Here are two young men, clerks; one of them is content, when his first term of services is over to continue a clerk, until he shall have saved enough to commence business on his own account; the other cannot wait, but starts without capital, and with a limited experience, and after a few short years brings up in a court of insolvency, while his former comrade, by a patient perseverance, comes out at last with a fortune. The young lawyer, who became disheartened, because briefs and cases did not crowd him while he was yet redolent of calf-bound volumes, and had small use for red tape, who concluded he had mistaken his calling, and so plunged into politics. and finally settled down into the chracter of a meddling pettifogger, scrambling for daily

There is an honest farmer who has toiled a few years, got his farm paid for, but does not grow rich very rapidly, as much for lack of content mingled with his industry as any thing, though he is not aware of it. He hears the wonderful stories of California, and how fortunes may be had for the trouble of packing them up; mortgages his farm to raise money, goes away to the land of gold, and, after many months of hard toil comes home to commence again at the hill for a more weary and less successful climbing up agair.

Mark men in every community who are notorious for ability, and equally notorious for never getting ahead, and will usually find them to be those who never stick to one business long, but always forsaking their occupation just when it begins to be profitable. Young man, stick to your business. It may be you have mistaken your calling. If so, find it out as quick as possible and change it; but don't let any uneasy desire to get along last, or a dislike to your honest, calling lead you to abandon it. Have some honest calling and then stick to it; if you are sticking type stick away at them; if you are selling oysters keep on selling them; if you are at law, hold fast to that profession; pursue the business, you have chosen persistently, industriously and honefully, and if there is anything of you it will appear and turn to account in that as well or better than in any other calling; only if you are a loafer, forsake that line of life as quickly as possible, for the longer you stick to it the worse it will stick to you. - Hunt's Merchants's Magazine.

PHILADELPHIA, April 12, 1850.

Mesers Evans of Watson—I have to offer you my testimony in fayor of the great security afforded to my entire stock of Jowelry, books, papers, &c., during the recent disastrous confingration in Ranstead place, from the fact that the same were contained in two of the Nalamander Safes manufactured by you. Having tallen from the fifth story of the Arthan Building, where they were previously placed and exposed to a vast heat for a long time, the preservation of the valuable deposits seemed to every one who witnessed the opening and interfor examination, a matter of profound aktonishment.

To all who may require a perfect projection from the raw, get of fire, I shall not hesitate to recommend the use of your Safes, as I consider they have now undergone the most trying test.

IMPROVEMENT EXTRAORDINARY, WE would respectfully call the attention of Mill owners and all interested in the use of water dower in this vicinity, to a patented Iron Water Wheel, (called Greenleaf's gravity and percussion Water Wheel.) one of which they have recently put in a Saw Mill owned by Judge White of Wellsbore and Dr. Archer of Morris township, and situated Wheels are well adapted to the propelling of all kinds of Machinery driven by Water power. They are very simple and substantial in their construction, and will do from one third to one half more work than any other Iron Water Wheel in operation in this vicinity with which they are acquainted. They offer for sale on very liberal terms the patent right for Counties or States, and also to furnish and put in operation the Wheels in Mills in this vicinity on reasonable terms. For further information address A Greenleaf, Morris township, Babbs Post Office, or L.

their respective places, at the style of the Maps exhibited by the canvasers.

Maps of the principal villages will be inserted, on a large scale, in the margin; also engraved views of public and private buildings.

No expense will be spared to execute the Map in the highest style of art. The plan will be plotted on a suitable scale, so as to show distinctly all the particulars above specified, and make a large and ornamental map. To be engraved and delivered to subscribers, handsomely colored, so as to show the territory comprised in each township, and mounted on rollers. As the map will contain some eighteen square feet of engraving, at a cost of several thousand dollars, it will be seen that only a large subscription list will warrant the heavy expense incurred. The maps are sold only by subscription, and at only on price. No more maps issued than subscribed for. The map will contain tables of the population, productions, assessed value of property, religious societies, schools, number of voters, &c., of each township and village raspectively, carefully made up from the latest authentic documents.
