WELLSBORO' PENNA.

Thursday Morning, July 14, 1859. The weather during the past week has exceedingly warm. Crops are growing finely. The Supervisors of our Boro are doing a very handsome job on Main street, for which they ought to have and no doubt will get the thanks of the whole community. The old planks are being taken up, and the street is being leveled and graded.

About half-past nine o'clock Tuesday morning, an alarm of fire was given which startled some of our citizens. Fire was discovered in the roof of the residence of Mr. H. P. Erwin, but was soon extinguished with but little damage

After an absence of nearly three weeks we find ourselves again at our post, with renewed health.— Owing to our absence and the absence of our workmen, who attended the celebration at Tioga, we are only able to present our readers with a half sheet this week, which, we presume, under the circumstances, will be satisfactory to our readers.

The Prize Essay on the "Duties and Responsibilities of the Common School Teacher," will be published in the first number of the sixth volume of the Agitator. Quite a number of essays have been sent in, and the committee of adjudication are now engaged in reading them. Those whose subscriptions expire at the end of the volume had better renew them at SERENADED .- We were sitting the other evening in our sanctum, reading the "Autobiography of Alton and intimidate the press from criticising their official Locke"—and a sad story of heart trials it is—when our attention was attracted by the sound of music—Jersey Shore Vedette. our attention was attracted by the sound of music .--We listened, and the sad, sweet strains of "Annie Laurie" came floating to our delighted senses. We threw back the shutters, stuck our head out, and saw Hank Wood sitting on a pile of shingles beneath our window. Another friend who was with him threw something up at us-a boquet, perhaps-which we The moon shone brightly, the air was calm and still, other songs followed, and we were "as happy as a clam." Our young friends have our thanks.

On the 3d of July between the hours of four and six o'clock in the afternoon, a fearful tornado of wind and rain passed over the country doing much injury, but so far as we have yet heard, without loss of human life. A friend at Liberty in this county, writes us as follows:

"The black clouds began to rise in the south-west, and passed over our valley in a north-westerly direction. The clouds seemed to be charged with electriction. The clouds seemed to be charged with electricity to their utmost capacity, and such a display of lightaing and peaks of thunder was seldom ever witnessed in our valley. The rain came down in such torrents that it really appeared that the swollen clouds were emptying their entire masses of water at once, and such a terriffic gale of wind accompanied the storm as is beyond our power to describe. This storm extended over quite an extensive area of country, and in its course it leveled nearly every tree to the ground and uncovered nearly every roof. It has ruined every sugar-bush in our entire valley, and the amount of fences thrown down and destroyed is beyond all calfences thrown down and destroyed is beyond all cal-

Late fire in Towanda:

—Our citizens were roused from their slumbers between two and three o'clock on Saturday morning last by the unwelcome cry of fire!—an alarm which hae not fallen upon our cars for many months before. The fire was soon discovered to be in the old Eagle Foundry, in the southern part of the borough. Before the engines could be got on the spot, the flames had made such progress that all efforts to save the Foundry buildings were in vain. The stabling attached to the Rail Road House, which was directly in the rear of the Foundry was also destroyed; and it was with considerable difficulty that the Rail Road House, and siderable difficulty that the Rail Road House, and other adjoining buildings were saved. Indeed, had it not been for the stillness of the night and the heavy shower of rain which fell just previous to the discov-ery of the fire, it must inevitably have extended much ther. As it was, however, the firemen were enabled to stay its progress.

Potter.—We regret to announce the demise of the Coudersport Northern Democrat, known to the press of this part of the country as the Free Nigger Bumper. It was a professed Buchanan sheet, but was doing excellent service to the Republican cause in that country, by illustrating the depths of meanness to which a selfby illustrating the depths of meanness to which a selfstyled Democratic paper could descend. We cannot say that the deceased had the respect of any of its cotemporaries of any shade of politics. We never saw a line copied from its columns except as an object of ridicule or amusement. —BROKE OUT.—Three Prisoners Escaped from Jail.—James Gross, (convicted and sentenced at last Court to $50 fine and one year's imprisonment in the county jail, for assault and battery, upon an old German named Keeler, in Sweden township,) and Samuel and Wallace Austin, (the suspected horse-thieves noticed elsewhere.) escaped from our jail on Tuesday night. It is supposed they were assisted by friends on the outside, as they partly sawed off one of the iron window bars and then with a large hemlock stick broke it off, making an aperture large enough for any ordinary sized man to get through. The bar was of Sweed iron, and about § of an inch thick; it was sawed nearly half off. The Sheriff has issued hand-Sweed iron, and about g of an inch thick; it was sawed nearly half off. The Speriff has issued handbills offering a reward for their apprehension. He sent two or three men out Wednesday morning to look after them.

P. S.—The Austins were retaken two miles north of Ellisburg, on Wednesday afternoon. The elder brother evinced some disposition to fight at first, but was soon calmed down. They were re-committed to our jail late Wednesday night.—Journal.

Lycoming .- At the late session of the United States Court in Williamsport the following cases were disposed of: -United States co. Charles Miller. Indictment for manufacturing counterfeit coin. Verdict, guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $2,000 and to be confined at hard labor in the penitentiary at Allegheny City for the term of seven years.

When the time arrived for him to give said testimony he was not to be found, and the prosecutions were abandoned, there not being any testimony. Miller has since been tracked up, arrested and tried on the same charges for which he had been convicted and pardoned, before, and receives a far more severe sentence! If any of our readers are disposed to inquire why has he been thus dealt with we can only answer that we are not prepared just now to enlighted them on that point."

United States vs. Charles McBride. Indictment for forging coin. Verdict, not guilty. Prisoner dis-

A friend wishes to know why nobody is ever summoned as Jurors in the above Court, but leading Loco Focos? We cannot tell, unless it is because jurors are drawn contrary to law. Our friend is mistaken however, about leading Democrats being always chosen, as we know that Cotter, the celebrated inventor, was a juror from Potter county, and he is the very smallest thank of infinitesimal locofoco potatoes.

----We learn that a brutal, cowardly assault was committed on Daniel Bower, of the Press, at Williams-port, on Saturday, by a person named John Piatt. It seems that the excuse given for the outrage was a short article in the Press which seemed to reflect not in the nost flattering terms on Mr. P's official conduct. We, perhaps, do not understand the subject in all its bearngs, but we think that if the intimations in the arti ings, out we think that it the infinations in the arti-cle are correct the least Mr. P. can say about them the better; and if they are false they must have injured the writer, and no one else. At all events there is nothing to justify Mr. P. in his brutal conduct. The time has not quite arrived in Pennsylvania, when Lo-cofoco officials can take the law into their own hands

McHean .- Col. Sam Crane, formerly editor of the Bradford (McKean Co.) Miner, better known as the "Indiana Pikeshote" has turned up in Herkimer couny, N. Y., as a street preacher. We quote from the Herkimer Democrat:

We suspect there are poorer preachers than "Brother" Crane, who get much better pay, and more credit for sanity than is his fortune. FINE CUT CHEWING TOBACCO, has been adopted by Messrs. E. GOODWIN & BRO.,

Tobacco, of the best quality, is selected, neatly wrapped in Tin Foil, and Patent Pressed.

The great advantages of this over-other brands consist in the size of the packages, rendering it more convenient to carry in the nocket, and by being Pressed. venient to carry in the pocket, and by being PRESSED SOLID it keeps Moist and FRESS and improves in quality as it is used; while in other brands, as soon as the package is opened the quality rapidly deteriorates—the tabacco growing dry—and littering the pocket, to the great annoyance of the consumer. The Dressing which the Fine Cut Tobacco undergoes in bressing which the Fine Cut Todacco undergoes in the process of manufacture, frees it from all grit or impurities so objectionable in the use of Plug Todacco. These Bitters, as all classes of our fellow citizens, including Members of Congress, Lawyers, Physiciaus, Clergymen, Planters, Farmers and others testify, are the only safe, certain and sovereign specific for the immediate relief and permanent cure of the many crute complaints which in some phase or other of Dyspersia afflict our rice.

These Bitters were discovered by Br. George B. Green, and in their formula differ entirely from that of any other preparation of medicine. Containing no alcohol—no mineral—no poison—no noxious drug,—in their nature tonic, not estimulating,—retaining their virtues in lany clime: they are a "combination and a torm indeed" of Medicine which knows no rival in exterminating disease and restoring the system to its pristine vigor and health. No matter of how long standing, or however induced or chronic in its character that disease may be—no matter that it has befiled the skill of the physician, and resisted the efforts of Medicine, a single tria of these litters will satisfy the sufferer that his disease sil amenable to the proper remedy.

In testimony of the many cures effected by this Remedy reference is had to the written certificates from distinguished individuals known all over the land.
