A SKETCH.—He clasped her to his sad and bursting heart; for though ungrateful—disobedient—vile—she was his daughter still. Not indeed the lovely child, who oft in sportive mood had twined his silver locks with flowers, or at his side with bended knees, and upraised eyes, poured forth her evening prayer! But a poor repentant wretch, whose tattered garb, and sorrow-stricken frame, bore witness to the scenes through which she had been led. Those golden ringlets, which had shaded once a neck of snow, now wet with night-dews, streamed in wild disorder. The bloom upon her cheek had faded, like the roses planted by her little hands, around her once loved home—that penceful home, which sheltered her in infancy, and which she now sought to take a last farewell. Alas! how changed the scene since she had fled. The withering touch of desolation had been there, and blasted every charm on which her youthful gaze had rested, in the cloudless morn of life. But not so altered were her childhood's haunts, as she, who once had gambolled over them, light as the floating gossamer, and beautiful as dark haired girls of Paradise. So great the change from what she was, to what she had become, that none would ever have recognized her—save a parent. He, to his bosom caught the wanderer—pressed her pallid lips which he so oft had kissed, and breathed forgiveness in her ear.—The sufferer had not dared to hope for more than pity; but she met with love!—and her heart, unable to express its rapture, in the struggle—broke!

HOW A DOG REASONS.—The Utica Herald relates the following story of the almost human intelligence of a dog:

"A farmer living in New Hampshire had a dog which had grown old in the service of the family. Having become very feeble and useless, and having, moreover, lost nearly all his teeth, the farmer told his family one morning, in the presence of the dog, that he thought he would take him out and shoot him. Almost immediately the venerable brute disappeared. The premises were searched, but in vain. Three days elapsed, and nothing was seen of the missing dog. This was the more remarkable, as he had occupied his place regularly by the fireside for many years. Finally, the owner having occasion to creep under the barn floor in search of something which had fallen through, found the dog crouched up in a dark corner, trembling with fear, whining piteously. Struck with compassion, he said, in a kind voice, 'Don't be afraid, old dog; you shan't be shot.' The poor creature leaped toward his master, licked his hands and face, ran joyfully toward the house, and took his old place in the chimney corner. It is hardly necessary to add that he was permitted to spend the rest of his days in peace.

One of the saddest mistakes, says Titcomb, which good people have made is in supposing the world to be a mistake. To these people—and their number is not small—the earth is but a theatre of pain and sickness, sorrow and death. Joy is illusive, pleasure a cheat, laughter a mockery, and happiness a thing impossible, and not even to be looked for on this side the grave. The performance of all duty is the "taking up" of what they call a cross." They are actually afraid to be happy, under an overshadowing impression that they have no right to be happy in this life. They believe that there is something bad in the world they inhabit and all the joy that proceeds from it. They have an idea that the moral evil which afflicts the human race has struck in. All the sufferings of the brute creation—their throes of labor, and sickness of body, and pains of death—are so many voices proclaiming the fatal failure of Adam. Human nature itself is an awful thing. God is a great law-giver, an inexorable avenger, an awful judge, a being to be feared more than loved. Life is a trial—severe, unrelenting, perpetual. All that seems good and graceful and glorious in the world is a hollow sham, for the deception of the unwary and the ruin of the unwise.

A SOFT ANSWER BUT HARD.—A gay young fellow of a deistical turn, travelling in a stage coach to London forced his sentiments on the company by attempting to ridicule the Scriptures. Among other things, he made himself merry with the story of David and Goliath, strongly urging the improbability of a youth like David being able to throw a stone with sufficent force to sink into the giant's forehead. On this he appealed to the company, and in particular to an elderly quaker, who sat silent in one corner of the carriage. "Indeed, friend," replied he, "I do not think it improbable if the Philistine's head was as soft as thine is."

So exuberant was the wit of Sidney Smith that it broke out even on the most solemn occasions. When bidding farewell to a clergyman who was just starting on a Christian mission to one of the Cannibal Islands, the Reverend punster, squeezing his hand, said: "My friend, I hope you will agree with the man who eats you."

Brother Amindab, a stiff Quaker, on receiving from a "worldly man" a blow on his face, turned the other cheek, to which a similar salute was applied. "Friend," said Amindab, "Scripture injunction being now satisfied, I will proceed to administer to thee a little wholesome correction;" and he did.

A man down east has invented a machine to renovate old bachelors. Out of a good sized, fat, greasy old bachelor, he can make quite a decent young man, and have enough left to make two small puppies, a pair of leather breeches, and a small kettle of soft soap.

A man, who had brutally assaulted his wife was brought before Justice Kavanagh lately and had a good deal to say about "getting justice"—"Justice," replied Kavanagh, you can't get it here. This court has no power to hang you."

"Boy," said an ill-tempered old fellow to a noisy lad, "what are you hollerin' for when I am going by? "Humph," returned the boy," "what are you going by for when I am hollerin'?"

Always precede a lady in going up stairs.—This maxim is a leg-i-see from a maiden aunt, who knew what was what and always manifested great reverence for the rules of propriety.

That was a horrible affair—the murder of Dean, and the sealing up of his remains in a tin box! "What Dean?" asked a half dozen voices at once. "Why Sardean, of course."

"Sir," said a colporteur to a hotel proprietor, "shall I leave some tracts here?" "Yes" was the reply, "with the heels this way."

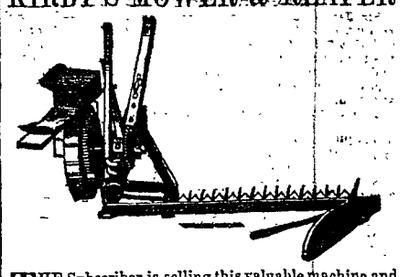
KIRBY'S MOWER & REAPER



THE Subscriber is selling this valuable machine and invites all who want a really good Mower and Reaper, to examine it before purchasing any other machine. It is superior to all other Mowers and Reapers in use, in the following particulars: It is the lightest in use; is strong and durable; requires less draft than any other machine; has no side draft though it cuts a wide swath; will work on rough ground where no other machine can follow it; very difficult to be clogged in any kind of grass, be it wet or dry; is simple in construction and not liable to get out of repair; is a perfect combined machine; working equally well, whether mowing or reaping: and is the CHEAPEST in price, the Mower being only $105 and the combined machine $130—making it altogether the most desirable Mower and Reaper in market. Call at the Tin and Stove Store and examine for yourselves.

☞ This Reaper took the first prize at the State Fairs of New York and Indiana against all competitors. It also took the prize at the Tioga County Fair last Fall.

For Converting Rotary into Reciprocating Motion, and Vice Versa.

PATENTED FEBRUARY 15, 1859.

TO Manufacturers, this Invention is of great importance, as either motion is converted into the other by a simple arrangement of means, and with the least possible loss or absorption of power by friction, and applicable to every Machine where these two motions are required. The Cut shows the principle as applied to Common Dash Churns. The undersigned have purchased the Patent Right for this county, and are manufacturing and selling at the low price of $5. It is conceded to be the best arrangement for churning Milk or Cream ever invented.

LATE FIRE AT DUBUQUE, IOWA.

DUBUQUE, Jan. 7, 1859.

Gents: I am requested by Mr. T. A. C. Cochrane, of this place, to say to you that on the morning of the 4th inst., about 3 o'clock, his store took fire, and the entire stock of goods was destroyed. And well they may be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was one incessant pouring of flame directly upon the Safe which contained them. And still upon opening it, the inside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was most severely scorched. Yours truly,

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL Treatment, without medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Premature Decay of the System, Impotency and Impediments to Marriage generally,

BY B. DE LANEY, M. D.,

The important fact that the many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed without medicine, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which everyone is enabled to cure HIMSELF perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

THE GREAT FEATURE
THE GREAT FEATURE

Of this series of Domestic Remedies is that each particular medicine is a SPECIFIC for the particular disease or class of diseases whose name it bears, and may be relied upon for the cure of that particular affection. Hence, persons suffering from a chronic disease or long-standing ailment, in buying a case of HUMPHREYS' SPECIFIC, obtain the particular one desired in their case, and thus themselves make a cure which otherwise would cost them many dollars, and no small amount of time and medical attendance, if, indeed, it could be obtained at all.

Thus multitudes suffer from Dyspepsia, Bilious Condition, Costiveness, Bad Taste, Coated Tongue and Debility, which is perfectly controlled and cured by the

DYSPEPSIA SPECIFIC.
DYSPEPSIA SPECIFIC,

There is scarcely a phase or form of this disease which is not promptly controlled and ultimately cured by the use of this Specific. Thousands who have suffered for years with this "Bilious condition" having purchased a case of these Specifics, have obtained a perfect cure and immunity from their old complaint.

COUGHS, COLDS AND SORE THROATS,
COUGHS, COLDS AND SORE THROATS,

which so frequently lead to

BRONCHITIS AND CONSUMPTION,
BRONCHITIS AND CONSUMPTION,

are all in their early stage secured by the

COUGH PILLS.
COUGH PILLS.

Many cases of long standing Bronchitis and irritating Coughs have been perfectly cured by this specific. But more! many persons have a specific liability to colds and take them from the least exposure. This will be entirely relieved by the use of Cough Pills, as scores can testify from experience. So is one of our most common and most troublesome diseases, against which the Old School Medicines and even Homœpathic prescriptions, are of very little use. Yet hundreds of persons have been cured of not only recent and fresh, but even long standing and obstinate cases of Catarrh by the use of this specific.

One aged lady in Syracuse was thus perfectly cured of a Catarrh, which had annoyed her all her life. And a young lady at one of our first class boarding schools, who was so afflicted with this disease as to require more than forty handkerchiefs a week, was entirely cured in a single week by this Specific.

PILES,
PILES,

bleeding and blind, as one of those common and obstinate forms of disease which are so difficult to cure by the ordinary methods, but which find an entire and fundamental cures in the Piles Specific. True, time is required; but the Specific is pleasant to take, requires neither diet nor restraint, and being followed up, a perfect cure is the result. Hundreds of persons, in purchasing a case of Specifics, have obtained a cure for this most trying and obstinate form of disease, which has been worth to them ten times the cost of the entire set. Cases of over twenty years' standing have been cured with this simple Specific, and we believe all may be cured by perseverance.

The case contains the best

FEVER AND AGUE SPECIFIC
FEVER AND AGUE SPECIFIC

known. A remedy without any deleterious or poisonous substante, which not only cures the ague, and old, mismanaged agues, but may be relied upon as a preventative when persons are residing in a fever and ague district. It prevents or protects upon the same principles that vaccination prevents small-pox or belladona prevents scarlet fever, by pre-occupying the system with the true Specific. Hundreds have been thus protected and cured.

THE OPHTHALMY SPECIFIC

has proved a most invaluable remedy for Sore Eyes and Eyelids, and for Weak and Blurred Sight. One lady in Indiana, who had been a sufferer from sore eyes for many years, and for two years was entirely blind, was cured perfectly by the Ophthalmy Specific alone.

HEADACHES,

to which so many are subject, finds a curative in the case. There is a specific which relieves at the time of the attack, and also one which corrects the condition of the system upon which it depends, and so destroys the predisposition to a return.

The Specifics for the various forms of

have proved invaluable. Old long standing Leucorrhœa or Whites, attended with debility or exhaustion, and for which other forms of medicine are of little value, are fully controlled and cured by the Female Pills; while the specific for irregularities control almost every form of scanty, painful, or irregular menstruation.

DIARRHŒAS AND SUMMER COMPLAINTS

in adults or children are controlled like magic by the Diarrhœa Pills, while it may be averred without the possibility of successful contradiction, that the Dysentery Pills are the most perfect Specific for that disease known.

For the various forms of

and other diseases of children, the Fever Pills may be safely and surely relied upon.

These Specifics are the prescriptions of Prof. HUMPHREYS, used for years in his extensive practice, and to the perfection of which he has devoted the resources of extensive knowledge, experience and study.

The public may rest assured that during the life time of Dr. H. no one has been or shall be intrusted with the preparation of his Specifics, and he offers the guaranty of his professional life and reputation that they shall be just as he represents them.

They have now been before the public for five years, and have everywhere won golden opinions from the many thousands who have used them.

Simple, free from intricacy, technicality, or danger, they have become the ready recourse and aid of the parent, traveler, nurse, or invalid, and have become the family physician and medical adviser of thousands of families. Nowhere have they been tried without having been approved, and their highest appreciation is among those who have known them longest, and most intimately.

Every family will find these Specifics all they have been recommended: prompt, reliable simple and efficient; often a friend in need and a friend indeed.
