THE TIOGA COUNTY AGITATOR.

THE AGITATOR. WELLSBOROUGH, PA.,

Thursday Morning, June 14, 1860.

s. M. PETTENOILL & Co., 119 Nassau St., New York, and 10 bit. Boston, are the Agents for the Agilator, and 10 most St. Boston, are the Agents for the Agilator, and the post inducation and largest circulating Newspapers in the biled States and the Canadas. They are authorized to con-met for us at our lowest rates.

D-See new advertisement of C. & J. L. ROBINsov, in another column. Their stock of merchandise is always large. Give them a call.

FT Just before going to press, we learn that the large brass cannon designed for the Middlebury Artllery Company has arrived, and that the Company may be expected here on the 4th.

Weask for Prof. BCBLINGANE'S Address, which secupies so much space in to-day's paper, a careful pernsal. We make no spology for inserting it on actount of its length. It will richly repay the time pent in reading it.

2 The dancing community will be pleased to learn that Mr. L. H. SMITH, of Tioga, is to give an Independence Ball, at his popular House, on Wednesday erening, July 4th. Wetmore's Quadrille Band, of which we have before spoken, has been "engaged for the occasion. Bill, $2.00.

Gophr's Lady's Book, for July, is before us. The present No. contains an admirable steel engraving of "Summer," a five figure colored fashion-plate, with other engravings. Godey's poetry is always good, and its stories unsurpassed. The receipts, patterns, &c., to the housekceper, in a single number, are worth more than the price of the magazine for a whole year.

A preliminary meeting, called for the purpose of organizing a County Medical Association, was hold in this place on the 6th inst. The Association proposes to effect a permanent organization, and all the regular members of the profession in the county are invited to join therein. The next meeting will assemble at the office of Dr. N. PACKER, in this borough, on Wednesday, June 20th, at 1 o'clock, P. M.

55 NEW GOODS .--- C. G. Osgood has just returned from the cities with his immense assortment of Summer goods. His stock is now complete, and it is every where conceded that he sells goods remarkably low. It is one consolation to a buyer to know that he will be treated pleasantly in a store, even if he should not buy after examining the goods. Mr. O. and clerks are always gentlemanly and obliging, and delight in showing their goods. New advertisement next week.

"NESAUCK," who is writing a charming story in Porter's Spirit, makes the following beautiful appeal to every old hunter's heart :

"Who ever saw the hunter that did not distinctly recollect all the circumstances attending the shooting of his first deer? Ho might have killed a thousand siterwards, and be unable to tell the number of his Pelain within a hundred or two, but the first deer, like the first love, ever remains a memory by itself,

'Like Adam's recollection of his fall.'

23 KNICKERBOCKER, for June, has been received. An hour with this magazine is as a feast. When we commence reading the KNICK, we don't know when to stop. "A Day at Newstead Abbey" should be read by every admirer of Byron. We have seen nothing in the magazines more interesting, to us, than this. "The E liter's Table," as usual, is full of funny things Price, 25 cents.

-Ey the way, Mr. KNICK., what has become of the April and May numbers? The AGITATOR's files lack these requisites.

23 THE CELEBRATION .- We hoped to be able to this week announce the name of the orator who is to deliver the Address on the occasion of the coming Celebration of the Fourth of July in this village ; bu to far, the efforts of the Committee in that direction have been fruitless. All the speakers from whom re plies have been received, had either formed previous engagements, or are prevented by other circumstances from accepting the invitations tendered them. We are informed, however, that an eminent speaker from abroad will be engaged at all hazards; and the indications now are, that the Celebration will in every way be creditable to the people of Tioga County. The Committee is composed of gentlemen of energy, and we are sure every arrangement in their power will be made for the proper observance of the eighty-fourth anniversary of our Nation's birth. Financially, the Committee have succeeded beyond their most sanguine expectations, and it is believed that five or six hundred dollars will be raised, with which to procure a speaker, provide edibles, buy fire-works, &c. &c. "The work goes bravely on !"

COURT PROCEEDINGS .- The Grand Jury passed upon

evidence that he spoke the opinions of those present. After introducing Mr. CURTIN to the audience, he sat down, amid deafening applauso; when music was called for, and the Band enlivened the exercises with an excellent selection.

Mr. CURTIN commenced in a pleasant good-natured style, peculiar to himself. He did not wander all over the ground, from Julius Cresar to the Fourth of July, but confined himself principally to State issues. His anecdotes were witty and so well applied that even the long-faced Democrats often smiled aloud. Mr. C. concluded with the remark that perhaps many were present who would wish to see the next Governor of Ponnsylvania, and that they now had that pleasure .-He spoke for over an hour, and so large an audience never left a speaker's presence in better humor, than did the one on this occasion.

A meeting was also held in the evening, which was again addressed by Col. C. J. W. RYAN, Esq., and Hon. L. P. WILLISTON also made short speeches. We would like to say more of these meetings and speeches, but our space will not permit.

From the Preface.

From the Frejace. The Empress Josephine was one of the most remark-able of all the extraordinary characters who rose into conspicate public positions in consequence of the French Revolution. Wonderful were the events of her life. With the kindest and most affectionate of human hearts, she united the sternest principles of a comprehensive genius a comprehensive genius. The ovents of Josephine's life, and remarkable traits of character which she displayed amidst the most amazing vicissitudes of fortune, afford not only an exceedingly interesting but a highly instructive lesson to all who read her biography. In this respect her carcer, taken as a whole, uny challenge compari-son with that of any other historical personages in the second seco history. Josephine constantly looked to the glory of France Josephine canstantly looked to the glory of France nd the fame of her bushand as the two most desira-ble objects. When Napoleon desired to perpetuato his dynasty by a second marriage which might yield him a male heir to his throne, Josephine nobly sacri-ficed her own feelings to what she was told might eventuate to the advantage of France. In his adver-sity this true woman forgot all but their happy years of wedded love-remembered not that SHE had been repudiated, but that HE was unfortunate. We have freely drawn upon various anthors, who have recorded anecdotes and- traits of Josephine, as related to them, with the tonder regret of affection, which, too late, recognized her full value, by Napo-leon himself, in his closing years, and it is hoped that the book will be found reliable as well as entertain-

Life of Samuel Houston. G. G. Evans, Philadelphia. "There is no campaign in modern military history which for its extent, although attended with such dis astrous results, although eventually ending in the lib erty of the Republic, than that conducted by Genera Samuel Houston, during the years 1836-37 in the de fence of the Americans then settled upon the frontiers of Maxico. In a brief period, with a small band of Heroos hastily raised en masse, and illy argmed and accoutred, the brilliant defence of the Alamo, was made forever glorious by the bloody massacre, perpe-trated by the Maxicans. This unorfunate event which showed valuable lessons and glorious illustrations of the valor of our citizen soldiers, and of the genius of the Great Chief and Hero. ought not to be forgotten or hastily glanced over. It is believed that the cam-paign during the Toxan war has not received full jus-tice in the marratives which were published, the nu-merons merits of which were marred by serious errors. fence of the Americans then settled upon the frontier merous merits of which were marred by serious errors. By comparing these various versions, and by consul-tation with those who played promunent parts in this event of our history, it is believed that this Biography of the Texan Here, which is divested of europeous de-tails of military technicalities, is as faithful and exact as it is practicable to render a narrative of this do-scription. MO THE MEETING .- The Republican Mass Meet ing held in this village on the 5th inst., was a grand access. This, even the bitterest Democrat admits .-The speakers, Col. A. G. CURTIN, the Republican candidate for Governor, and Hon. G. A. Gnow, were on the platform which had been erected on the public Equare at an early hour in the afternoon, and were greetel with much applause. Mr. GROW was first presented to the audience by Mr. WILLISTON, and after a beautial opening proceeded to the discussion of the questions which agitate the country. A sudden shower coming up, the immense crowd repaired to the Court House, which, indeed, would hold only about half the number. The house was soon filled almost to suffocation, and what could not get in, hung out of the winforms or remained out of doors entirely. As soon as reasonable silence could be obtained, Mr. GROW retumed his remarks. To attempt a discription of his speech would be as foolish as it would be useless .-His graceful gestures and commanding figure were remarked by all, while his earnest countenauce told plainly of the truths he was uttering. Much of his time was occupied in the recital of the corruptions of the present Administration, and of the wrongs done Kansas and her citizons. He eulogized ADE LINCOLN as a pure statesman, an able lawyer, and, above all, AN HONEFT MAN; and predicted that he would be eeted Freeduct. The hearty applause following was
