Who Pays the Piper?

The Missouri Democrat grouns over the losses sustained by the Missouri people in consequence of the interruption of emigrants from the East through that State. It says:

"A thorough and absolute estoppal has has been placed upon all attempts to supply the free-state men of Kansas with provisions, clothing and other necessary articles, by means of the transportation on the Missouri, How shall we begin to estimate the losses inflicted upon the steamboat interests of the Missouri by this unlawful interference with their business? How much would they have received from 20,000 passengers, who have in effect been driven from their boats and sent through owa, or deterred from going to Kansas altogelher, and who would otherwise have gone on the Missouri packets. This number is not unreasonably large-a greater number of persons have gone into Minnesota in one year alone, whilst more than double that number of settlers have gone to lows. within the last twelve months. Estimate. then, the price of passage from St. Louis to Leavenworth at $15, and this, multiplied by 20,000—the assumed number of passengers -make $300,000, and represents approximately the injury inflicted by Atchison and Stringfellow, backed up by the Missouri Republican, upon the steamboats on the Missouri river, in this one item alone. If these people had been permitted to settle in Kansas, they, as well as those now there, would have been supplied with provisions, groceries, clothing, household furniture, building materials, and all of these would have paid freight to the steamboats. How much? It cannot be estimated at less than $300,000, because freights on such articles are high on this river, and being indispensable to the settlers, they would have paid any price. Here are two items of loss, inflicted on the steamboat interest by these reckless demagogues and their conditions of the press, amounting to more than half a million of dollars. It is safe to say that each steamer plying on the Missouri river would have paid for itself in one year. by the profit it would have derived from the free white immigration to Kansas, and which has been lost by the illegal and outrageous interference of Atchison and his accomplices with their business.

ANCIENT GRECIAN CITY, -- We copied a few days since a brief paragraph from the English papers of the discovery of the ruins of a Grecian city, which the British Government had taken measures to explore. We have received from our Syrian correspondent a letter giving full particulars of the discoveries and explorations, so far as they have progressed, which are of the most interesting character. The city was situated on the peninsula of the Crimea. Its ruins indicate its original opulence and splendor. Human skeletons and skeletons of horses have already been found. Near the site of the city are immense tumuli, or artificial mounds of earth, somewhat like those of the West of our own country. Their size and magnificence awaken amazement for the wealth and power of the people who constructed them. Tradition states that the tumuli were erected over the remains of the kings and rulers of this Greek colony. They are of all dimensions ranging from ten to three hundred feet in circumserence, and from five to one hundred and fifty feet in hight. Specimens of the highest Grecian art have been found in them, such as sculptures, Etruscan vases, glass vessels remarkable for lightness, carved ivory, coins of the most perfect finish, and trinkets vieing with the skill of the best modern workmen. One tumulus was so large that Dr. McPherson devoted two whole months to explore it. But the most astonishing monuments of early wealth are found on Mont Mithridates, the whole of which hill, from its base to its summit, and the space extending from it to the distance of three miles, are composed of broken pottery and debris of the depth of from ten to even a hundred feet over the natural Boston Journal.

portions of the country—in NewEngland, New York, Ohio, and the North-West—the Republican banner floats in triumph; while in Southern Jersey; Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois -in short, where remayivania, indiana and tilinds—in short, where-ever few newspapers, are taken, and where couraged schools are too new and too feeble to have educated the present generation of votors—the black flag of Slayery obstructs the smalline. Astranger to Amer. ica might distinguish those portions of our country most blessed with Education, Intelligence, Thrift and Virtue, by scanning the returns of the Presiden-tial contest of 1856. We have failed of present suc-cess, not because the People are against us, but be-bause that large portion who did not bear or read the argument and do not know what were the real ques-tions at issue, went ulmost solid againt us, reversing the verdict which the great majority of the educated and intelligent endeavored to pronounce.

These facts indicate the path of pressing duty

With no unmainly replinings over what is irrevoca-ble—with no abatement of heart or hope because the triumph of Liberty in her deverdeal is not won at the Long Island and White Plains of her struggle—i with no shadow of regret that the responsibility of governing is not confided to her champions before the Pouple were fully ready to sustain them—we begin afresh the work of diffusing that vital truth which, in regard to the concerns of this world as which, in regard to the concerns of this world as well as of the pext, makes Free indeed. Now, in the Slave Power's heyday, of victory, when its ministers and servitors are gathering and plotting to make the most of their triumph and "crush out" the spirit which they vainly believe to be cracified and entoushed—now, when the faint hearted or cold-hearted who lately basked, in the sunshine of our premature hope are hauling off to repair damages and talking os abandoning the rugged arena of Politics for morf quiet and flowery fields—now, in this flour of wearie ness and shadow, The Tribuse renews its yows ofeternal hostility to every form of tyranny over the bodies or souls of men—to the shameful assumption that the benighted and feeble, wheather in soul or body, are to be regarded and treated as the convenience or the prey of their wiser or stronger breth-ren;—to the domination of despots and oligarchs, whither of empires or plantations—to the enslavers of cities and kingdoms in Europe or the breeders for the auction-block and the cotton field in Virginia or

The doctrine that no human being was ever croa ted for the benefit or advantage of another -that all service between man and man should be free and reciprocal—that the laborer should not toil and sweat to pamper others' pride or minister to others' luxury, but for the sustenance and comfort of those near and dear to him—is destined to certain i triumph. I ted to be a theater of injustice, oppression and misery for ever. It must triumpli; for all true prophecy affirms and the vindication of the Divine benignity moertatively requires it. It must triumph; emocratic America cannot always remain the scoff of aristocrats and the shame of reformers and liberals throughout the Old World. It must triumph for Man's history is not a chaos or a riddle, but every where instinct with me ning; and no heroic effort ever failed of its affect—no drop of martyr blood was ever shed in vain.

The scale of the our arms in slumber, our adversaries would not permit it. They are busy to-day in lengthening their and harass. Northern Mexico, are encamped in the heart of Central America and waging a war of extermination on the distracted inhabitants of its petty Republics, while it by turns leers and scowls at Cuba, while its most ruthless bands are precipitated on devoted Kansas, under the protection and smiles against the rapine and violence of Buford's and Titlus's blood thirsty bandits, have been convicted by Le-compte's Court of manslaughter! and sentenced to five years' imprisonment at hard labor as felons. This is but a fair specimen of what has long passed for "justice" in Kansas—a justice which takes the criminate the property of the fine days in the fine cent, which it consigns to the State prison if they are ever gooded into the madness of resisting their oppressors. Such crimes and wrongs as unhappy Kansas has for twelve mouths endured, even Hungary or Poland has ever known; and the Power at whose instigation these villaintes were and are perpetrated sits enthroned in the White House, and has just achieved another four years' ascendancy in the Federal Government.
