

Giddings Overboard!

With this exclamation the N. Y. News announces the nomination of John H. Giddings for the District heretofore represented by that staunch champion of freedom, Joshua R. Giddings. The spirit manifested by that print, at the retirement of an old faithful soldier from the field of Congressional service, covered, as he is, with medals and green laurels, is that of a noble and gallant heart.

Then he would have been immortal, his personal daily example would have kept before the world until the battle had been fought and the victory fully achieved. He never retires from the duties, fatigues, perplexities and turmoils of a life, full of years and full of honors, whose name now reviveth his name, would emulate his many virtues. May he live more and not a few like him, in the history of the country.

Justice Purday read a couple yesterday who fully merit the epithet which they will doubtless enjoy as a happy union. The bridegroom is a bachelor, whose years numbered three and ten, and whose looks betokened the onset of womanhood. His bride was a young girl, who asserted that she was but fifty years of age, but the bystanders set her down at six. It appears that the widow, in the course of those winsome ways which widowhood is held to, inveigled the bachelor into an engagement which both parties proposed to consummate in matrimony. An objection, however, in the shape of several infants, twenty or thirty years old, belonging to the widow; who most decidedly objected to her marrying. In this dilemma they resorted to the usual device peculiar to young people, and eloped. As they lived in Canada, they only came to America, and accordingly came to Detroit, the bridegroom coming first, and the widow joining afterwards. Their delight at the successful termination of their romantic adventures was unbounded.—Detroit Free Press.

FRUIT CULTURE: or, a Guide to the Cultivation and Management of Fruit Trees, with a Description of Fruits, and a variety of useful and interesting Household Receipts; fully illustrated. By Thos. Gregg, New York: Wiley and Sons, Publishers. Price, by mail, paper, 30 cents; cloth, 50 cents. This fruit culture has but just begun to receive the attention it deserves, and we gladly welcome a work as this which contains so much valuable information to aid and instruct, and confer benefit, the fruit-grower. Every person who has a tree, or ground enough for a tree, should read it. To be successful in fruit culture, as in anything else, one must know how to do it; and this book contains the information one can not well do without. The price is so small that any one can afford it. There is no doubt but in all cases some fruits can be made profitable if properly cultivated.

WATKINS ASSEMBLY.—For a number of years there have been connected with the churches in Richmond, Va., Sunday schools for the oral instruction of children in scriptural or denominational doctrines. Recently, however, common sense has been made against some of them, as they were not strictly legal, the fact that they on Sunday caused the presence of nearly one hundred colored children in attendance at a school in the Leigh Baptist Church. They were, however, soon released, but the Whig says they held an interview with the Rev. Dr. W. J. Watkins, the pastor, and informed him of the purpose in summoning the pastor and trustees of the church before him at an early hour to show cause why they should not be allowed to assemble in the church.—Richmond Sun.

EX-PRÆSIDENT.—Gov. Packer's great "failure" at "instruction" as it is ironically called, is a comparative failure. Instead of a comparative success, as was expected, he was not, or were not on Wednesday. There are a large number of persons, however, who are not on Wednesday, and everything seems favorable to a peaceful and agreeable except the number of soldiers. We understand that a large number of visitors were present yesterday evening.—Vedette.

Hannouton Lands

NEW ENGLAND SETTLEMENT. OPPORTUNITY.—TO ALL WANTING FARMS.—A healthy place, twenty-five miles from Philadelphia on the Camden and Atlantic railroad, New Jersey. An old estate has recently been opened for sale, and the first of 10,000 acres divided up into farms of twenty acres and upwards. The soil is of the best quality for the production of fruits and vegetables, and the price is $20 per acre, payable in easy quarterly yearly instalments, within a term of four years with interest. The terms are made easy, in order to induce the purchase of the property, and to enable every industrious man to buy a farm. It is now being extensively improved by good roads, and some of the best citizens from New England and the Middle States are erecting large farms, and it is a scene of the greatest improvement of land in Philadelphia. Seventy-five houses have been built in four months. Practical farmers and business men from all parts of the country are settling there, and it is an important business place, on account of its being in the middle of a great market. Every article raised upon this land finds a ready sale. The water is excellent, and no such thing as a fever is known.

Bituminous Coal

The subscriber is now mining, and is prepared to sell, at his mines in GAINES TOWNSHIP, Tioga Co. Pa., the best quality of Bituminous Coal. My Mines are situated on the Barrens, nine miles south of Westfield, four miles from Pine Creek, and about fifteen miles from Wellsboro.
