RELIGIBITION.—We had the pleasure of at-5 on Friday evening, the 20th inst., the by the students of the Wellsboro' the Court House. When we say We do not mean to include the jostling and squeezing we then reas constituting any part of the prothe of the occasion. As early as 7 o'clock but still they continued to come in, and at 8 o'clock when the exercises begun, the room and gallery was evidently full,—containing not less than 600 people, in all conceivable attitudes, and in the highest state of compression. After prayer by Rev. A. A. Marple, followed by music from the Brass Band, the regular exercises for the evening commenced. We regret that our space does not allow us to publish the programme entire, which would be the only means by which we could do justice to those who acquitted themselves creditably. The exercises were those usual upon such occasions, orations, colloquys, essays, etc. The former, although the noise of the crowd rendered speaking difficult, exhibited not only careful training, but s good degree of natural talent. The orations of the more advanced scholars were original, and it is to be regretted that the noise rendered them so difficult to be heard. Of the colloquys, the one entitled "Fish out of water," displayed in several of its characters not a little dramatic talent; and the "Doctor in spite of himself," and "The Weathercock," in which the same actors were represented, were well done, if we were to judge from the attention and applause of the audience. But the best hit was the dialogue between "brother Jonsing" and "brother Wite," entitled "That's what the Ledger says," which fairly brought down the house. "Love sation-has been unusually interesting Duty, and Parental Authority" and "The Beauty of Piety," (illustrated) were well received.

We regret that our space will not allow us to particularize farther. The exercises were enlivened till their close at 12 o'clock, A. M., by music from the Brass Band. The Summer Term will commence Tuesday, May 31.

Porren ;-The Editor of the Journal very considerately, and we think very properly, invites several city editors to fish trout, and promises to put them through a regular course of "Potter County usage." He did not mention the local of the McKenn Citizen or our selves in the invitation aforesaid, probably because be knew the city editors would not accept, and he knew we would.

A Swedish gentleman by the name of Sandberg is about to build a tannery in the Borough of Coudersport on the site of the old one. The Potter County Teachers' Association is to meet in Allegany on the 26th inst., Rev. J. Hendrick A. M. Principal of the Condersport Academy is to deliver the address. So says the Journal.

CLINTON.—We learn from the Watchman that the directors of the Lock-Haven Bank have declared a dividend of four per cent. Payable to stock holders on demand .--- We think Clinton county is a "pretty hard nation." The Watchman says there are nineteen prisoners in the County jail, and adds: "The two who escaped a few weeks ago, have not been re-taken, fusier. It is a very serious calamity, as and if they should be, there is no room for them in resout of present employment a large jail, and the Shoriff would be obliged to board some LYCOMING .- The Williamsport Press says a party of fifty or sixty Mormons-men, women and childrenpassed through Williamsport, on Tuesday week, enroute for Utah, with all their baggage and utensils for living. Some of the young ladies were admirably handsome. - A destructive fire occurred in William. sport on Monday night last. The Liquor Store and house of Peter Wise was destroyed, and several other buildings, from which it communicated to the Old School Presbyterian Church, which was entirely consumed. The loss is over twenty thousand dollars, partly covered by insurance. It was the work of an incendiary. The fire originated in the liquor store. ----We learn from the Jersey Shore Vedette, that a little child of Henry Aurand met with a painful death one day last week. His mother was engaged in washing, and had gone out of doors, leaving a tub of hot water in the house, and the little boy in attempting to withe Condersport Hotel, whose card may reach his hat fell backwards into the tub. He was terribly scalded, but lingered until Saturday night, when death put an end to his sufferings.

Its object is to raise money to purchase the last resting place of Washington together with two hundred acres of land at about $1000 an acre, said land being worth about $50. A lady correspondent of the Argus asks some pertinent questions. She says "When Mount Vernon is purchased, and the object of the Association accomplished, will that sacred burial place of the Father of his Country, be contaminated with Slavery? Will the slave driver's lash lacerate the flesh of the writhing, bleeding victims at Mount Vernon? And will white men sell their own children there? We are aware that it has been, and still is in the hands of slaveholders; and where is our security that these things shall not be continued.
