in a healthy price, twenty-five miles from Philadelphia on the Camden and Atlantic rulroad, New Jersey. An old estate has recently been opened for sale, and the first division of 10,000 acres divided upointo farms of twenty acres and upwards. The sool is of the best quality for the production of fruits, grains, &c The price is "815 to $20 per acres, payable in easy quarter yearly instalments, within a term of four years with interest. The terms are made easy, in order to insure the rapid improvement of the land, by enabling every industrious man to buy a farm. It is now being extensively improved by good roads, and some of the best citizens from New England and the Middle Etates are erecting large improvements. It is a scene of the greatest improvement out of Philadelphia. Seventy-five houses have been built in four months. Practical farmers and business men from the length and breadth of the Union are settling thera. It is an important business place, on account of its b ling in the midst of a great market. The reader may be well aware that the earliest and the best fruits and vegetables come from New Jersey, which are annually exported to the amount of millions of dollars. The land, besides being accessible in every way for fertilizers, has an ebundant supply of the best quality of muck manure.

Lumber and building materials can be had on the spot at a cheap price, from the mills. Other mills are now being opened, and brickyards being started on the ground. A person can put up a frame tenement for present convenience for one hundred dollars. On account of the extensive emigration, this is the best course to pursue in order to get a place to live in at first. Carpenters and buildess are on hand to put up houses on the best terms.

In settling here the emigrant has many advantages. He is within a few hour? ride of the great cities in the Middle States and New England; he is near his old friends and associations; he is in a settled country, where every improvement and comfort of civilization is at hand; he is in a healthy place, and is not subject to the certainty of losing the greater part of his family and his own health by those malignant fevers which make the graves of so many millions of young and hardy in far off regions away from home and friends.—Besides, he has a mild climate and an open winter.

Coucins, Colds, Sorr Throat, Hoarrass, Bronchtts, String of Blood, Pain in the Brass's, Croup, Whoopfyn Coron, and every form of Pulmonary Complaint, that it were a work of supergraphion to speak of its merits.

Discovered by a celebrated physician more than twenty years since, it has by the wonderful cures it has effected been constantly appreciating in public favor, until its use and its sow well known and cherished by all (and their "name is legion") who have been restored to health by its use as the Great Remedy for all the discases which it professes to cure.

Sir James Clarke, physician to Queen Victoria, has given it as his opinion that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

The whole history of this medicine fully confirms the opinion of that eminent man. Thousands can testify, and have testified, that when all other remedies had failed, this liad completely cured; that when the sufferer had well night despaired, this had afforded immediase relief; that when the physician had pronounced the disease incurable, this has removed it entirely.

The virtues of this Balsam are alike applicable to ture a slight cold or a CONFIRMED CONSUMPTION, and its power as a safe, certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy cannot be equalled.
