We are requested to publish the following Poem, written by a lady on her way to her Missionary labors in Burmah. We see in it the tender and endearing memories of Home -a home which she left under the gentle impulsion of Christian Charity and Duty. LINES. WRITTEN OFF THE ISLAND OF TRINIDAD.

BY MES. G. P. WATROUS.

Oh! then loved land of my childhood's home, Though far from thy kindly strand I roam, Ket I would not forget; nor a stranger be To the home of my youth, "the land of the free;" The name of that soil, where in youthful glee, My footsteps roamed, o'er the mountains free;
Where I tripped o'er the mead, in early morn,
And violets culled, and the rose from the thorn,
Oh! thou sump days, so light and free,
When only the sweet was sought by me.

I will ne'er forget though far I roam,
From the haunts so dear, and my native home,
Nexth thy evergreen sod, in a church-yard lone,
Where the chesnut sigh'd, to the low wind's mean,
They have gently laid my mother to rest.
Her spirit joins a weetly the choir of the blest, At her head the rose-tree blooms each spring on its fragile stems, the tiny birds sing.

From:its fragrant leaves, falls the early dew,
To refresh the grass, which beneath it grew. Nor thou, Susquehauna, while thy pure waters flow, Bearing health on thy bosom where'er thou dost go, Giving health to the willow, in whose ample shade, On thy green mossy banks, I in infancy played. Where the Indian girl, with her fairy cance, Ilath glided so free, o'er the waters of blue, Where the timid fawn, in his airy flight, I will ne'er, though duty bid me rove, I will ne'er, though duty bid me rove, Forget thy scenes, nor the land I love.

Their variable forms, far stretched to the sky;
And thy verdant hills, where the ivy creeps,
O'er the erags and heights of their rugged steeps,
And the trees of thy forest, the sycamore and ash,
The cedar and willow, by the cataract's dash, The towering pine, and the maple shade That vies with the elm, at the woody glade.

Though in vain I now gaze o'er the billowy main
To view the green hill side, and rich flowing plain,
Fain would catch one glimpse, of my friends in the door,
And clasp to my heart, these I no'er may see more.

Yet I am happy, what if these thoughts bring Fresh drops from the fount, when the home song I sing?

sing?
'Tis not that I am anxious, for the eye that ne'er sleepe-Watches over the loved ones, their spirits He keeps. Ilis grace is sufficient! Who saith "follow me," And cheerfully I go, at His beck o'er the sea; Black storms, mountain billows, I willingly brave, Privations and sickness, o'en a watery grave. My treasures bring hearts for Him only meet,
I bring them, dear Saviour, to lay at thy feet;
It is all that I have, be it ever so small,
Were it thousand times more, still Thou should'st have all.

Dear land of my birth, glad I bid thee farewell, As I haste o'er the wave, Salvation to tell, I will fear no evil, let what will betide, I will fear no evil, let what will betude, Since my Father is present, to save and to guide. No greater I ask, than to spend and be spent In the cause of my Lord, by whom I am sent; That my life's best days, and its latest faint breath, May be spent to win precious sinners from death, When life's flickering lamp shall grow dim,
Then I'll turn from my labors, and still follow Him.
Through the valley and shadow, Hisarm shall sustain,
Until my tired spirit, sweet heaven shall gain,
Then I shall not grieve, but forever shall rest,
In that land where the weary are evermore blest, And joy that my Saviour counted me meet, And helped me lay all, at His glorious feet.

WHEN TO WEAR RUBBERS .- We notice that many persons wear India Rubbers in cold. dry weather, to keen their feet warm. This is an injurious and evil practice. India rubber shoes are very comfortable and convenient for covering the feet during the wet and sloppy weather, but they should rever be worn on any other occasion; their sole use should be to keep out the water. They should, however, therefore, be put off whenever the wearer enters the house, and be worn as little as possible, because they are air tight, and restrain the perspiration of the feet. The air cannot be excluded from them, or any portion of the body for any lenth of time, without sensibly affecting the health. It is our opinion that no habit tends more to good health than clean feet, and clean dry stockings, so as to allow the free perspiration of the nether extremities .- Scientific Amer.

The following eloquent, carnest and effective address was delivered at a recent Democratic caucus in the town of Sandford, Broome Coun ty, by a man who had been an inmate of the County Jail on an indictment for murder .-The speech is too good to be lost. Here it is: GENTLEMEN: By G-d, we are going to beat the d-d Black Republicans. I am going to work this year. Last year we were licked because I was in jail and could not vote. I was persecuted and kept in jail because I was a democrat. Gentlemen the Democratic Party is a persecuted party. Go to all the Jails and State Prisons in the country, and you will find nine out of every ten of all the criminals Democrats. Now, mark what I tell you. I am not in prison this year, and you will see what I can

THE love of fun is not unknown among the serious looking Chinaman, who are thickly collected in some parts of the Australian colonies A storekeeper wishing to advertise his articles in the Chinese language engaged a celestial to paint him a sign, expecting of course it would be an enticing one. It did not answer his expectations, however, for the only perceptible effect it had on the relations of the sun and moon was to excite a grin of the broadest dimensions. By a considerable bribe he obtained a translation in English of the advertisement, and found it to be as follows :-

'Don't buy anything here-storekeeper's a

Some fun-loving fellows in New Castle, Pa., recently started a society there which purported to be a lodge of the Sons of Malta. One of the initisted, however, exposed the whole concern He states that after being initiated, he signed what was represented to be a Constitution of the Order, but which turned out to be nothing more nor less than an order for a keg of beer upon one of the town brewers. The club had been indulging in lager at the expense of the new members for several weeks but since the 'blow' they have fallen through.

From them the medicine was borrowed by the English and Dutch physicians residing there and by their recommendation it was soon employed in Europe. In process of time this medicine has come into general use, and is highly spoken of by the best medical writer. Physicians recommend it mostly for complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, a morbid irrita-tion of the bladder and urethra, retention of urine, also incontinence of urine from want of tone in the arinary organs. It cools, the unnatural heat and relieves pain; and in many cases of long standing it has been effectual when other valuable medicines had failed to produce an effect. The active principle of this medicine is a volutile oil which is mostly lost-by the old process of boiling. Hence it requires great care and skilful management to prepare this medicine properly.
