Measures and Men.

We were recently honored with a copy of the Columbus (O.) Gazette, a Republican paper with a long and able leading article discussing the chances of the next Presidential election. We cannot tell to whom we are indebted for this paper, but as some of the points advanced are worthy of attention, we propose to say a few words on the subject it discusses.

President-making so long in advance of the time necessary for such action, has been more than once deprecated in these columns. Speculations as to the fitness of particular men are show the speculators to be mere politicians instead of true patriotic citizens. Granted that your neighbors (how if words mean anything, every man has his political favorite for Presidential honors-one who reflects his highest ideas of statesmanshin-one who he thinks. would confer the greatest good to the whole people by his superior political wisdom in the administration of the Government. Every intelligent man has such a favorite, but is it wise to urge him before the country at the wrong time? Is it wise to be committed to the support of a man whose character as a statesman may change entirely before his services could be needed? The power of the Press is very great, and its influence upon the popular mind is almost irresistable, but with all its influence and power it is impotent to crush the RIGHT. or those who are its fearless and consistent exponents. victorious and you are defeated. On the other hand the Press is quite as impotent to foist into popular regard any man whose ing for George Harris, one of the persons that public and private life and character do not dear a part in "Uncle Tom's Cabin." He was a serve the honors sought for them. Men are judged by their acts, and by their acts alone. The words of any of our statesmen in the national legislature, spoken in an hour, or a single vote cast in a moment may damn him deeper politically, than a thousand newspaper articles against him could otherwise have done. The hour must bring the man with it. Let us wait for the hour.

The Gazette urges the names of Salmon P. Chase, now Governor of Ohio, for President, and Edward Bates of Missouri, for Vice President, on the ground that they are Western men. and that the nomination in 1860 is due to the West. For anything we know to the contrary we shall gladly favor the election of Mr. Chase to the Presidency, if he be as true a patriot and as able a statesman in 1860 as he is to-day, and if he shall receive the nomination of the Republican party for that office, without refer- me"-making the professions that you do, preence to the locality; but we should hesitate before voting for Mr. Bates or any other man, unless he plants himself publicly upon distinctive Republican principles, and gives evidence of a proper sympathy in behalf of the cause of of a proper sympathy in behalf of the cause of your God in peace; for, if God don't punish human rights. We have no desire to underrate you for inflicting such distress on the poorest the importance of having upon a ticket the of His poor, then there is no use of having any names of good, true, and able men, but after all, these are but secondary to the principles to the maintenance of which they must stand any part of the man you pretend to be. So I ledged.

Of these principles we take a different view from that advanced by our cotemporary. The Republican Party had its beginning and holds its strength in the deep seated anti-slavery feeling of the people of the whole country. It is pre-eminently an anti-slavery party, and its other measures though of great importance, are but secondary to the great measure of "no more slave States." As was well expressed by the Charleston Mercury a few weeks ago, with more truth than the truckling pro-slavery presses of the North liked to hear, the Republican party is the only conservative party in the country. It does not propose to interfere with the "Constitutional rights of our brethren at a contract of flour for the United States Army, its doors for business, and all notes of the old the South" about which the Mulatto presses are continually prating without knowing or caring to know what these rights are; but it does propose to protect all the citizens of all the States in their just Constitutional rights. We regret therefore, that any paper calling itself Republican should deny for itself any sympathy with the oppressed, for it cannot be doubted that by such denial it proves itself a worthy organ of demagogues, considering ex- 100 pounds. The flour furnished is manufacpediency of more importance than principle, and the triumph of its favorite men of more importance than the triumph of measures for the safety and glory of the country.

We admit that the Republican party is a white man's party, but the Gazetle must have studied the political history of the country to poor advantage if it cannot see that it is also a party of equal constitutional political rights. Ever since 1820 the conservative anti-slavery the abolition of slavery, but against its encroachments upon freedom. Is it not baseness to say, as the Gazette virtually does say, that all this labor has been in vain, and that symto do with these efforts? Is it not suicidal in the greatest degree for any party to represent fundamental ideas partially applied? The Whig becoming heartless and indifferent to the rights upon its banner, just so surely will it totter and fall to the ground. Let the Gazette and other such papers instead of trotting out favorite men, and spending time in useless laudations of them, talk more of principles and in this way so educate the people that a defeat or a triumph will not affect our solidity as a party, and so that we may, if we triumph at all, triumph with Teutu.

SANDWICH, C. W., March 18, 1859. Mr. WM. RILEY, Springfield, Ky.—Siz: I take this opportunity to dictate a few lines to you, supposing you might be curious to know my whereabouts. I am happy to inform you I am in Canada, in good health, and have been here several days. Perhaps, by the time, you have concluded that robbing a woman of her husband, and children of their father, does not pay, at least in your case; and I thought, while lying in jail by your direction, that if you had no remorse of conscience that would make you feel for a poor broken hearted man, and his worse-than-murdered wife and children, and could not be made to feel for others as you would have others feel for you, and could not by any entreaty or persuasion be induced to do as you promised you would, which was to let me go with my family for $800-but contended for $1,000, when you had promised to take the same you gave for me (which was $660,) at the time you bought me, and let me go with my premature and ill-advised, and to our mind they dear wife and children! but instead would render me miserable, and lie to me, and to what I say is so,) and when you was at Louisville trying to sell me! then I thought it was time for me to make my feet feel for Canada, and let your conscience feel in your pocket. Now you cannot say but that I did all that was honorable and right while I was with you, although I was a slave. I pretended all the time that I thought you, or some one else had a better right to me than I had myself, which you know is rather hard thinking. You know, too, that you proved a traitor to me in time of need, and when in the most bitter distress that the human soul is capable of experiencing and could you have carried out your purposes there would have been no relief. But I rejoice to say that an unseen, kind spirit appeared for the oppressed, and bade me to take up my bed and walk-the result of which is that I am

I am comfortably situated in Canada, workslave a few years ago in Kentucky, and now owns a farm so level that there is not hills enough on it to hide a dog, yet so large that I got lost in it the other day. He says that I may be the means of helping poor fugitives and doing them as much good as he does, in

This country is not what it has been represented to me and others to be. In place of its being cold and barren, it has a beautiful, comfortable climate, and fertile soil. It is much more desirable in these respects than any part of Kentucky that I ever saw. There is only one thing to prevent me being entirely happy here, and that is the want of my dear wife and children, and to see us enjoying ourselves to-gether here. I wish you could realize the contrast between Freedom and Slavery; but it is not likely we shall ever meet again on this earth. But if you want to go to the next world and meet a God of love mercy, and justice, in peace; who says, "Inasmuch as you did it to the least of these my little ones, you did it unto tending to be a follower of Christ, and tormenting me and my little ones as you have donehad better repair the breaches you have made among us in this world, by sending my wife and children to me; thus preparing to meet God, or talking about one. But, in this letter, I have said enough to cause you to do all that is necessary for you to do, providing you are will close by saying that, if you see proper to reply to my letter, either condemning or justifying the course you have taken with me, I will again write you.

I hope you will consider candidly and see if the case does not justify every word I have said, and ten times as much. You must not consider that it is a slave talking to "massa" now. but one as free as yourself.

I subscribe myself one of the abused of America, but one of the justified and honored of Canada. JACKSON WHITNEY.

AN EXTRAORDINARY FLOUR CONTRACT .- A correspondent of the Missouri Democrat, wri ting from Camp Floyd, Utah Territory, charges that a great swindle is being perpetrated under The contractors are John Holliday, and Col. Martin, who receive $28 50 per 100 pounds. The annual consumption is about 2,000,000 pounds, which would make the amount of the contract $572,000. Taking into consideration the fact that Mr. Wm. Martin and E. P. Staunton offered to furnish the supply for $10 per 100 pounds, and that Mr. J. C. Little agreed to take the same contract for $7 50 per 100 pounds, it seems strange that Messis. Holliday & Martin have been awarded this contract at $28 60 per tured in the territory, is of poor quality, and is bought by the contractors for $5 to $8 per 100 pounds. At the latter rate they are at an outlay of $160,000 in fulfilling the contract, leaving them a snug little balance of four hundred and twelve thousand dollars. The writer alleges that there are probably four partners in this contract, Mr. John Holliday, Maj. Martin, Wm. Russell, (firm of Russell, Major & Wardell,) and Secretary Floyd. They will realize one hundred thousand dollars each, and be at no rouble or risk.

TROUT FISHING .- The last Session of the

FROM THE PEOPLE. For the Agitator. Hon. John Ryon.

The subject of this notice was born in the valley of Wyoming, near Wilkesburre Pa., on the 1st day of January, 1787, and died at his residence in Lawrenceville, Tioga County, Pa., on the 22nd day of July 1859.

The father of the deceased was a resident of Wyoming prior to the American Revolution, and during the war was a soldier in the army of Washington. He also served in the cam paign of Gen. Sullivan against the Indians on the Chemung and Genesee. He was born in Connecticut, where his paternal ancestor who was an Irishman had settled in colonial times. Soon after the close of the revolutionary war he removed from Wyoming to Southport on the Chemung.

Judge Ryon was one of the early settlers of Tioga County. In the year 1810, soon after his marriage, he located on the Cowanesque River. His location embraced what is now called Elkland village, but was formerly known as Ryonsville. At that time the territory now included within the County of Tioga was a wild and unsettled region of country. The early settlers were subjected to all the inconveniences, hardships and privations incident to the settlement of a country heavily timbered and possessing a rigorous and inhospitable climate. Judge Ryon had his share of these hardships and privations; but his strong physical frame and great energy of character, combined with habits of temperance, industry and economy enabled him to overcome them and to succeed in clearing up and paying for the tract of land on which he located, and making it one of the finest farms in the valley of the Cowanesque. On this farm he resided thirty-nine years, and had brought under cultivation nearly two hundred acres land before he left it to reside at Lawrenceville. It is high praise to say of Judge Ryon, that this and all his subsequent acquisitions were the results of his own exertions and energies, that he had not the aid of fortune or rich friends to commence with, and that in his first outset in life he was compelled to assume the condition of a pioneer, and contend with the difficulties and privations of a residence in the wilderness.

The deceased was well known as a public man and a politician, having held at various times by appointment and election positions which brought him prominently before the people, and gave him an extended acquaintance not only within the County of Tioga but throughout the State of Pennsylvania.

At the October election in 1819 he was elected a member of the House of Representatives of the State, and was continued a member during six successive terms. He was afterwards elected a member of the State Senate and served one term. In the Spring of 1829 he was appointed Superintendent of the West Branch Division of the Pennsylvania Canal, and served in this capacity three years.' On the 29th of Jan'y 1833, he was appointed by Gov. Wolf an associate Judge for Tioga County .-He held this appointment until the 27th of February, 1842, when it was annulled by the limitation contained in the schedule to the amended Constitution of the State, adopted in 1838. He was afterwards re-commissioned by Gov. Porter for the term of 5 years-commencing on the 4th of March 1842 and expiring on the 4th of March 1847. He also held the commission of a Justice of the Peace under Gov. Snyder, bearing date the 15th of Feb'y, 1816, and several military commissions, the highest in rank of which was one for the office of Lieux.

The duties of these several stations were discharged by the deceased ably and with strict fidelity to the public interests. Judge Ryon in his political career was always a member of the Democratic party-holding his commissions under Democratic Governors and his elective offices at the hands of a Democratic constituency. For this party and its leading men and principles he always cherished a warm affection. His political sentiments however were eminently conservative, and he was always a devoted friend and supporter of the interests and policy of his native State, both in her legislative halls and in his irement as a private citizen.

In his social intercourse Judge Ryon was the needy and afflicted, sincere in his friendships, open hearted in his antipathies, and reliable in his business transactions. In his religious attachments he was Presbyterian, having been a prominent member of the Presbyterian Church during many years and contributed largely to its support.

He has left a large family circle and many warmly attached friends to mourn his loss and cherish his memory. Wellsboro, Aug. 3, 1859.

A LETTER FROM PRESIDENT BUCHANAN-HE DECLINES THE PRESIDENCY FOR A SECOND TERM. -The subjoined letter from President Buchanan was received this morning by the Hon. Wilson McCandless: BEDFORD SPRINGS, July 25, 1859. My DE.R SIR :- I have received your kind note of the 19th inst., together with the leader from the Post. Whilst I appreciate, as it deserves, the ability and friendship displayed in that editorial, I yet regret that it has been published. My determination not, under any circumstances, to become a candidate for reelection, is final and conclusive. My best judgment and strong inclination unite in favor of this course. To cast doubts upon my predetermined purpose is calculated to impair my influence in carrying out important measures, and affords a pretext for saying that these (measures) have been dictated by a desire to be renominated. With kindest regards &c.,

Respectfully your friend, JAMES BUCHANAN.

Henry Ward Beecher writes an article in the Independent in which he denies, with characteristic pleasantry that he is a spirit medium. He says: Now, if any spirit, or any corps of associated spirits, are employing us as a line by which to telegraph truth from that sphere to this, they are doing it without our knowledge or consent. We protest against the operation. And, as we can imagine no way to take the law against them for trespass, we take the newspaper. And we here bring no railing accusation against any or sundry spirits that have quizzed Mr. Chase or Mr. Avery, but we expostulate with those mischievous spirits that amuse themselvs at the expense of these sober and honest gentlemen. It is not fair. It would Legislature passed a law to prohibit the fishing not be regarded as square in the body, and we for trout in the various streames of Lycoming don't believe it is so out of the body. And, as Co., after the 1st of August.
