THE TIOGA COUNTY AGITATOR.

A Mysterious Adventure.

FRIGHTFUL LEAF FROM & WINDOW .--- A scene was enacted between eleven and twelve o'clock on Thursday night, on Third street, below Mariott's lane, in the Second Ward, which formed the subject of considerable gossip among the residents of that section of our City yesterday. There is a singularity and mystery about the affair, which have not been fully explained or unravelled, owing to the fact that the parties directly interested. were rather uncommunicative on the subject. The facts, publicly demonstrated, are as follows: Between the hours above mentioned, a young lady sprang suddenly from the second story window of her parents' residence, with a well packed valise in her hand, and she was caught by a young man, who was standing on the pavement directly beneath the window, and who appeared to be in waiting for the fair and desperate one. Though he caught her in his arms, and broke her fall, yet she received some injury and groaned several times. A gentleman passing by, on the opposite side of the way, and who witnessed the thrilling scene, hastened across the street to render any assistance that might be necessary. The young lady, on partially recovering from the stunning effects of the fall, exclaimed, "Oh, take me away-.take me to Third and Walnut streets." She limped as she walked, and on reaching Christian street she suddenly turned westward, and rapidly increasing her pace, was soon lost in the darkness of the night The strange young man followed in quick pursuit, and thus our informant, who had voluntarily proffered assistance, was left "solitary and alone?' to ruminate upon the adventure of the night. "Love laughs at locksmiths;" iron bars are of no account, and where desperation seizes upon the mind of the votary at Hymen's shrine, rope-ladders dwindle into insignificance. The leap which the young lady took on this occasion, was certainly of the most frightful character. being at least twelve feet feet from the window-sill to the sidewalk. Various causes are assigned for this singular affair. 'The most current one is, that the young lady has been badly treated by her father, he having whipped her most unmercifully on several occasions rocently, until she regarded his presence with a shudder of horror. Not re-ceiving that show of paternal kindness due supposed that she adopted the above for leaving for parts unknown. The fact, however, of a young man being there to receive her in her downward flight or leap, may be considered as some evidence of precaution, mixed up with a large amount of desperation and a portion of an ingredient, if it can be called such, known as love. We may state that the gentleman who witnessed the occurrence called at the house of the parents yesterday, and after some conversation with the mother, came to the conclusion that the father has much reason to censure himself for the acts of his daughter, be they what they may .- Phila. Daily News. Stephen A. and Fred Douglass. The following good hit was given by J. J. BRARDSLEY, at his recent speech in Davenport : "The history of this new coinage of "nigger equality" is amusing. It originated in the inventive mind of 'our distinguished Illinois Senator,' as the Democracy phrase it, otherwise called Stephen A. Douglas. He 'Little Giant,' but since a question has arisen whether he is a very great man or a very great humbug, and public opinion has fast been tending to the belief that he is a 'little' of both, it is said, the gigantic littleness heretofore attached to his name has been cut off; at pleasure. Black Republican,' his own party are also under obligation to him for the affix of 'National,' as a Democratic prelude, but his greatest triumph is his last, namely, 'nigger equality.' It is said there has been rankling for a long time in the breast of four distinguished Illinois Senator,' a feeling of jealousy towards his distinguished though colored namesake who resides in the State of New York, and that it is to this circumstance we are indebted for the idea of rivalry between the races. "It must be confessed that a truthful para llel drawn between the white and black Douglas is not over favorable or flattering to the white man. The backers of Fred, have often challenged the backers of Stephen to a fair and manly encounter of wits; and it is believed the latter has several times submitted to a grooming preparatory to the race; but knowing that defeat would be death, and fearful of the result, his friends have adopted the proposal seemed audacious and almost insulting; yet willing to win money or fame in any way, he examined the bovine racer from head to tail,-but thinking there was 'a nigger in the fence,' he declined the banter, giving as his reason that "there was no telling what an or might do."

Bold Case of Kidnapping.

The people of Geueva have been under a high degree of excitement for several days past in consequence of a flagrant case of Kid napping in that village. As one of the im plicated parties is well known in Penn Yan and has highly respected parents residing there, it has caused much comment in that community. We will relate the facts as they appear in the Geneva papers, and as public report confirms them.

Napoleon B. Van Tuyl, a . young man scarcely 21 years of age, a son of Nicholas J. Van Tuyl, of Penn Yan, has been a clerk for about nine or ten months in the store of Adriance & Co. at Geneva. It is said that Van Tuyl made such representations to two colored boys, each about 20 years of age, that they were induced to go with him ton Columbus, Ohio, where he told them he had an uncle in the hotel business, who would give them employment and extra wages .-They took the cars, and when they reached Ohio were put in charge of two villains, whose names were Barton W. Jenkins and Paul Linsingston. After they had passed about one hundred miles beyond Columbus, it appears that one of the colored boys became satisfied all was not right and stepped off the train. One of the scoundrels tried to force him on again but did not succeed.

They went on to the next station, and leavng Van Tuyl in charge of the one on the train, the two Jenkins and Linsington, came back after the other, whom they assumed to arrest and carry to Kentucky as a Fugitive Slave. The magistrate, believing from what he could learn of the case, that the boy was free, caused the arrest of the Kidnapper, and wrote to under Sheriff Clute at Geneva, and the father of the boy, to ascertain the truth of the matter. Proofs of his freedom were immediately forwarded, and he is probably at liberty before this time, while his soulless Kidnappers are likely to earn something for the State in the Penitentiary. The liberty of the other boy has not yet been secured, a requisition from Gov. King has been sent forward for his rescue, and diligent exertions will be made to get him back. It is rumored that he was taken to Kentucky by Van Tuyl and there sold for $900, and that he had been transferred from one slave pen to another. We apprehend it may be difficult to find him, as the slave-traders, to one of her nervous temperament, it is when they learn his case, will hurry him beyand the reach of all possible search. We trust, however, that he will be rescued .--Elmira Advertiser.

THE WORLD MOVES .- In 1850 Senator Seward pursued his journey from Auburn to the Senate Chamber without the company of single sympathising political friend. Mark the change ! Now he is joined at Albany by his own colleague, Preston King, by Solomon Foot and Jacob Collamer of Vermont, At New York he meets Senators Hamlin and Fessenden of Maine, Hale and Clark of New Hampshire, Sumner and Wilson of Massachusetts, Foster and Dixon of Connecticut and Simmons of Rhode Island. At Philadelphia and Baltimore the company is further ncreased by Cameron of Pennsylvania, Wade of Ohio, Chandler of Michigan, Trumbul of Illinois, Harlan of Iowa, and Durkee and Doolittle of Wisconsin. Instead of a solitary "No" in the Senate Chamber to the demands of the Slave Power, its walls will now echo to twenty voices. This number will soon be swelled by a new Senator from used to take to himself the sobriquet of Iowa, and we trust two from Kansas, and perhaps, if rumor proves true, one from California. Verily, we may take courage and work on. The Right must surely triumph.

A CHIVALROUS VIEGINIAN FAMILY .--lames Nichols who is said to have wantonly and as he is chief name maker of his pariy, Va., is reported to have killed his own mother killed Frank Grier in Pittsylvania County, We are indebted to him for the a few years ago. Another brother by the name of Arnold is supposed to have shot his father and killed him ; and Burwell a still older brother, killed Daniel Ashwell, Strange to say, not one of them has been punished. Joshua Eaton, jr., a boy 14 years of age, has been sentenced to the New-Hampshire State prison for six years, to be kept at hard labor, for shooting Geo. Elisha Sweatt, aged 15, in Sandwich, N. H., last July. Young Eaton was indicted for murder by the Grand Jury, but was allowed to plead guilty of manslaughter. A lady in Blackford county Indiana, recently gave birth to a child only seven weeks after previous confinement. The first child was a boy, and was born on the 13th of June. The second was a girl, and was born on the 1st day of August. The children and mother are doing well. SPECIAL NOTICE .--- We beg leave to call the attention of our friends and the public to the adverreasoning of the jockey who was challenged tisement of the Cosmopolitan Art Association in to run his horse against an ox. At first the another column, headed "Brilliant Prospectus," by which it will be seen they offer a splendid Steel Engraving-size 19 by 25 inches, the "Art Journal," a copy of which can be seen at the Agilator Office or the Post Office, a ticket in the Drawings and a free admission to the Dusseldorf Gallery in New York, or any of the $3 Magazines and a ticket in the distribution, for the sum of three dollars. The success of this institution is beyond all parallel.-And the fact that one of its finest pieces of statuary distributed last year, was drawn by Mrs. Emma Howland, late of this Boro', will undoubtedly give the Association a large subscription in this vicinity. This Bust of Palmer's, entitled "Spring," was sold by her for $300. Somebody will also get the "Greek Slave" which was sold for $6000, by Miss Gillespie, to the Association, and is again to be awarded .--J. N. Bache Esq., is the Hon, Secretary for this vicinity and receives subscriptions. 'Let every one subscribe.

BUCHU LEAVES are procured from the south-ern part of Africa. The Hottentots at the cape of Good Hope bave long used this article as a remedy in a variety of diseases. From them the medicine was borrowed by the English and Dutch physicians residing there and by their recommend-ation it was soon employed in Europe. In process of time this medicine has come into general use, and is highly spoken of by the best medical writers. Physicians recommend it mostly for complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, a morbid irrita-tion of the bladder and urethra, retention of urine, also incontinence of urine from want of tone in the urinary organs.
