REVOLUTIONS

WHETHER in Government or fashions never go backwards. "Old Fogyism" may frown down every exhibition of youthful fancy, yet every issue from the Press of Fashion shows that some new adrance has been made in this branch of Science and the Arts. Recognizing this principle of progress in his department of Trade,

J. NYE ROBINSON has not sought to keep up with, but to go a little in advance of the ideas and wants of the community in which he lives both as rogards the style and location of his business or the whereabouts and how he does

Believing that honesty of purpose and a strict Attention to Business will under ordinary circumstances insure success he undertook to manufacture for this community a portion of their

CLOTHING and it affords him much pleasure to know that he has so far sucqeeded as to have received a good
