name unknown, set upon him a large and savage bull dog. The boy, on lurning and seeing the dog coming full speed upon him, naturally became very much frightened, and eudeavoring to escape by running, the man meanwhile encouraging the nobler brute onward. Of course the dog speedily overtook the boy. He caught the lad in the middle of the back, his teeth sinking to the bone, when, by clasping his jaws and jerking with them he tore out a strip, clean to the bone, as large as a man's hand ! His rage increased with the taste of blood, and it was now impossible to shake off the.dog. He again .caught the boy by the thigh, and bit out a piece as large as he could grasp with his teeth, laying the bone bare. Another bite was inflicted upon the leg, but it was not so serious as the others, Over two pounds of flesh have been extracted by the dog. The boy was literally eaten up religious bigotry, can ever deprive her of the laurels by the monster. The brute who set the dog, upon the boy, deserves, he we hope he will receive, severe punishment. Dr. Burton, who was called to attend the case, did everything for the boy that lay in his power, but it is hardly possible that he can recover .- Troy

Certain politicians, interested in the support of the "pecalitär: institution," have endeavored to per-suade the public that Mrs. Stowe's last work is art-istically a fullore, and that it has produced no pro found impression on either side of the Atlantic. But the publishers are hoppy to state, that of the many hundreds of American notices which they have received, the vast majority have been decidedly lavorable, most of them enthusiastic; and the sal thus far hus exceeded that of any work of fiction ever püblished-lhe
