On the morning succeeding the appearance of his advertisement, he was seated in his office, when a knock was heard at the door, and in answer to his invitation to "come in," a young gentleman dressed in the extreme of fashion, with his hat turned jauntingly on one side, a delicate cane swinging from his right hand, and an eye-glass sitting astride his nose, made his annearance.

"What is your business, sir?" inquired Mr. B., with some curiosity, for he was not accustomed to such visitors.

"I believe, sir," said the young gentle-man, "you advertised for a-aw-a secretary." "A clerk-ves, sir."

"Aw, all the same thing. Well, sir-aw -if we can agree upon terms, I should be -aw-flattered to proffer my services."

"Ah, indeed !" "Yes sir." You will be pleased to learn that all my connections-aw-move in the first circles.'

"Undoubtedly that is extremely gratifying. But you mentioned terms. May I ask you what you expect?"

"Well, sir, perhaps a couple of thousand or so. Then, sir, I should make certain stipulations—aw—as to the time I'm employed.' "Go on."

- "For example, I never get up very early I think it injures the health, but could man rage I think to get to the office by ten o'clock every day. I suppose there wouldn't be any difficulty about that ?"

"Oh, no, sir. It's exceedingly reasona-"Then I should want --- aw --- to have Wednesday and Saturday afternoons at my disposal. I always go to the Rehearsals-sc many pretty girls there."

"Well, sir, proceed." "Then I should not be willing to work later than five o'clock in the afternoon .-Excessive labor is injurious to the health." "Anything more?"

"Well, no. Oh, yes. I should expect to have a vacation of six or eight weeks in the summer to go to the springs." "Is that all ?"

"Yes, sir, I believe so. What do you "Simply that on these terms I will become your clerk, if you will guarantee their fulfil-ment. As to myself, I really must try to find somebody who can get along without the springs, rehearsals, etc., and who does not set quite so high a value on his services.'

The young gentleman left in visible disgust, protesting that Mr. Blotter was "deci-dedly behind the time." - Yankee Blade.

POTATOES .- The next in importance which requires attention at this season is that of the potato. There is no farmer we suppose, but plants at least a small crop, and in the aggregate it is of great value to the community. It should be planted and tended with more care than it usually receives.

Sort.-The potato adapts itself to every variety of soil. It yields most abundantly on rather heavy and moist soils, but a light free soil makes them of a better quality .-They should by all means be planted on sad land, the richer the better. The crop would be more likely to be exempt from the fatal Samuel A. Mack. rot, if it were always on turf rich enough to produce a full crop without the direct application of manures.

MANURES.-Unless the ground be rich, an abundant supply of manure should be applied. The most economical method of applying it as regards the crop, is in the drill. Stable or barn yard manure should be planted immediately over the potato plantings, before covering. The advantage of so applying it is that it preserves a uniform moisture, about the rootlets, a point of especial importance in the dry season to the potato. The coarsest litter and manure may be thus used advantageously for this crop. Should the manure not be rich in quality, it is advisable to give besides two or three hundred pounds of mixed guano, or of Peruvian mixed with one fourth its bulk in plaster. Ashes and plaster mixed in equal quantities make an excellent top-dressing, dropped upon the plants after they come up.

SLEEP .- Women require more sleep than men, and farmers less than those engaged in any other occupation. Editors, reporters, printers, and telegraph operators, need no sleep at all. Lawyers can sleep as much as they choose, and thus keep out of mischief. Clergymen can sleep twenty-four hours, and put their parish to sleep once a week.

A colored woman was called to testify in court in Worcester, Mass., recently in a trial of damages by a collision of two carriages on a highway. To the question whether one of the parties was intoxicated. she answered that she did not know, but "he went as though he had a bill of sale on both sides of the road."

Dr. Franklin used to say that rich widows vas the only piece of second-hand goods that is sold at prime cost.

In process of time this medicine has come into general use, and is highly spoken of by the best medical writers. Physicians recommend it mostly for complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, a morbid irritation of the bladder and urethra, retention of urine, also incontinence of urine from want of tone in the urinary organs. It cools the unnatural heat and urinary organs. It cools the unnatural heat and relieves pain; and in many cases of long standing it has been effectual when other valuable medicines had failed to produce an effect. The active principle of this medicine is a volatile oil which is mostly lost by the old process of boiling. Hence it requires great care and skilful management to prepare this medicine properly. FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU is a strong or Concentrated preparation prepared by the new process called 'Displacement." GEO. FAIRCHILD, Secretary. October 25, 1856.—1y. Charles O. Etz of Tioga Village would respectfully call the attention of the public to the following advertisement. "Man wan's but little here below nor wants that little long" 19 an old saying and perhaps true to a certain extents But it seems to me that in this time of general suspension and panic, everything is tending to a reversion of time-honored sayings, and everybody wants a little more still. The farmers (and they really ought to have as much as anybody, for they are to our country what a main spring is to a watch,) wants a little more for their wheat, buckwheat, rye, corn, cate, potatocs, &c., than the purchaser feels able and willing to pay. The merchant wants a little more for his Flour, Pork, Salt, Dry Goods, Boots & Sines, Hats & Caps, Hardware, Crockery and ton these and little things he has the call, they and ten thousand little things he has to sell than the farmer thinks he ought to pay. At this present time it seems to be conceded by all that the cash value of good wheat is $1 per bushel; buckwheat, 2 to 2-6; corn 3-6 to 4-6; oats, 2 to 2-6; butter, 14 to 16 cents. Now to equalize the matter and make it satisfactory on both sides, I want and will agree to take from every farmer of Tioga county, all the wheat I can get for the next 60 days at 9 and 10 shillings per bushel according to quality; buckwheat at 2-6 to 3; corn 5 to 5-6; oats 2-9 to 3 shillings; butter 16 to cents.

HERRING'S SAFE.

THE ACKNOWLEDGED  ${f CHAMPION}$

THE RECENT TRIALS at Reading have endorsed the current of public opinion, and confirmed the verdict of more than 200 accidental fires, proving conclusively that "Herring's" is the ONLY SAFE that will not burn.

Extract from the Committee's Report on the Trial of Iron Safes at

"On the 28th of February all the members of the committee met to witness the Safes and books and papers, (placed in them) and were perfectly satisfied that all was right. The day following, the burning took place, under the superintendence of the Committee. After a fair and impartial burning for five hours, the Safe of Messrs Evans & Watson was first opened, the Safe being on fire inside, and the contents partially consumed, while the contents in the Safe of Messrs Farrels & Herring were in good condition, and no fire inside."

Reading, March 2, 1857.

(Signed,)

P. N. COLEMAN,
A. H. PELIX,
The above Safes can be inspected at 34 Walnut Street, where the public can satisfy themselves of the great superiority of the "Herrings Patent Champion," over the defeated and used-up "inside Iron Door Salamander."

The attempt made by other parties to belster up the reputation of a Safe which has failed so signally in accidental free in Philadelphia, (Ranstead Place,) by taking one out of an agent's store, (H. A. Lantz,) made double thickness, (different from those they sell) to "burn up" one of Herring's, (half as thick) has met with its true reward. Herring's Safe could not be burnt, proving couclusively that the only reliable Safe now made is "Herring's" of which over 15,000 are now in tetnal use, and more than 200 have been tried by fire without a single loss.

EVANS & WATSON, PHILADELPHIA Manufactured Salamander Safes, No. 26
S. Fourth Street, Philada.

Truth is Mighty and must Prevail. Report of the Committee appointed to superintend the Burning of the Iron Safes, at Reading, Feb.

27, 1857. "The undersigned, members of the committee, do respectfully report, that we saw the two Safes originally agreed upon by Farreis & Herring and Evans & Watson, placed side by side in a furnace, viz:
The Safe in use by the Paymaster of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, in his office at Reading, manufactured by Farrels & Herring, and the safe in use by H. A. Lantz, in fils store manufactured by Evans & Watson, and put in books and papers precisely alike.

The fire was started at 8½ o'clock, A. M., and kept up until four cords of green hickory, two cords dry oak and half chestnut top wood were entirely consumed, the whole under the superintendence of the subscribers, members of the Committee. The Safes were then cooled off with water, after which Safes were then cooled off with water, after which they were opened and the books and papers taken out by the Committee and sent to H. A. Lantz's store for public examination, after they were first examined and marked by the Committee. The books and papers taken from the Safe manufactured by Evans & Watson were but slightly affected by the intense heat, while those taken from the Safe manufactured by Farrels & Herring, were in our judgment, damaged fully fifteen per cent more than those taken from Evans & Watson's Safe. those taken from Evans & Watson's Safe.

We believe the above to have been a fair and impartial trial of the respective qualities of both Safes.

JACOB H. DYSHER, DANIEL S. HUNTER.

Having been absent during the burning, we fully coincide with the above statement of the condition of the papers and books taken out of their respective Safes., G. A. NICHOLLS,
