fist brilliant wit that is to be sure! The trat will find that "Rowe-ing ahead" up it River" is a very easy job.

FThe numerous "Bon Vivants" who rank acco in its various forms among their luxuwill be pleased to have their attention Alto any improvement in the form of servup what hearty old Christopher North calls mat Vegetable. Such an improvement is recent one of Messrs. E. Goodwin & Bro. New York City, of putting up Fine Cut for ring, and consists partly in the superior ting in the Tin Foil wrapper. This is comexcel by steam power into a dense package, thering it convenient for the pocket, and most calle of all, permanently shutting up the et natural moisture, which renders the quid withsome to the trained taste.

B We clip the following paragraph from e Corning Journal, as it gives further particars in regard to the fire in Middlebury townmoticed in the Ajitator last week:

On Saturday night, the large and valuable am Saw Mill, owned by Mr. A. H. FOSTER, Corning, located in Middlebury township, lega Co. Pa., was consumed by fire. It was sovered about 10 o'clock. It probably origi-ral from the burning out of the smoke-stack, as a heavy thunder storm prevailed shortly vious, some think it may have been struck lightning. The mill was stopped at 6 o'-

Gover's Book for June is on hand with its usual promptness. It contains its usual variety of original natter writen by the best lady writers in the country. We will not tell our lady friends what became of "Miss Slimmens;" they must buy the maga-zine and read for themselves. We will just say that she got what she deserved. The engraving this month is "Home and the Homeless," a very touching scene ; and the fashion plates need no commendation from us;

THE LEWISBURG - Chronicle has ohanged its , name and now calls itself. The Star, and Chronicle. I It is one of our best country exchanges, and though we cannot see any particular reason for this change, we wish it that sucess which it deserves-a long list of paying subscribers, and lots of fat takes.

LYCOMING .- The railroad is now open from William. sport to Jersey Shore .----- The eldest daughter of Governor Packer was lately married to Mr. Clark, one of the editors of the Lycoming Gazette. Mr. Clark holds the office of Grain Measurer at Philadelphia, under the Governor .- An anti-Packer Paper is shortly to be established at Williamsport, the course of the Guzette giving offence to the mass of the Democracy of Lycoming. The indications are that the new Buchanan organ will crush out the old Packer organ.—A CHAP from Muncy going through Bucks county was tempted in an evil hour to bestow an unasked kiss upon a blooming Dutch little damsel, whose father "sued him up to the law," when he had to pay $5 for the salute, and departed a wiser but poorer man .---- THE Lycoming Gazette states that wheat midge and Hessian fly has been seen in that neighborhood, but not in plenty-Wheat is everywhere heading out, a little in blossom and its harvest in June seems probable this year .--The Lycoming Opposition Committee re-affirmed the Platform of 1858, and appointed Daniel Bower, of the Press, Representative Delegate to the June Convention.

BRAFFORD.—We see by the Towarda papers that our old friend Dr. Macintosh has returned to his home af-ter an absence of several months on a lecturing tour. The Docter has been very successful judging from the flattering notices he has received from the newspapers nattering notices no max received from the newspapers everywhere. He has established a reputation as an elecutionist, excelled by none outside of the cities and Colleges. We note with satisfaction that some of the leading citizens of Towanda have invited the Doctor to give one of his entertainments, and that he has ac

We learn from a private source that he intends visiting our place again in the Fall. Of course everybody who heard him sing "Highland Mary" will want to hear him again. ON FRIDAY morning last our citizens were startled by the announcement that a young man named lliram Mix. of Towanda, Pa. who was temporarily a resident at the Lewis' House, was found lying dead in his room. On examination it was ascertained that an incision had been made in the left side of the neck, severing the carotid artery, causing death by bleeding. We are informed that the decensed is of a highly respected and wealthy family, and was at one time in possession of a handsome fortune, but like too may young men of this fast age, became the victim of sharpers, and af-ter, a victim to habits which too often follow the loss of this fast age, became the victum of sharpers, and al-ter, a victim to halits which too often follow the loss of wealth and position. Thus much we write of the history of one who is no more, not with the design of reflecting disgrace upon his memory or on the family remaining, who mourn his untimely end. But to the living this should speak volumes of warning, to shun the vices of the age, and the lamentable goal of one whose directors "rett in panes" Whose "ashes," it is to be hoped, may "rest in peace."

 POTTER.—The people of Coudersport are holding a series of Monthly Temperance meetings, although there is not a licensed tavern in the county. At the last meeting which was held on the 23d inst., the following Resolutions were offered by Rev. J. Hendrick, which we commend to the perusal and consideration of everybody.

Resourced. That the present is ever the time for action, and that while a single intemperate person remains as one of our scylibors, it is our importive duty to use our influence and to labor for his redemption.

labor for his redemption. Itesaterd, That Poor Taxes, Costs of Criminal Courts and other heavy burdlens are always inposed upon society as a penalty for allowing drunkards to be made in their midst. Itesated: That these persons who drink but a single glass a week, or even a month, throw the influence of their example in favor of the nse of intoxicating drinks as a beverage; and therefore, they encourage the manu-acture of drunkards-we are bound to labor, in season and ont of season, to per-sunds them to change their influence to the other side of this great question.<sup>7</sup>

Mn. C. C. Corren has sold a portion of his interest in the Northern Democrat to his brother, and the new firm "Cotter & Bro," have engaged the valuable services of their father, C. B.
