The Farmer and Gardener, a very meat and s ng able Agricultural Magazine, has been received. ny adited and published by A. M. Spangler, 633 gatet Street. Philadelphia, and is sent for $1 a year gidrance. Farmers who want to begin the year with ifred argicultural periodical had better send for it. The extension of the Corning and Blossburg nilroad, from Blossburg up Morris Run, a distance a seren miles, is nearly completed. The first coal gia from the new mines passed down on Thursday terning last. This new coal is said to be superior to of bituminous coal in the State. We have received another long advertisement

d & To-be-continued story in the New York Ledger. We are offered nearly $20 for publishing it once; and bough we need all the money we can get, yet as we have no right to impose it upon our readers, it is most respectfully declined. We had the pleasure on Friday last, of a visit hom E O Goodrich Esq., editor of the Bradford Reprier. We had supposed him to be a gray-haired ment, and were agreeably surprised to find him to k not a great deal older, and nearly as good-looking neutrelf. Success to him, always.

F. Cowan, Esq., Editor of the Warren Mail, gil. Rogers, Esq., of the McKean Citizen have remed appointments as transcribing clerks of the brishiure at Harrisburg. They have our hearty engratulations, as no men need fat offices more than pantry editors, particularly if they depend upon their mission alone for support.

Since Mr. Paul Morphy accepted the situation of her Editor of the New York Ledger, the Wellsboro the Club has gradually declined, and we are now alled upon to chronicle its demise. We are not sure but Morphy's mores had anything to do with our club. cleart so far as we are concerned. The fact is, that a rillage is not large enough to sustain a Chess its handsomely.
