The Emperor of Russia has lately performed an act of justice to a much injured and honorable American family; which reflects the highest honor on his government. The facts were given me by Mr. Sale, the principal writer to Dicken's Household Words, with whom I had the pleasure to dine at London, and who was an actor in the history I am going to give you.

About eighteen months ago, a Miss Ward from one of the Southern States, was mar. who occupied that part of the house from ried at Florence, after a short courtship, to a Polish Count, whose unpronounceable name escapes me at this moment. They were married before the American Consul, I believe. After living with Miss Ward, maritally for three weeks, the Count took French leave one fine morning and carried off his wife's jewelry as booty. A letter left behind informed Miss Ward of a fact of which she had been till that moment entirely ignorant, to wit: that any Russian subject not married according to the service recognized by the Greek Church and the Russian Government, was invalid and not binding, and that the service which had united them resembling in no wise the one required, they were as free as if no service had been performed. The consternation of Miss Ward and her family at this detectable piece of villainy may well be imagined; for on inquiry they found that the Count's statement was but too true.

Miss Ward and her mother remained a short time in Italy, endeavoring to obtain some kind of redress for the base imposition which had been practiced on them, but their efforts were fruitless They then came to Paris and spentathe winter here, where they were generally known to the American residents in the place.

At the period of the coronation of the Emperor of Russia, they went to St. Petersburg. It was here that Mr. Sala made the acquaintance of the family, by a letter of introduction from Paris. The family were going to demand justice of the Emperor of Russia against ship of Highland, in Elk county is the smallnis scoundrely subject. Mr. Sala drew up est district in Pennsylvania, having but 8 the petition to the Russian Minister, and in lest district in Pennsylvania, having but 8 this petition Miss Ward demanded of the laxables. The moment the case was laid before the Emperor, an order was issued to the Russian, Emperor, an order was issued to the Russian On Monday, March 9th, of scarlet fever, Charles, Minister at Naples (where the Count was then son of OLIVER H. and EMILY J. The Count, who was an exile, was sent to Siberia, his property was confiscated, the Countess retained by law one-third. The family immediately left again for halfy, where they are spending the winter. The lather and brother of Miss Ward were present at the marriage at Warsaw with revolvers in their pockets, determined, if there was any funching on the part of the Count, to blow his brains out. For in view of the fact that he was destined for Siberia under any circumstances, it was feared that he might not at the -Luropean correspondent of the New York

A detachment of Capt. Wm. H. Kendrick's Company of Mounted Volunteers, under command of Lieut, Mizell, came upon a !rail of Indians on the 4th inst., on the west side of Istapoga creek. The New Jersey Sussex Herald gives an account of one of the most harrowing catastrophes by fire of which we ever remember to have heard. On Monday night last, Mr. IERMIAH B. PETERS, of Bremerville, who with his family had retired at an early hour, was awoke from his sleep by a strong smell of burning timber, and found that the upper part of his house was in flames. He immediately endeavored to gain access to the sleeping apartments of three of his children, which the fire was bursting forth; but, on ascending the stairs he was driven back by a volume of smoke and fire. Frantic with the thought that his children were perishing without being able to get to their assistance. it was but the work of a moment to get to the outside of the building and move a ladder, which was at hand, to the chamber window. But who can describe the father's fellings upon finding that the charred and smouldering roof was already toppling, and ere another minute the mass of burning timber fell in, burying in its ruins his beloved children. The charred remains of but one of the num. ber were discovered after the fire, which totally destroyed the house.

Two attempts were made on Friday last, at Auburn, N. Y., by convicts, to kill the agent of th State prison. One assault was made with a knife and the other with a hammer. By the prompt interference of the keepers, no injury was done to the agent. Fears of farther difficulty are entertained, Twenty-seven convicts, belonging to the same shop where the difficulty occurred, are now confined to their cells.
