aid and comfort your kind assurances and hearty cooperation have afforded in many dark and trying hours. You have my sincerest thanks, and my earnest prayers that you may be abundantly rewarded of Heaven.

To the ladies of the Territory-the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the honest settlers-lam also under a weight of obligation. Their nious prayers have not been raised in vain, nor their numerous assurances of confidence in the policy of my administration failed to exert a salutary influence,

And last, though not the least, I must not be unmindful of the noble men who form the Military Department of the West. To General Persifer P. Smith and the officers acting under his command, I return my thanks for many valuable services. Although from different parts of the Union, and naturally imbued with sectional prejudices, I know of no instance in which such prejudices have been permitted to stand in the way of a faithful, ready, cheerful and energetic discharge of duty. Their conduct in this respect is worthy of universal commendation, and presents a bright example for those executing the civil power. The good behavior of all the soldiers who were called upon to assist me, is, in fact, deserving of especial notice, Many of these troops, officers and men, had served with me on the fields of Mexico against a foreign foe, and it is a source of no little satisfaction to know that the laurels there won have been further adorned by the praiseworthy alacrity with which they aided to allay a descripciive fratricidal strife at home.

With a firm reliance in the protecting care and overruling providence of that Great Being who holds in His hands the destinies alike of men and of nations, I bid farewell to Kansae and her people, trusting that whatever events may hereafter befall them, they will, in the exercise of His wisdom, goodness and power, be so directed as to promote their own best interest and that of the beloved country of which they are destined to form an im-JOHN W. PRESTON S, BROOKS.—The Green Bay (Wis.) Advocate, an administration paper, has the following comments on the death of this noted character .

"Though we edit a Democratic paper, we have never believed it to be our duty to excuse or apologise for this man's cowardly assault upon Charles Sumner. It was the basest and most unmanty act which has, within our memory been perpetrated in Congress, and no political tie shall blind our syes to its enormity. Summer, whatever his politics, was one of the most talented men of the time, and the attempt to blot out that intellectual light by ruffically strength, leaving the lamp with the flame forever extinguished, was a more damnable crime than the shooting of a man down upon the highway."

IMPORTANT TREATY WITH MEXICO. - WE learn from Washington that letters received in that city go to confirm the report that a treaty of great importance has been negotiated with Mexico by our Minister, Mr. Forsythe, with the Commoniort government.-That portion of the statement lately published as to a stipulation for an advance by the United States to the government of Mexico of a large sum of money, as a toan, is simply ridiguious, It is probable that the treaty gives us a targe slice of Mexican territory, including Sonora, for the consideration of the payment of Fifteen Millions of Dollars, a portion of which is to be appropriated to the satisfaction of claims of American citizens upon the Mexican government. This is doubtless another plot for more Slave Terri-

GEN. CASS .- When John Quency Adams was President, and Henry Clay Secretary of State, Gen, Cass was a portly, middle-aged gentleman, with a rubicund face, filling the office of Governor of Michigan, our westernmost Perritory, and Pranklin Pierce was a youth in college; Clay, Webster, and Calhoun were in their prime, and Benton a rising politician. Since then the first three have passed away, Benton has retired from public life, a whole generation of politicians have gone to their graves, three men have been elevated to the Presidency whose names were then unknown to the country, and now Gen. Cass is about to commence a new political career.-N. Y. Times

The origin of the phrase, "riding at a canter," is a curiosity. Some centuries ago, the English were in the habit of making a pilgrimage to Canterbury, to worship at the pilgrimage to Canterbury, to worship at the ed. Sent by mall, postage prepaid. Price, paper tomb of some Catholic saint. They rode in 30 cents, muslin 50 cents, processions, on horseback, at a slow gallop. This gait of a horse was afterwards called a "Canterbury gallop," which was finally abbreviated to "canter"

The Pennsylvanian calls the decision of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case, "the funeral Sermon of Black Republicanism." It will prove in its effect, like the fuaeral sermon which Mark Anthony pronaturced over the body of the slaughtered Creser which might cause the very stones to rise in mutiny and rage. - Blair Whig.

A St. Louis paper states that Gov. Geary has resigned, for the reason that the Administration has deceived him by refusing the promised support to do justice to Kansas, and that he says the worst of the wrongs of that ill-fated land have not been told. He sees no peaceful way of preserving it from
