

A CANDID DEACON.—Deacon M. was an honest old clogger, a kind, obliging neighbor and a good church-going Christian, believing in the Presbyterian creed to the fullest extent; but, unluckily, this pillar of the church was at times a little "shaky"—in fact, the deacon would occasionally get exceedingly "mellow," and almost every Sunday at dinner he would indulge in his favorite cider brandy to such an extent that it was with some little difficulty he reached his pew, which was in the broad aisle, near the pulpit, and between the minister's and the village squire's. One Sunday morning the parson told his flock that he should preach a sermon to them in the afternoon touching many glaring sins that he grieved to see conspicuous among them, and that he hoped that they would listen attentively and not flinch if he should happen to be severe. The afternoon came and the house was full; every body turned out to hear their neighbors "dressed down" by the minister, who, after well opening his sermon, commenced upon the transgressors in a loud voice with the question, "Where is the drunkard?" A solemn pause succeeded this inquiry, when up rose Deacon M., with his face radiant from copious draughts of his favorite drink at his noonday meal, and, steadying himself as well as he could by the pew-rail, looked up to the parson and replied, in a piping and tremulous voice, "Here I am." Of course a consideration amongst the congregation was the result of the honest deacon's response; however, the parson went on with his remarks as he had written them, commenting severely upon the drunkard, and winding up by warning him to forsake at once such evil habits if he would seek salvation and flee the coming wrath. The deacon then made a bow and seated himself again. "And now," he spoke the preacher man in his loudest tones, "Where is the hypocrite?" A pause, but no one responded. Eyes were turned upon this and that man; but the most glances seemed directed to the squire's pew, and indeed the parson seemed to squint hard in that direction. The deacon saw where the shaft was leveled or where it should be aimed, and rising once more leaned over his pew-rail to the squire, whom he tapped on the shoulder, and thus addressed: "Come, squire, why don't you get up; I did when he called on me."—Boston Post.

"Don't you think," said a brother lawyer to Judge Greenwood, of Georgia, "that Jim Pierson is the greatest liar of a lawyer that you ever saw?" "I should be sorry to say that of brother Pierson," replied the Judge; but he is certainly the most economical of truth of any other lawyer on the circuit."

HERRING'S SAFE.
THE ACKNOWLEDGED CHAMPION.
THE RECENT TRIALS at Reading have endorsed the current of public opinion, and confirmed the verdict of more than 200 respectable jurors, proving conclusively that "Herring's Safe" is the ONLY SAFE that will not burn. Report on the Trial of the Iron Safes at Reading, March 2, 1857.
On the 26th of February all the members of the committee met to witness the Safe and books and papers, placed in them and were perfectly satisfied that all was right. The day following, the burning took place, under the superintendence of the Committee. After a fair and impartial burning for five hours, the Safe of Messrs Evans & Watson was first opened, the Safe being on fire inside, and the contents partially consumed, while the contents in the Safe of Messrs Farrels & Herring were in good condition, and no fire inside. Reading, March 2, 1857.
(Signed) H. P. PELIX, Committee.
P. N. COLLEMAN, do
The above Safe can be inspected at 34 Walnut Street, where the public can see the same, and the great superiority of the "Herring's Patent Champion," over the defeated and used-up "inside Iron Door Salamander."
FARRELS & HERRING,
34 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.
Only Makers in this State of Herring's Patent Champion Safes. The attempt made by other parties to bolster up the reputation of their cheap and inferior safes, by taking one out of an agent's store, (H. A. Lantz), made double thickness, (differing from those they sell to "burn up" one of Herring's (half as thick) has not met with its true reward. Herring's Safe could not be burnt, proving conclusively that the only reliable Safe now made is "Herring's" of which over 150,000 are now in actual use, and more than 200 have been tried by fire without a single loss.

EVANS & WATSON,
PHILADELPHIA Manufacturer of Salammard Safes, No. 26 S. Fourth Street, Philadelphia.
Truth is Mighty and must Prevail.
Report of the Committee appointed to superintend the burning of the Iron Safes, at Reading, Feb. 27, 1857.

The undersigned, members of the committee, do respectfully report, that we saw the two Safes originally agreed upon by Farrels & Herring and Evans & Watson, placed side by side in a furnace, viz: The Safe in use by the Postmaster of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, in his office at Reading, manufactured by Farrels & Herring, and the safe in use by H. A. Lantz, in his store, manufactured by Evans & Watson, and put in books and papers precisely alike.

The fire was started at 8 1/2 o'clock, A. M., and kept up until four cords of green hickory, two cords dry oak and half chestnut log wood were entirely consumed, the whole under the superintendence of the subscribers, members of the Committee. The Safes were then cooled off with water, after which they were opened and the books and papers taken out by the Committee and sent to H. A. Lantz's store for public examination, after they were first examined and marked by the Committee. The books and papers taken from the Safe manufactured by Evans & Watson were but slightly affected by the intense heat, while those taken from the Safe manufactured by Farrels & Herring, were in our judgment, damaged fully fifteen per cent more than those taken from Evans & Watson's Safe.

We believe the above to have been a fair and impartial trial of the respective qualities of both Safes.
JACOB H. DYSSER, DANIEL S. HUNTER, EVANS & WATSON have now on hand 300-000 pounds of the above Safes, which they offer for sale on better terms than any other Manufacturer in the United States.

The following named gentlemen, residents of Reading and its vicinity, who saw the above fire, have purchased Safes from Evans & Watson since the burning up to May 1st, 1857:
G. A. Nicolle, 1; Leopold Hirsch, 1; Isaac Ruth, 1; Kirk & Heister, 1; W. Rhoads & Son, 1; Henry W. Missinger, 2; Dr. Wm. Moore, 1; Solomon Rhoads, 1; Billmeyer, Follmer & Co., Milton, 1; Levi L.
