

The oldest Establishment in the United States Employing Two Hundred Men, and Findinner, when Eve hadn't any fresh pomegran-ishing Eighty Instruments per Week.

G. G. EVANS, having purchased the stereotype plates, copyrights, etc., of the "Prince of the House of David," "Pillar of Fire," etc., would call the at-tention of agents to these truly valuable works. "The "Prince of the House of David," is one of the most boundary of backs ates, and the mango season was over! He never stayed out untill 11 o'clock to a "ward meeting," hurrahing for the out and out candi-date, and then scolded because poor dear Eve was sitting up and crying inside the gates .--He never played billiards, nor drove fast horses. nor choked Eve with digar smoke. He never loafed around corner groceries while solitary Eve was rocking little Cain's cradle at home.-In short, he didn't think she was specially created for the purpose of waiting on him, and wasn't under the impression that it disgraced a man lighten his wife's cares a little.

That's the reason that Eve did not need a hired girl, and we wish it was the reason that none of her fair descendants did .- Life Illustrated.

"THIN SHOES."---Yesterday at three o'clock, a lady of sixteen summers took final leave of father, mother, and all earthly friends, including a husband to whom she had been married less than a year. A sad half honeymoon has it been to her and her husband, as well as her parents, who doted over this their only child. for even a year ago the alarming hectic elicited the whisper of possible consumption. Like thousands of others, blooming in youth, she heeded not sufficiently the kind caution against little violations of the laws of health, and admired very little feet. Yesterday a very dear friend about her age, who instinctively hovered about the dying bed of her youthful friend, was erable time on account of the shortness of breath, the dying bride looked anxiously at her young friend and said "Mattie come here." and then summoning her strength for an extra effort, added "thin shoes, thin shoes." At what a fearful cost was that lesson learned, and how fow seem willing to learn it for less. To-mor-row, in her full wedding-robes. Lizzie passes to the silent tomb, leaving with it the thousand pleasant recollections of her almost faultless life the eloquent sermon contained in these impressive words, "Thin shoes-thin shoes.-Cleve-land Plaindealer.

A lady observing a little girle apparently lost in the street, accosted her with the question, "Whose child are you?" "Child of wrather "Whose child are you?" "Guild of wratage cried the little urchin, dropping a courtesy, as if addressing the parson. The lady resumed and said: "Where were you born?" "Born in min, amema," persevered the diminutive theo-Togian.

Affectation, it is well said by Fuseli, is the action of a lie. It is generally composition of concest and deceit-an effort to gain superiority by false pretences.
