A CURIOUS LOVE STORY .- Says the Easter (Pa) "Argus":-"First love the world generalat ance illustrating the truth of this recently came to our knowledge, which is worth repeatcame to our knowledge, which is worth repeat ing. Forty-five years ago, a young man named Peterson, served his apprenticeship at the printing business, the office of Christian J. Hunter, of this place. Whilst in his employ he became interested in a young lady of our town and proposed marriage. He was accepted, but the mother of the girl opposed the match and broke it off. After finishing his trade, he went to one of the Southern States, and married a sister of the Hon. John M. Clayton, former United States Senator from Delaware. After having two children, his wife died and left him a widower. He then emigrated to Canada West, where he became quite a wealthy and prominent man, and filled the office of County Recorder, a life appointment, at Guelph. There he married a second time and again he became a widower. Last summer he passed through Easton on his road to Wilmington, where his daughter was at school; and whilst here made inquiry after his sweetheart. Ascertaining that she was a widow, and residing in Philadelphia, he called upon her, renewd his acquaintance, and after more than forty years separation, again proposed marriage to her and was accepted. He was to have come on here this week to be married, but was taken suddenly sick about ten days ago, with attack of pleurisy, and died after a short illness.—A few days before his death, he wrote to the object of his first affections, telling her that he was doubtless on his dying bed and never expected to see her again on earth.

A NIGGER STORY .- Two darkies had bought a mess of pork in partnership; but Sam having no place to put his portion in, consented to entrust the whole to Julius' keeping.

The next morning they met, when Sam says-"Good mornin', Julius, anything happen strange or mysterious down in your vicinity late-Yaas, Sam, most a strange thing happen at my house yesterlast night. All mystery, and mystery to me." "Ah, Julius, what was dat?"

"Well, Sam, I tole you now. Dis mornin' I went down into the cellar for to get a piece of hog for dis darkey's breakfast, and I put my hand down in de brine an felt all round, but no pork dere,-all gone. Couldn't tell what bewent with it, so I turned up de bar'l, and Sam, true as preachin, de rats had eat a hole clar from de bottom of de bar'l-and dragged de pork all

A PRINTING OFFICE ANECDOTE. - A young English lad, just "come over," became an ap prentice in a printing office, to 'learn the trade.
When learning the letter boxes in the "case," he asked the printer's "devil," a mischievous young scamp, where the E box was. The "devil" pointed him to the L box. After having studied over the "case" long enough to know all the "boxes" of the alphabet, the foreman asked him to "go over" them, naming each letter-box; the juvenile John Bull did so, and got them all right except E and L.

'You've got those two mixed up," remarked

e foreman. "Well," replied the young Englisher, "hi asked that party (pointing to the devil,") where HE was, and 'e pointed 'is finger to HELL!" The foreman gave the "devil" a sharp look and he grinned satanically.

A TALL Western girl named Short, long loved a certain big Mr. LITTLE; while LITTLE, little thinking of Short, loved a little lass named Long. To make a long story short, LITTLE proposed to Long, and Short longed to be even with Little's short comings. So Short meeting Long, threatened to marry Little before long, which caused LITTLE, in a short time to marry long.

THE Subscriber is selling this valuable machine and invites all who want a really good Mower and Reaper, to examine it before purchasing any other machine. It is superior to all other Mowers and Reapers in use, in the following particulars: It is the lightest in use; is strong and durable; requires less draft than any other machine; has no side draft though it cuts a wide swath; will work on rough ground where no other machine can follow it; very difficult to be clogged in any kind of grass, be it wet or dry; is simple in construction and not liable to get out of repair; is a perfect combined machine; working equally well, whether mowing or reaping; and is the CHEAPEST in price, the Mower being only $105 and the combined machine $130—making it altogether the most desirable Mower and Reaper in market. Call at the Tin and Stove Store and examine for yourselves.

This Reaper took the first prize at the State Fairs of New York and Indiam against all competitors. It also took the prize at the Tioga County Fair last Fall.
