STRANGE LOVE AFFAIR IN INDIANA .-The Liberty Herald, printed at Liberty, Union Co., tells the following :- We have been placed in possession of some most melancholy facts in relation to a young man and the bars. Yet this man is serving out a term a young lady, the former a resident of Preble of years for having cut her throat—his wife's county, Ohio, and the latter a resident of Oxford. It appears that the young gentleman is a student at the West Point Military Academy, and the lady was his betrothed. Being absent from her a long while, he returned home some two weeks since, and found her married and in her second confinement .-Although a correspondence had been regularly kept up between them, she had con-cealed the fact of her marriage, and of course, he was startled to find how matters stood on his return. The young man wisely determined to let matters pass off quietly, and seek friends and fortune in another place. In view of this determination he concluded not to see the lady, but unwise counsels of friends prevailed with him, and he went to the house where she resided. While in a room adjoining that of the lady, she heard and recognized his voice, and expressed a desire for an interview with him. He immediately repaired to the room, where a most affecting scene occurred. She asked and obtained his pardon; the interview closed, and they separated. But what she had passed through was beyond her endurance, and that night her spirit passed from earth. The young man was not informed of her death until morning, when he attempted self-destruction by jumping into a mill race not far from where he resided. He would have succeeded in drowning himself but for the accidental appearance of a gentleman wending his way along the race to the mill. Immediately after he was taken from the water and recuscitated, his friends sent him to Cincinnati, where he would be away from the scenes that would bring to his memory the unhappy circumstances which had overtaken him at his home.

THE FARCE PLAYED OUT .- Gen. William Walker has "got through" in Nicaragua .--The farce-a farce, though horribly tragic in some of its incidents-of which he was the hero, is played out, the curtain has fallen and the lights are extinguished. His career has been brief, full-of vicissitude and variety, and entirely destitute of that lustre which he evidently intended should attach to it. He has "capitulated;" surrendered; given up; given out; come home. The celebrated General Walker is transferred into a broken-down, unsuccessful, unhonored private. The great fillibuster has filli-busted.

There was a time when Walker might have succeeded in his designs. Questionable as was the propriety, the justice of those designs, he nevertheless once held their triumph in his own grasp. The rock upon which he split is one upon which others have split before, and others will, probably, split after him. From the hour in which he issued a decree establishing Slavery in Nicaragua, his influence began to wane and his prospects began to darken. That decree was the knife with which he committed suicide.

Who shall be responsible for the blood that has been shed, for the outrages that have been perpetrated upon the soil of Nicaragua, during the career of the defeated and discomfited filibuster? What is to be the end of the matter?

Will the United States Government receive the runaway chief to whom it yielded its halfway support in Nicaragua, and uphold him in the disgraceful insults which he perpetra-ted upon the sacred cause of Freedom and Right? Will it endorse his bloody acts, his infamous decrees? We shall see. One thing is certain-it can no longer pursue its former vacillating policy. It must speak now-it must act now. We await the utterance and the deed .- Syracuse Journal.

THE LAST DODGE .- Two pedlars in Centre county lately hit on an expedient by which a number of victims were swindleed, and a considerable amount of money realized by he dishonest operation. The scene was it Brush Valley where the inhabitants are not of the wide-awake species. One of the ped lars traveled in advance of the other from house to house, asserting to all he met that the Lock Haven Bank had suspended, and would probably fail. He refused to receive its notes in payment for the goods he sold .-The next day his confederate came along the same road. He confirmed the report that the Bank had failed; but was willing to receive the notes at a discount, in payment for goods, as he was indebted to the Bank and could thus dispose of its paper. It took some time before the good people of Brush Valley were undeceived.

PEARL FISHING .- It has been discovered that a certain kind of clams common to the brooks of New Jersey, contain pearls and some have been found of great value. A poor shoemaker of Patterson, who was hard up for provisions, undertook to eat some of these muscles, and found in one a pearl which he had spoiled cooking, that otherwise would have been worth $25,000. He and others have since gone into the business of Pearl Fishing exclusively, and several thousand dollars worth have already been found. So far they have been found in shallow water about mid-leg deep. The usual mania consequent upon such a discovery has seized the people; and by this time thousands of the treasure seeking people of the Jarseys, of all ages and conditions, are to be seen with trowsers rolled up and waddling up and down the shallow brooks after fortunes.

FRIGHTENED.-The New York News, a paper which often has an ague-fit, is alarmed because "New Grenada has been forced by a display of overwhelming physical power to surrender the sovereignty of a naval station in the Bay of Panama to the English Govern. ment." "The key of the oceans," it says, "is in the hand of England." The News should remember that if England does hold the key, the key-hole is well guarded, and that the former will be of no account so long as it is separated from the latter. After indulging in this reflection, let the News take a slight opiate and retire. There is no danger .- Syracuse Journal...

Fine Lity. - These is a woman, youthful and quite handsome, who visits the Baltimore Penitentiary every day, and converses with her husband for an hour and more through breast, from the effects of which her life was ten thousand. She is doing good for evil.

-D-I-E-D-

Wednesday morning, May 27th, ANNA DICK-INSON, daughter of John and Mary Dickinson sed 13 years.

The deceased was a bright and pleasing girl. Her summers have been few. She has passed from carth, after having suffered the trials of a child, but having enjoyed the pleasures of a christian. She saw the world mainly as it presented itself in the peace and purity of the family relation; and with a happy ignorance of the strife and wickedness of the earth, she has gone to her Heavenly home with the knowledge of God as her Father, and Jesus Christ as her 'Elder Brother.' Her sickness though not accompanied with acute pain, brought with it many distressing (selings no less difficult to be endured. Her behavior, during it, was becoming to a Christian child. She sought to restrain the impulsiveness of youth and to regulate her conduct according to a divine rule. She honored her parents, and loved them with fervor-repaying them for their toil, by her words and looks of affection.—Her religious sensibilities were called into action by the felt presence of Him who says with unfailing tenderness. "Suffer little children to come unto me"; and so she was sustained and soothed. Even the fresh verdure and the blooming flowers diffused foy and strength through her soul. They were pleasant to her because they were tokens of the Heavenly Father's love, and they were sweetpromises of the ever blooming pleasures which the Lord has prepared for them that love Him.

We mourn not for her. She has received an early discharge from the varied and oftentimes difficult duties of life. And though the surviving may not complain because they endure the heat and burden of the day; they may not sorrow either because those whom they love have been counted worthy to receive a better phrtion. We shall go to her, but she will not return to us. May the Lord mortify and kill all vices in us, that by the innocency of our lives and constancy of our faith even unto death we may glorify His holy name through Jesus Christ.

HERRING'S SAFE, THE ACKNOWLEDGED

CHAMPION.
THE RECENT TRIALS at Reading have endorsed the current of public opunion, and confirmed the verdict of nuore than 200 accidental fires, proving conclusively that "flerrings" is the ONLY SAFE that will not burn.
Extract from the Committee's Report on the Trial of Iron Safes at CHAMPION

Reading On the 20th of February all the members of the committee meet to witness the Safes and books and papers, (placed in them) and were perfectly satisfied that all was right. The day following, the burning took place, under the superintendence of the Committee. After a fair and impartial burning for five hours, the Safe of Messrs Evans & Watson was first opened, the Safe being on fire inside, and the contents partially consumed, while the contents in the Safe of Messrs Farrels & Herring were in good condition, and no fire inside." A. Lautz.) made double thickness, (different from those they sell) to "burn up" one of Herring's (half as thick) has met with its true reward. Herring's Safe could not be burnt, proving couclusively that the only reliable safe now made is "Herring's" of which over 15,000 are not in actual use, and more than 200 have been tried by fire without a single loss. eithout a single loss, July 13, 1857. ly.

The undersigned, members of the committee, do respectfully report, that we suw the two Safes originally agreed upon by Farrels & Herring and Evans & Watson, placed side by side in a furnace, viz: The Safe in use by the Paymaster of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, in his office at Reading, manufactured by Farrels & Herring, and the safe in use by H. A. The fire was started at 81 o'clock, A. M., and kept up until four cords of green hickory, two cords dry oak and half chestnut top wood were entirely consumed, the whole under the superintendence of the subscribers, members of the Committee. The Safes were then cooled off with water, after which they were opened and the books and papers taken out by the Committee and sent to H. A. Lantz's store for public examination, after they were first examined and marked by the Committee. The books and papers taken from the Safe manufactured by Evans & Wotson were but slightly affected by the intense heat, while those taken from the Safe manufactured by Farrels & Herring, were in our number of damaged fully fifteen per continues then judgment, damaged folly fifteen per cent more than those taken from Evans & Watson's Safe.

We believe the above to have been a fair and impartial trial of the respective qualities of both Safes.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL FOR THE EAPPE CLEE OF COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, ASTHUA. WHOOPING COUGH, INCEPTENT COMSUMPTION CROUP, and for the re lief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every bradlet of the American States, its wonderfuleures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any were which have not among them some thing trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and times. While, it is the most powerful anticlote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasants and safest remely that can be employed for infunts and young persons. Parents should have it in shore against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Cherry Letteral saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no liminan skill can muster the inexemble canker that fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadint factality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for the cure. and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanged stages
