

his lordship was out of funds, and could not pay him. So Mr. Perchment waited upon Messrs. Jones & Co., and found they had never had a cent of his lordship's money.

In the space of a short hour, what a change; the farm was not sold, but was laid over. Mr. Perchment accordingly brought suit for the May, against Lord Arthur John for swindling, and the warrants for his arrest were placed in the hands of the officers.

Unfortunately, his lordship had hired a lawyer from Mr. Jacob Gardner, to go to Brownstown, to return in time for the wedding. He did not return, and it is supposed he seized the opportunity to reach some country railway depot and leave the vicinity.

We sincerely sympathize with the bride and her parents. The guests were invited, the minister was in the parlor, the supper was laid—Mr. Lougarey, who had advanced his lordship $180 in jewelry, was to act as his groomsmen, and he was there. The police officers were there also, to watch the arrival of his lordship. But his lordship disappointed all.

We presume we have not named half the persons who have been victimized by this precious scamp. A man named Brothead, a brakeman on the Central Road, and an Englishman, was induced to loan him $100 and go to Philadelphia to lift $1,000 sterling, which he alleged was lying there for him. Mr. B. was to be at home at two o'clock this morning. His lordship also induced a simple Englishman to act as his servant and take care of his household—he had one.

Notwithstanding the seriousness of one or two phases of this occurrence, it is as a whole the most laughable affair we have ever heard of transpiring in this city. The money losers have not the least sympathy, and they will be targets for "roasting" for six months. His lordship's attorney was also deceived, but rather had his eyes open towards the last.

We have the pleasure of recording the arrest of the titled gentleman by officers Hamilton and Wray, about half-past ten o'clock last night. They reached the stable at that hour, and as soon as they saw the police they ran, but they were so gloriously drunk—drunk as lords—that they were soon overtaken.

When taken to the Mayor's office, $50 and a gold watch were found on Lord Arthur John. Both were committed for a hearing to-day. In the police office they still retained their batten. My Lord said dictatorially, "hand me a chair." The officer replied, "you are old enough to help yourself." So he did help himself.

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1857. The Election is past, and its result points to the work devolved on the Republican party is not yet completed. It is all the Eastern and Northern portions of the country.

These facts indicate the path of pressing duty. With no unwary repetitions over what is irrevocable—with no abatement of heart or hope because the triumph of Liberty in her new ordeal is not won at the Long Island and White Plains her struggle.

The People were fully ready to sustain them—we begin to feel the work of diffusing that vital truth which, in regard to the concerns of this world as well as of the next, makes Free India. Now, instead of Slave Power's boyd of victory, when its ministers and servitors are gathering and plotting to make the most of their triumph and "crush out" the spirit which they vainly believe to be crucified and entombed.

But even if we Republicans were disposed to fold our arms in slumber, our adversaries would not permit it. They are busy to-day in lengthening their cords and strengthening their stakes with a vigilance and activity which reveals a consciousness on their part that their dominion must be made more forthwith if their scepter will have longer duration.
