misrepresented a northern constituency and why done he laud Arnold to the stice for being a base—truckling demagogue da traitor to God and humanity and accuse the freemen of Illinois for not being able to discern his bollow heartedness before he was elected? I think that here is a little clashing of ideasthat he will be a little puzzled to extricate himself from his " bold, and unsparing remarks." I have briefly glanced at all his arguments and will say a word in conclusion that I may not be misunderstood. I never claimed that the farmers of this county possessed many classical scholars-that many graduates of old Yale, follow the plough over the hills of Tioga-but I do claim much useful-practical-every day information for the farmers of this portion of "Wilmot's be-nighted District." Is it not a universally received opinion that freedom and intelligence and human wrong and ignorance go hand in hand? If the maxim be true what will Farmer say when is obliged to put Troga down as the banner county in the Union, for Fremont and Freedom? Yet hear what he says on this point. " But that farming as practiced by the farmers of this county is an elevated calling is not true!" Farmers of Tioga, here is an opinion of you by one of your number! What do you think of your "calling" now? Had you not better sell out and peddle yankee notions for a living? He claims, in fact, that farmer's are averse
