

At the late London Yearly Meeting of Friends, there were several points up for discussion, which may be regarded as of some importance by members of the society in the United States.

A Herd of Cows in the Air.—The recent whirlwind at, and in the vicinity of, Newville, Md., was the most singular phenomenon, according to the account, we have ever read of.

A Republican State Convention was held at Augusta, Maine, 24th. On a ballot given for gubernatorial candidate, Lot M. Morrill, the present Governor, received the whole number of votes polled—512; and was unanimously nominated.

American talent is receiving substantial acknowledgment from abroad. Prof. Morse is coming home with $80,000 in his pocket, the fruit of his Telegraph in Europe.

Principle of the Louisville Journal, says: One of the Administration papers in Pennsylvania speaks very despondingly of the prospects of its party in that State.

Queen Victoria, it is hinted, will appear in the venerable character of grandmother in the course of a few months, when a pledge of the loves of Prince Frederick William and his wife will be presented to the loyal people of Prussia.

A Washington correspondent of the Boston Post says that the Democratic party keeps a stiff upper-lip. A dead body generally has a stiff upper-lip—and a stiff under one too.—Louisville Journal.
