

COULDN'T SUBSCRIBE.—A pair of those interesting, entertaining ladies, who of late seem to carry on so large a business in our down-town offices and stores in the way of procuring subscriptions for new works, selling engravings of "The Father of his country," and other notabilities, and who (the ladies) are so fascinating in manner, so delightfully importunate, so sweetly un-get-rid-of-able, called a morning or two since at the office of a young lawyer, to induce him, as the younger of the two expressed it, with a charming smile, "To subscribe to a most elegant work just published, to be got up in elegant style, with illustrations, &c."

"Indeed ladies," said our friend, "I cannot; I have no doubt of the excellence of your work, but I am not in want of anything of that kind. In fact, I do not feel able at present to subscribe for any new works of any description. The partnership of which I am a member, has lately been so prudent as to issue a new work of their own, and the enormous expense attending its issue, not to speak of the illustrations, embellishments, and ornamental adornings with which they have seen fit to clothe the production—such unwonted outlay has really, for the present—in fact—crippled me—sorry—but a fact—every word of it."

"But—ah," interposed our enterprising agentess, "perhaps we could procure you some subscribers for your work; our terms are quite reasonable. What do you call your work, sir?"

"Well, we have not fully determined as yet, but I guess I shall let Mrs. S— have her own way, and call it after myself—Charles Henry."

"The ladies concluded they had an engagement in the next book."

PROTESTANT SERVICES AT ROME.—It is said that for a year or two Mr. Cass, our minister at Rome, has had Protestant service at the consulate. Mr. Chandler, the new appointee, being a Catholic, terminates of course the Protestant worship. "In the great hall of the Vatican," says a contemporary, "the visitor will see two flags—the Pope's flag and the flag of the United States—cosily standing side by side. If the visitor is curious to know what relations these two flags bear to each other, or what business our flag has in such a place, he will be politely told that in the days of the late revolution, when the excited masses cared little for the person of the Pontiff, or the noble buildings at Rome, when the Vatican itself was in peril, that same flag, waving from the summit, had power enough to save the pile, and while Mr. Cass remains at Rome the services he rendered must be acknowledged. But in his successor one is sought who will not claim nor desire Protestant services in the City of the Seven Hills."

There are many woman like those spoken of by Jean Paul, who abandon their opinion the moment their husbands adopt it. Even in church, he says, the woman sing an octave higher than the men, in order not to agree with them in anything.

BUCHU LEAVES are procured from the southern part of Africa. The Hotenots at the Cape of Good Hope have long used this article as a remedy in a variety of diseases. From them the medicine was borrowed by the English and Dutch physicians residing there and by their recommendation it was soon employed in Europe. In process of time this medicine has come into general use, and is highly spoken of by the best medical writers. Physicians recommend it mostly for complaints of the urinary organs, such as gonorrhoea, a morbid irritation of the bladder and urethra, retention of urine, also incontinence of urine from want of tone in the urinary organs. It cools the unnatural heat and relieves pain; and in many cases of long standing it has been effectual when other valuable medicines had failed to produce an effect. The active principle of this medicine is a volatile oil which is mostly lost by the old process of boiling. Hence it requires great care and skillful management to prepare this medicine properly.

FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU is a strong or concentrated preparation prepared by the new process called "Distillation." By this the valuable properties of the Buchu are entirely preserved, and this form of the medicine is less liable to injury from age and more palatable. Useful equally in all cases of the kind whether male or female. Price 75 cents per bottle. For sale at Roy's Drug and Chemical Store at Wellsboro Pa.

GARLICK'S Improved Portable Field Fence. Patented by Isaac D. Garlick, Lyons, Wayne Co. N. Y., May 5, 1857.

The patentee of this Fence, after numerous trials and experiments, has finally succeeded in perfecting a plan for the construction of Fence, which does away with the necessity of inserting posts in the ground. The above Fence is made to set upon the natural face of the earth, and by its peculiar formation will conform to the undulations of the ground. The mechanical mode of its construction convinces all who examine it of its superiority over anything of the kind ever offered to the public, as well as of its durability, simplicity and cheapness. It is so put together that it is secured by means of keys, which are easily adjusted, and batens by which it is kept strained to the ground, so that no trouble need be apprehended from winds.

This fence can be built of lumber at $10 per thousand, for the sum of 50 cents per rod—making it by far the cheapest fence that can be made; and the ease with which it can be put up and taken down, moved, made into stack pens, or used temporarily, for any purpose the farmer may require it—no less than the fact that at each joint an opening can be made, thus obtaining the necessity for bars or gates—must render it a universal favorite with the farming class of community.

The Subscriber has purchased the territory comprising Charleston, Delmar and Wellsboro, and will devote himself to the disposal of farm rights. RICHARD W. JACKSON. Delmar, June 17, 1858.
