THE TIOGA COUNTY AGITATOR.

The Philadelphia Ledger is clear and decided in opposition to paper currency. We find the following sample of its reasoning on the subject:

"We do not expect that every man in the country will be a political economist, well read in the workings of the modern machinery by which capital controls labor : but it is not too much to hope that the time may come in which all men who can either read or see or hear, will understand and believe the following plain statement; Banking is a system under which the borrower gives his note, with security and interest, for the lender's note without security and interest. When this fact is universally comprehended in this country, banking-we mean the issuing of paper money-will take its place along side of astrology and divination, among the lumber of the past; and men will wonder that their predecessors bore for so many years, with a system so totally useless and radically absurd. Then the country will enter upon a career of prosperity from which nothing, except some convulsion of nature, can cause it to diverge. In the mean time, the masses will be content to bear the alternative excitements and depressions of the times; to be rich one decade and poor the next, with the hope of being rich again during the third; and, what is worse, they must endure the mortifying reflectionalthough conscious of the truth-that if the foreign debts of the country-those contracted long ago, and those of a more recent date, all the result of excessive bank issues-were paid, the United States would be stripped of the last dollar. Not a dime would be left."

A FRANK ADMISSION .- Hon. George Eustis, a Know Nothing member of the last Congress from Louisiana, having been tendered a re-nomination by that party, declined the honor, and announced in a letter his determination to take lodgings with the Democratic party hereafter. In going over to the arms of his new love, the gentleman gives vent to his convictions thus :

"In the Presidential contest, where the field will be occupied by the Republican and Democratic forces marshalled in battle array, no Southern man can hesitate as to his place. No son of Louisiana can mistake his banner; for, whatever errors the Democratic party may have committed—and it undoubtedly has many to answer for-whatever inconsistencies it may have fallen into, we must bear in mind that Southern men, Southern statesmen, have ruled supreme in its councils, AND HAVE HELD ITS DESTINIES IN THEIR HANDS.

That's the truth, and Northern men know it to be so as well as the Southern people do. In the last Presidential campaign, the fact that "Southern men" held the destinies of the Dem ocratic party in their hands, was denied as often as it found utterance : and it is still denied by a few reckless politicians at the North ; but its truth is now so unquestionable that but few have the hardihood to deny it .- Pittburgh Gazette.

A word to Ladies on the Subject of Tem-PERANCE .--- llave you no interest in the cause of Temperance? Is it nothing to you that a son or brother is drawn into the snare of rum sellers ? that he, now so fair, so precious, should become a silly, swaggering, bloated, drunkard ; to be brought home at the midnight hour, cursing and swearing; aye, raving with delirium tremens? Do you say we are in no danger? Have not others said so before you, who have known all the bitterness of the curse? Is not men into brutes and fiends? Are there not multitudes about you who are in every stage from the moderate drinker, to the most loathsome sot? Is not pride, and fashion, and womanly temptation, turning the footsteps of many in the way to hell? Can you be quiet? Can you withhold your influence for good? Can you say, am I my son's or brother's keeper? Must I be singular? Must I give up a plesant indulgence, must I encounter the scorn of the fashionable to save somebody's son? Must you ? Dare you assume the responsibility of doing nothing? We ask the question. The power of the Ladies of place to stem the deadly flood, is beyond what language can express.-Bradford Argus.

A New DODGE IN FINANCE. -- The Washington now desire to quote the same, as having pecu-States describes a novel way of raising funds which is carried on in that and other cities. It says: "It seems that a firm in New York advertise Let the faithful have another edition without loting was as follows : that they have money to loan. On application expurgations. being made, the borrower is required to advance one per cent on the anount he desires, pending the consideration of his application. If it is rejected, one half of the amount of one per cent on the sum desired is returned to him, and the remaining half goes to the firm for the 'trouble' they have been placed at in considering the application. "Under the supposition that all applications are rejected, quite a handsome amount on the bercentage must result to the pretended leaders. The firm is located in New York, and an agency now exists somewhere in this city. Some one of the applicants who has his application numbered as rejected, '300,' has reported the matter to the New York police authorities. However it may be questioned whether there are any false pretenses about this, in view of the fact that the applicant, before investing his money, understands the terms of the bar ğain." EFFECTS OF POISONED WHISKEY .--- The Crawfordsville (Ind.) Journal reports a case of poisoning by whiskey, that ought to be as effective as a dozen temperance lectures. It says that a young man named Lewis of that county, drank whiskey on the 30th of July, which burnt his throat and stomach, and made him vomit-not unusual occurrences with more liquors than whiskey. The next day he drank again, and in the afternoon, an hour or so after swallowing the last glass, he was seized with convulsions, which lasted six hours, and contorted his body and limbs terribly. His toes were drawn in upon the soles of his feet, his fingers in on his palms, and his head and feet back toward each other till they met and bent his body into a circle. His jaws were locked fast and could not be opened at all, but he retained his consciousness. For ten days, at intervals of one to five hours these spasms have returned, but happily, with entire unconsciousness in the patient since the first ones.

General Election, October 11,

We publish in another column a special report of the proceedings of the Tioga Republican Convention, the Official Report not having come to hand in time for this week's paper .--However, it will be seen that our Report is fuller and more explicit than official reports usually are.

The ticket put in nomination gives general satisfaction to Republicans all over the County, and the proceedings were harmonious throughout. We talked with the delegates from most of the townships, and heard the most cheering prospects of an expected full vote for the ticket from almost every locality.

The gentlemen nominated for the various offices are too well known to need any introduction to our readers from us. We shall take occasion however during the campaign now opened, to speak of them separately and at length.

We shall publish next week a letter from Horace Greeley giving the result of a perother leaders in the Mormon Church while on a late visit to Salt Lake City. Mr. Greeley is now in California and is confidently expected to return in time to fulfil his engagement to speak to our Agricultural friends on the 30th inst.

and in source over a pamphiet report of the "Proceedings of the Democratic State Convention, held at Harrisburg, Pa., March 16th 1859" -lately issued for distribution among the "faithful," we notice with regret some important expurgations. Thus the Great Speech of Prof. Gardner on the Democratic Soap Question is that gentleman. The Resolution of Thos. Collins of Blair, to the effect "that the Democracy of Pennsylvania will be defeated by a Black Republican majority of 30,000," is also suppressed. We bespeak a fair hearing for the Soap man and Collins. We observe that "Truth crushed to earth will rise again, &c."

Republican County Convention.

From our own Reporter. Tioca, August 26, 1859.

From ten o'clock in the morning till one o'lock in the afternoon the streets about the different hotels presented a lively appearance .---Candidates for the different nominations were eagerly canvassing the delegates,---politioians were presenting their "claims",---delegates were "button-holed," especially those who were not instructed,-figuring was going on till every rule known in politics was tested, when the bell rang for the assembling of the Delegates in one of the school rooms. The room was large enough to accommodate the delegates and all of the spectators who chose to come in.

The Convention was called to order by S. B. Beeman, Esq. T. L. BALDWIN was chosen President, and A. J. Sorield and I. M. BODINE were chosen Secretaries. The President then announced the Convention organized. The delegates were then called from the dif-

Committee on credentials. The President stated that the first business in order was the nomination of a Senator. The names of S. F. Wilson and Wm. Garretson were presented to the Convention as candidates, and voted for viva voce, each delegate naming the candidate of his choice. The first ballot resulted as follows :

S. F. WILSON, 42. | WM. GARRETSON, 24. Whereupon the President declared Mr. Wilson duly nominated for the office of Senator, sonal interview with Brigham Young and the subject to the decision of the Senatorial Conference.

L. P. Williston, Jpel Parkhurst, and A. Humphrey* were presented as candidates for Representative. Mr. Williston received the nomination on the first ballot as follows:

L. P. WILLISTON, 44. A. HUMPHREY,

17. J. PARKHINAT The President then declared Mr. Williston duly nominated for the office of Representative, subject to the decision of the Representative Conference. On motion of A. J. Sofield Esq., a committee of five was appointed by the Chair to report resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the Convention. I. M. Bodine, Mart. King, J. L. entirely omitted, and no reference is made to Miller, H. S. Hastings and John Dickinson were appointed as that committee.

On motion the Convention adjourned to alow the committee time to draft the resolutions. After the expiration of the time allowed to the committee, the Convention was called to order, and the President announced that the next business in order would be the nomination of a candidate for the office of Treasurer. The names of Jas. S. Watrous of Gaines, Benj. Vandusen of Chatham, V. Case of Knoxville, and H. B. Card of Sullivan were then submitunanimity: Regards, that the Pro Slavery Democratic Administration of James Bucharian is one of falso pretenses; that for its fre-quent attempts to force slavery upon the free people of Kan-mas against their winkes and will; for its vascillating and hypocritical course in reference to the question of adequate protection to home-industry; for its efforts to increase tho rates of postage so as to compel the intelligent laboring classes of the north to pay for the superior convenience of the rich oligarchs of the south; for its shameful and reck-less expenditure of the people's money on political favorites; for its opposition to a Homestead Bill and to Agricultural Colleges designed to educate and benefit the laboring poor; and for its course upon the question of the right of foreign-ers to self-expartisation, merits the contempt of American citizens of all parties. IMPORTANT DECISION .- The Ohio Black law Declared Unconstitutional.-The Court of Common Pleas for Cuyahoga County, through Judge Foot, this morning delivered an important decision. At the last election Freeman H. Morris, tailor, of this city, and having about one-fourth negro blood in his veins, presented himself at the First Ward voting place and was barred from voting on account of his negro blood. Action was brought against the judges of election, Sanborn, Christian and Garrett, for illegally rejecting the vote. They pleaded in defence the recent action of the Legislature, rejecting the vote of every person having negro blood in his veins.

The case was made up and submitted to the court. This morning Judge Foote declared for the plaintiff, declaring the "Black Law" to be unconstitutional. The Court held that under the old Constitution of Ohio all persons having more than half white blood were declared to be legally white. The new Constitution merely mentioned "white persons," without defining what constituted a white person ; consequently the definition of a white person contained in the old Constitution remained in force, and any law declaring a person having more than half white blood to be a negro must of necessity be unconstitutional.—Cleve. Herald. A MODERN RÖMANCE.—Over a month ago, an indipendent farmer named Murwood Gilbert, living at Yarmouth, C. W., eloped with his wife's sister on the morning of the day she was to have maried one Henry Locke. The friends of both parties were in a terrible pucker, but made no pursuit. About a week ago the truant pair returned, and the excite village grew apace. Gilbert charged Miss Blewitt with seducing him, and she allowed the seduction was the other way. He ran off to a cottage hard by, but the inmates knowing him would not admit him, so he was obliged to seek succor elsewhere. A kinsman denied him admittance to his innocent home, but took him to his (Gilbert's) house. The brother who shot him is under arrest, and Gilbert is trying to get well promising to shoot the whole tribe of Blewitts .- Bnffalo Commercial.

Wellsboro. CORNIFG, Aug. 25, 1859.

DEAR SIR: As I presume many of your readers will expect to see the particulars of the Trotting Match mentioned in your "local column" two weeks sgo, I send you herewith a short account of the race. The "Hawley Course" is situated in that part of Corning known as Knoxville. This afternoon between four and five o'clock the parties came upon the ground as advertised. The track which is eliptical in shape and under favorable circumstances a very good one, was heavy from the recent rains, but otherwise in good condition. There were less than one thousand persons on the ground, Mansfield and Wellsboro being well represented.

Col. Bostwick, C. C. B. Walker and John Bulmer having been chosen judges, the horses were brought to the score and started. No time bets were offered, and but little betting on relative speed. Pat McLaughlin drove "Summerville" and A. J. Gilbert drove "Black Jack."

First Heat .--- Black Jack having the inside on going off made a dash ahead of Summerville and succeeded in getting the advantage of a couple of lengths, the driver of Summerville trailing him to keep out of the mud, till they got around the upper turn, when Summerville began to crowd him, till about half way down the back stretch. Here Black Jack broke and the sorrel took the lead which he kept, steadily increasing the distance between them until they got on the home stretch when Black Jack made a desperate effort to regain lost ground and again lost his feet, the sorrel coming in winner by a dozen lengths. Time-first half mile, 1.34; mile, 3.06

Second Heat .-- Summerville took the inside. On getting the word Summerville took the lead and kept it during the heat, winning it and the race. Time-half mile, 1.35 ; mile, 3.07. Both horses were in excellent condition and were well handled.

The following is a summary of the contest : HAWLEY COURSE, CORNING. N. Y., Aug. 25, 1859. Premium $200. Mile heats, best in three, to harness.

Half mile course. Pat McLaughlin named s. g. Summerville of Wellsboro Pa. 1 1

Wellsboro Pa. E. J. Gilbert named b. g. Black Jack of Mans-field, Pa. Time-3.06-3.07. 2 2

Everything on the course went off pleasantly -no drunkenness or quarrels, and but little WELLSBORO. betting.

HUGH YOUNG, Esq.--Dear Sir; I wish in justice to Dr. Humphrey to state that the use of his name in the Convention, was without his knowledge or consent; he having uniformily refused to be a candidate. I nominated him the candidate at the suggestion of other parties, supposing he had recanted, but they have since informed me that he was not privy to the arrangement or in the Convention at the time. By giving this a place in your issue of this week, you will confer a favor on me and do justice to him. Yours Truly, H. S. JOHNSTON.

DEATH OF THE OLDEST RESIDENT OF THIS COUNTY .--- We learn from the Havana Journal that Mrs. Barbour died at her residence in the town of Catlin, on Friday, July 22d, and was buried the following Sunday. She was the oldest person in this section of the country, being somewhere in the neighborhood of 110 years of age .- We have been waiting patiently for an obituary notice from the clergyman who officiated at the funeral, Rev. Fire at Mansfield.

We notice by the Towanda papers that H. B. CARD, Yankee Robinson's Circus failed to perform at BENJ, VANDUSEN 3 that place on account of a little attachment in the hands of the Tioga (N. Y.) Sheriff for only $1900,00 due for printing.

During the past two weeks two circuses have been in this county. We are among those who believe that amusements are beneficial to the people, but we doubt whether these traveling circuses come under the head of beneficial amusements. It is not to be denied that they are followed from place to place by desperate villains, black-legs, burglars and cut throatsthe scum of the places through which they pass. Saying nothing at all of the character of the amusements of circuses generally, there can be no doubt that the public safety, as well as public and private morals are endangered by the class of persons above referred to.

We learn that on Tuesday, the 23d ult., the Circus of "H. Whitby & Co." visited Mansfield. On the evening of that day, after the second performance, the barns-five in number -of D. C. Holden, Esq., immediately adjoining the village were destroyed by fire. They contained 75 tons of hay besides all his farming implements, carriages, wagons &c., and only a the result : plow and drag were saved. The barns were so arranged as to form a hollow square or court, and the fire was discovered on three sides of it, proving conclusively that it was the work of a gang of incendiaries, intended to attract the attention of the people of the village while they could plunder the town. This plan was thwarted by the presence of mind of the citizens .-Only one stable, containing two good horses, was broken open, but the thieves being surprised, they did not effect their purpose. We are told that the men connected with the circus did all they could to save the barns. The loss is over $3000. Insurance $2,200, We learn that the night previous a dwelling house was fired at Tioga-the circus having been there on that day-but have learned none

A WHITE SLAVE .- The Bangor (Maine) Union, in entering upon the third year of its existance, says of itself:

"It has never falterd in its support of the Administration of that noble old patriot, James Buchanan. To all Democratic Administrations it will be equally faithful and true. We pledge this in advance, for we have full faith in the infallibility of the Democratic party, and, so far as Democratic Administrations are concerned, we believe that there applies to them the old maxim, 'The King can do no wrong.' "

The above paragraph presents a lamentable illustration of the American system of pensioning the newspaper press. There is no creed too monstrous for this miserable slave to accept; and his case is by no means a singular one. A large portion of the press of the country, which is kept in existence by the patronage of the party in power, is equally prostituted, and equally ready to advocate any abomi nation, whether it be the supremacy of the Pope, the revival of the slave trade, or the

The press is a queer institution. The Hon. John P. Hale, in his speech at the recent Pilgrims' Celebration, said that while he was coming along in the cars, a reporter of a Boston paper asked him for a sketch of the remarks he proposed to make. He shook his head, intimating there was nothing in it. The news-paper man kindly took his hint, and kindly said, "Mr. Hale, if you really have no speech prepared, I have several little speeches, which I prepared for my Massachusetts friends, and
