Young Genius.

Mr. Disraeli has, in his Coningsby, this striking passage :- "Genius, when young, is divine. Why, the greatest captains of ancient and modern times both conquered Italy at twenty-five! Youth, extreme youth, overthrew the Persian empire. Don John of Austria won Lepanto at twenty-five-the greatest battle of modern times; had it not been for the jealousy of Philip, the next year he would have been Emperor of Mauritania. Gasion de Foix was only twenty-two when he stood a victor on the plains of Ravenna. Every one remembers Conde and Rocroy at the same age. Gustavus Adolphus died at thirty-eight. Look at his captains-that wonderful Duke of Weimar, only thirty-six when he died. Banner himself, after all his miracles, died at forty-five. Cortez was little more than thirty when he gazed upon the golden cupolas of Mexico. When Maurice of Saxony died at thirty-two, all Europe acknowledged the loss of the greatest captain and the profoundest statesman of the age .-Then there is Nelson and Clive; but these are warriors, and perhaps you may think there are greater things than war. I do not. I worship the Lord of Hosts. But take the most illustrious achievments of civil prudence. Innocent III., the greatest of the popes, was the despot of Christendom at thirty-seven .-John de Medici was a cardinal at fifteen, and Guicciardini tells us, baffled with his crast Ferdinand de Aragon himself. He was Pope as Leo X. at thirty-seven. Take (Ignatius Loyola and John Wesley; they worked with young brains. Ignatius was only thirty when he made his pilgrimage and wrote the Spirit-ual Exercises. Pascal, (the greatest of Frenchmen) wrote a great work at sixteen, and died at thirty-seven. Ah, that fatal thirty-seven! which reminds me of Byrongreater even as a man than a writer. Was it experience that guided the pencil of Raphrel when he painted the palaces of Rome? He died at thirty-seven. Richeliu was Secretary of State at thirty-one. Well, then there are Bolingbroke and Pitt, both ministers before other men leave off cricket. Grotius was in practice at seventeen and attorney general at twenty-four. And Acquaviva was General of the Jesuits, ruled every cabinet in Europes, and colonized America before he was thirty-seven. What a career! the secret sway of Europe! That was indeed a position! But it is needless to multiply instances. The history of heroes is the history of youth.'

A certain lady, remarking upon the dress of a recently bereaved widow, said that "black silk became her extremely well, but hombazine would have shown a deeper sense of her loss."

We once knew an old German Professor who had collected a valuable cabinet of curiosities, which he highly prized. One morning a friend came to tell him of a very unpleasant circumstance-that he had seen a man go up a ladder into a window of the Professor's house.

"Into what window?" cried the philosopher.

"I am very sorry to say," replied his friend, "it was your own daughter's." - "Oh, man," said the other, "you almost frightened me; I thought it had been in the cabinet."

STREET EDUCATION .- The city missionray visited an unhappy man in jail, waiting his trial for a state prison crime. "Sir," said the prisoner, tears running down his cheeks, "I had a good home education; it was my street education that ruined me. I used to slip out of the house and go off with boys in the street. In the street I learned to lounge; in the street I learned to swear; in the street I learned to smoke; in the street I learned to gamble; in the street I learned to pilfer. O. sir, it is in the street the devil lurks, to work the ruin of the young." Is this so? Beware then, boys, of a street education, and stay at home. And let parents see to it, that home training is pleasant, and strong, and sound enough to grapple with and conquer the bad and dangerous influences of street society.

INFLUENCE OF A SMILE .-- A beautiful smile is to the female countenance what the sugheam is to the landscape. It embellishes an inferior face, and redeems an ugly one. A smile, however, should not become habit ual, or insipidity is the result; nor should the mouth break in to a smile on one side, the other remaining passive and unmoved, for this imparts an air of deceit and grotesqueness to the face. A disagreeable smile distorts the lines of beauty and is more repulsive than a frown. There are many kinds of smiles, each having a distinct character. Some announce goodness and sweetness; others betray sarcasm, bitterness and pride; some soften the countenance by their languishing tenderness, others brighten by their spiritual MOTHERS FOR THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN --It is much easier for a woman to enter the Kingdom of Heaven than it is for the rest, of the world. She fancies she is leading the children, when, after all, the children are leading her; and they keep her, indeed, where the river is the narrowest and the air the clearest; and the beckoning of a radiant hand is so plainly seen from the other side, that it is no wonder that she often lets go her clasp upon the little fingers she is holding, and goes over to her neighbors, and the chil dren follow like lambs to the fold, for we think it ought some where to be written, "Where the mother is, there will the children be also."

THE WAY TO MAKE PIES .- An old lady in the country had a dandy from the city to dine with her on a certain occasion. For the desserts there was an enormous apple pie. "La, ma'am!" said the gentleman, "How do you manage to handle such a pie !"

"Easy enough," was the quiet reply; "we make the crust up in a wheelbarrow, wheel it under an apple tree, and then shake the fruit

A young woman who had been disappoint ed in love, attempted to commit suicide at Pittsburg a few days since, by jumping into the Allegheny river, but was unable to sink on account of her hooped skirts. As she floated calmly down the stream she was rescued, and went home quite ashamed of herself.

subscribe in advance for the Map) are also to be inserted at their respective places, in the style of the Maps exhibited by the canvassers.

Maps of the principal villages will be inserted, on a large seeds, in the margin; also engraved views of public and private buildings.

No expense will be spared to execute the Map in the highest style of art. The plan will be plotted on a suitable scale, so as to show distinctly all the particulars above specified, and make a large and ornamental map. To be engraved and delivered to subscribers, handsomely colored, so as to show the territory comprised in each township, and monated on rollers. As the map will contain some eighteen square feet of engraving, at a cost of several thousand dollars, it will be seen that only a large subscription list will warrant the heavy expense incurred. The maps are sold only by subscription, and at only one price. No more maps issued than subscribed for. The map will contain tables of the population, productions, as essed value of property, religious societies, chooks, number of voters; &c., of each township and yillage raspectively, carefully made up from the latest authorite descendents.

Relying upon a just appreciation of our efforts, by the citizens of Tioga, to issue a map of their county on the above plan, that shall answer their project expectations, and he entirely satisfactory, subscriptions are respectfully solicited by the state of the popular care respectfully solicited by the state of the popular care respectfully solicited to the state of the popular care respectfully solicited to the popular care the state of the popular care the solicities of the popular care respectfully solicited to the popular care the project care the popular care the project carefully and the project care the project car
