THE TIOGA COUNTY AGPTATORT

The Price of Two Potatoes in 1805.

The following anecdote of the first Napoof his soldiers, he saw in a group not far off, a grenadier of the Guard, who was roasting some potatoes in the ashes.

"I should like a roast potatoe above all things," said the Emperor to the Marshal; " ask the owner if he will sell one." In obedience to the order. Berthier advanced to the group and asked to whom the polatoes be-longed. A grenadier stepped for wird and said-

"They are mine."

"Will you sell me one?"

" I have only five, and that's hardly enough for my supper."

"I will give you two Napoleons if you will sell me one."

perhaps to-morrow, and I don't want the enemy to find me with an empty stomach." Berthier reported the soldier's answer to the Emperor, who was standing a little in the background.

"Let's see if I shall be luckier than you," said the latter, and going up close to the grenadier, he asked him if he would sell him a potatoe.

"Not by a long shot," answered the grenadier, I have not enough for myself."

"But you may set your own price. Come, I am hungry, and have eaten nothing today.'

"I tell you I haven't enough for myselfbesides all that, do you think I don't know you in spite of your disguise ?" "Who am I then ?"

"Bah! The fittle corporal, as they call him; am I right?" "Well, since you know me, you will sell me a pototoe ?" you may sup with me to-night.""

" Done !" said Napoleon. " On the word of a little corporal; on the word of an Emperer '

"Well and good. Our potatoes ought to be done by this time; there are the two largest ones; the rest I'll eat myself."

The Emperor sat down and ate his potatoes, and then returned with Berthier to his, tent, simply remarking: " The rogue is a good soldier. I'll wager."

Two months afterwards Napoleon the Great was in the midst of a brilliant court at the palace of the Tuilleries, and was just sitting down to dine, when word was brought him that a grenadier was without trying to force the guard at the door, saying that he had been invited by the Emperor.

" Let him come in," said his majesty. The soldier entered, presented arms und said to the Emperor:

" Do you remember once having supped with me off my roast pointoes?"

"Oh, is that you? Yes, yes, I remember," said the Emperor ; " and so you have come to dine with me, have you ! Rustan, lay another cloth on your table for this brave fellow '

Again the grenadier presented arms and snid -

" A grenadier of the Guards dees not eat with lackeys. Your majesty told me I plosive mine under our own house is more threatening than the boiling volcano in the distance." and trusting to your word I have come hither." "True, true," said the Emperor ; " lay a cover here near me : lay aside your arms, mon umi, and draw up to the table."

When I take the history of one noor heart that has signed and suffered, and represent to myself the struggles and temptations it has passed, the brief pulsation of joy, the feverish inquietude of hope and fear, the tears of regret, the feebleness of purpose, the pressure of want, the descrition of friends, the scorn of the world that has but little charity, the desolation of the soul's sanctuary, and the threatening voice within, health gone, even hope, that stays longest with us, gone, I have little heart for aught "No, but if you would have me come and but thankfulness, that it is not so with me, dine with you when we get back from Paris, and would fain leave the erring soul of my fellow being in the hands of Him from whom

HIGH PRICE OF PROVISIONS IN MINNE-SOTA .- The Burlington Gazette learns from Captain Hillhouse, just down from Hastings, (30 miles below St. Paul,) that the river at that point has closed, and in consequence thereof, provisions had advanced very much. He states that flour was selling at Hastings for $10 per barrel; pork $40 per barrel; butter 50 cts per pound, and every other article in proportion, and it was thought by all that prices would be much higher during the winter.

The Union and American of Nashville, Tenn., says that the recent Presidential canvass has had a deleterious effect on the slave population. The negroes manifested an unusual interest in the result, and attended the political meetings of the whites in large num-bers. This is dangerous. The necessity for watchfulness is very great. The slaveholders must anxiously guard both against the attacks of Northern fanatics, and the insideous wiles of enemies at home. "These are questions," says the Union and American, no less worthy of consideration-the entry is sues of the meent canvass. A secret enemy is more dangerous than an open foe. An ex-

WE would respectfully call the attention of Mill owners and all interested in the use of water tice. dower in this vicinity to a patented from Water Wheel, (called Greenka, 's gravity and percussion Water Wheel,) one of which they have recently put in a Saw Mill owned by Judge White of Wellsboro' and Dr. Archer of Morris township, and situated one and a fourth miles from Babb's Creek, on the Stony Fork. This wheel on Salarday the 7th inst, drove a single saw to saw five thousand and one hundred feet of white pine lumber; 4100 feet of which was one inch in thickness, 400 feet 2 inches thick, 500 feet 14 inches thick. This Wheel used a very small quantity of water, only discharging about 90 square inches and with about 111 feet head and fall of water while performing the above. These Wheels are well adapted to the propelling of all kinds of Machinery driven by Water power, "filewiare very simple and anterastic territori, construction, and on third to one half more work than any other Iron Water Wheel in operation in this vicinity with which they are acquainted. They offer for sale on very liberal terms the patent right for Counties or States, and also, to furnish and put in operation the Wheels in Mills in this vicinity on rea-sonable terms. " Rather, Sir ; but not quite so crooked as a tree I once knew. It was the tallest butternut I ever saw. Standing close to it one day in a thunder storm, I saw a squirrel on one of its topmost branches. The lightning struck the same branch about three feet above him, and the squirrel started. The lightning had to follow the grain, of course, and the squirrel went straight down. So crooked was that tree, sir, that the squirrel, by my watch, got to the bottom precisely three minutes before the lightning."

"That's a lie" exclaimed the landlord.
