The Teachers' Institute met at Tioga on the 3d inst., and continued its sessions for on the out are. The exercises were exceedingly infoot us; or teresting, nearly one hundred teachers being resent. Rev. Thomas K. Beecher of Elmira before our readers a full report of the proceedings next week.

The absence of the editor for the past week will be a sufficient excuse for the lack of interest in the local column. We (the devil) here been so busy cleaning up the office and raiting on the girls (customers, of course) that er have not had time to hunt up local items. If the editor has not gone off to get married he will be sorry to hear-how many girls called to see us since he left.

The Wellsboro and Tioga Plank Road entroversy which has occupied public attention athe Northern part of the county for the last ir months, is likely to be brought to a close. han appeal to the Courts. We learn that last Sturday the toll-gates were closed at Tioga by the owners of the road, who refused to open them to teamsters until the latter paid toll. This the teamsters refused to do, and the gateheper still refusing to open the gates, the teamsers broke it open and passed through. Two g three were arrested and placed in jail, but sere immediately liberated on a writ of habous orpus granted by Judge White. The case will ome up early next week, when we trust it will k finally settled.

SURVEYOR GENERAL .- Before leaving Eurisburg we heard the name of L. P. Wil-Etan, Esq., of Tioga County mentioned as a andidate for the aforesaid office. There is not man in the State that we would support with mater pleasure. He is as true as steel to the neiples he advocates, and the Republicans Pennsylvania could not confer the honors of that position upon a man more worthy of them. The North should present a solid delegation for Adjoining Counties.

POTTER.-We learn from the Journal, that lon Lewis Mann the Representative from the Western part of this District has entirely regrered from his late sickness. The Journal upresses a hope that Mr. Mann will consent to returned for a second term next Fall.

Bradford.—The Towarda Reporter contains maccount of the death of DAVID F. BARSTOW, Eq., an old and respectable citizen of that thee, who died suddenly on Saturday evening last. "He had been slightly unwell for a few digs, but retired to rest apparently much betr, when shortly he turned upon his side, and imost instantly expired. His death was caused by disease of the heart. Mr. B. was in his the year, and had resided in this place 35 years. He was for many years a Justice of the Peace, nd represented this County in the Legislature, t. Winter of 1839 and '40. As a citizen, he njoyed the respect of his neighbors, and in his anily relations he was preëminently distinfashed for his affection and kindness." "Sin."-A well-known sporting gentleman, ing from the western part of the county had the good fortune to kill a wild cat a * days since, was in town one day this week, The the animal's hide, for the purpose of promag a bounty. Some wag discovering the in the fellow's pocket, and knowing his anion, cautiously pulled it out, and after ating off the ears—which are all the evidence hessary to draw the money—put it back the The wag then went to the Commission-Office, drew the bounty fee and went away. willy afterwards, the man who had killed the rinal, walked into the Office, and presenting skin, demanded his bounty. The Clerk politely informed him that as the ears gone he could not draw the change, and terer that he had just paid a bounty on a Ar of ears. The feelings of our Trojan nd can better be imagined than described, the truth flashed-across his mind, that he been "sold." We were not present, but erstand he gave vent to his feelings in sunemphatic expressions which would not pretty in print.—Argus.

LTCOMING.—The Williamsport Gazette has eral items in relation to the doings of a band thieres in that place. It says that on Satur-Flight (23d ult.,) the clothing establishment William Gheen, on the corner of Fourth and treets, was entered, and robbed of a aber of articles of clothing and some other The entrance, it is supposed, was the throught the front door, by the means of theleton key. Last fall Mr. Barr, (Democrat) and Mr. Parons (Republican) ran for the office of Treasu rer in McKean Co. Barr applied to the Court. Judge White has just ducided the case, admitting the vote of Corydon township by which Barr had one majority, but throwing out four illegal votes for Barr and three for Parson, thus making a tie. Then he decided that as Parson holds the office now he may stick to it. The Democrat don't like it, for hereby it loses the advertising of the land sales and sundry other streaks of phat. MESSES EVANS & WAYSON.—Gentlemen,—It affords us the highest satisfaction to state to you, that owing to the very protective qualities of two of the Salamander Safes which we purchased of you some two months since, we saved a large portion of our jeweiry, and all our books, papers, &c., exposed to the calamitous fire in Ranstead Place, on the morning of the 11th instant.

When we reflect that these safes were located in the fourth story of the building we occupied, and that they fell subsequently into a heap of burning ruins, where the vast concentration of heat caused the brass plates to melt, we cannot but regard the preservation of their valuable contents as most convincing proof of the great security afforded by your

A TALE OF THE TIMES & FEATS OF MARION.

BY GEORGE ALBANY, ESQ.,; Author of "The Orange-Girl of Venice," "The Swamp Steed," "Rube the Ranger," &c., Will be commenced in the

NEW YORK MERCURY OF SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1859, Now Ready at all News Depots and Bookstores.

No character in history offers a better for the romancer, than that of Marion, or, as he was familiarly from the immense ingenuity of his stratagems and devices for misleading and deceiving the enemy, his thorough knowledge of the woods, forests, fields, and swamps of his native region, where he and his gallant band were perfectly at home, while their enemies became lost and bewildered in the labyrinthine mazes of undergrowth and morass.

The story above announced is a true reflex of those scenes and times, and its talented author has most vividly portrayed, therein, the many exciting incidents and accidents of a tenacious and indefatigable struggle for Liberty, nursued under the most adverse circumand accidents of a tenacious and indefatigable struggle for Liberty, pursued under the most adverse circumstances. Every chapter is replete with exciting and romantic interest, historically accurate, but with a sparking web of poetry woven through it, which makes it at once a brilliant story and a veracious record. The strongly-written descriptions of events—the ambuscade—the sudden sortic—the night attack the with a part and repulse are all related.

—the wild charge and repulse—are all wonderful as examples of word-painting, and equally true to the examples of word-painting, and equally true to the actual facts.

In addition to these scenes of heroism and lofty daring, the SWAMP FOX is not without the gentle charm of a love-story, for the working and the effects of the tender passion are depicted in its pages, as truly and artistically as the sterner emotions, rendering the tale a perfect picture of life and character in the Days of the Revolution, which cannot fail to appeal to the admiration, and gratify the taste of every reader who has a spark of true patriotism in his soul.

The peculiar power and interest with which the gifted author, GEORGE ALBANY, ESQ., describes the thrilling period, is a guarantee of excellence of truly magnificent Historical Romanco. The vivid delineation of character, the depth of thought, the facination of style, the picturesque beauty of description, and, in a word, the power of language he commands, all combine to render him one of the most brilliant writers of the age, while his great appreciation of and sympathy with the pioneers in the cause of universal liberty give him a grasp of Revolutionary subjects posessed by very few others. This has enabled him, in the SWAMP FOX, to exhibit the life and adventures of

as they really were, and to do fit homage to that deliberate valor, that unyielding patriotism, which, in a few noble spirits, defying danger, and above the scenes of privation, could keep alive the sacred fires of liberty in the thick swamps and dense and gloomy forests—asking nothing, yielding nothing, and only leaving the field the better to re-enter it for the combas!

We take to ourselves some credit, for having secured for our columns the chefs d'œuvres of this master's pen, but we intend to give the
