Tioga, Dec, 9, 1858. MISS BREMER'S NEW WORK. THE FOUR SISTERS.

A Tale of Social and Domestic Life in Sweden. BY FREDRIKA BREMER.
Author of "The Neighbors," "Nins," "The H— Family," &c.
TRANSLATED BY MARY HOWITT. complete in one large volume, neatly bound in cloth, for One Dollar and Twenty-five Cents; or two volumes, paper cover for One Dollar.

Read what the Editor of the Sunday DISPATCH Bays of it:
"We are sure that every lover of a pure and healthy literature will welcome this translation, by Mary Howitt of the last story of the gentle and amiable Swedish authoress. The purity of the writings of Miss Bremer, their sympathetic power, and the excellent morals which she ever inculcates, render her novels welcome to the family circle. They teach patience, affection and endurance, in such a manner as to improve and gratify every mind. The story is quite equal to her best, and proceeds with a mild and artistic delireation to the denouement. We specially recommend it as a story which it will do any one good to read. This edition is anthorized by Miss Bremer, and it contains a dedication by herself to the memory of her friend, the late A. J. Downing."

it:—
"The Four Sisters, by Fredrika Bremer, is one of those nor"The Four Sisters, by Fredrika Bremer, is one of those norels, by this genial author, which have so pleasantly opened to us the doors of Swedish homes, warmed our hearts in their cheerful freside glow, and made us familiar with the lights and shadows of Swedish life. Perhaps in this work the shadows predominate, or at least appear strongly, for the sabict of the story is a woman's life and a woman's fate, in a country where, as Mrs. Browning puts it, there is —"No help for women weeping out of sight, Bocause men made the laws."

Miss Bremer's adhesion to what is known in this country as

Bocause men made the laws."

Biss Bremer's adhesion to what is known in this country as "Woman's Rights," is well known, and this novel may be considered her illustrations and defence of her views on that subject. Apart from all considerations of this nature, the novel is rull of rich humor. clever character painting, and felicitous descriptions of town life and country life, and indoor and out-loor scenery in Sweden. The translation has been made by Mary Howitt, who seems born to do two things remarkably well—write admirable stories of her own, and admirably translate the stories of Miss Bremer."

Read what the Daily Trans says of it:—

"Miss Bremer possesses, beyond ary other living writer of her class, the power of realizing the imagination every individual she introduces. The moral beauty and womanly purity which steadily illuminate her narrative, musl receive implicit admiration from all persons. We would advise all to buy and read this book."

It is a scene of the greatest improvement out of Philadelphia. Seventy-five houses have been built in four months. The Oxygenated Bitters,

For the cure of Dyapersia on Indication, Liver Complaint, Asthma, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Fever and Ague, Heart Burn, Water Brash, Acidity, Sea Sickness, Scurvy, Näusea, Headache, Emnut, and General Debitty, or any disease having its origin in imperfect digestion.

These Bitters, as all classes of our fellow citizens, ficleding Members of Congress, Lawyera, Physicians, Clergusen, Planters, Farmors and others testify, are the only safe, certain and severeign spectrum for the immediate relief and permanent cure of the many cruel complaints which in some phase or other of Dyapersia afflict our race.

These Bitters were discovered by Dr. George B. Gerra, and in their formula differ entirely from that of any other preparation of medicine. Curtaining no alchol—no mineral—no poison—no noxious drug,—in their nature tonic, not stimulating—retaining their virtues in any clime: they are a "combination and a form indeed" of Biedicins which knows no rival in exterminating disease and restoring the system to its pristine vigor and health. No matter of how long standing, or however induced or chronic is its characters the disease may be—no matter that it has laffied the skill of the physician, and resisted the efforts of Medicine, a single tria of these Bitters will satisfy the sufferer that his disease all amenable to the proper remody.

In testimony of the many cures effected by this Remedy reference is had to the written certificates from distinguished individuals known all over the land.
