

EXECUTION OF JACOB S. HARDEN.

Rev. Jacob S. Harden, convicted of the murder of his wife, was hanged Belvidere, N. J., on Friday week.

At nine o'clock Harden expressed a desire to visit the scaffold, which was granted. He stood for nearly five minutes upon the trap-door, perfectly calm and composed.

At twelve o'clock the prison door was thrown open, and those who had passes were allowed to enter. The hour of one o'clock having arrived, Sheriff Sweeny proceeded to the condemned and informed him that the time had arrived, and that he must now prepare for the execution of the sentence.

At twenty-three minutes past one o'clock Harden was led forth, accompanied by his spiritual advisers, and ascended the platform.

The cap was drawn over his eyes, the noose was attached to the main pulley, and at twenty-five minutes to two o'clock he was launched into eternity. The fall, which was four feet, did not break his neck.

Lowell and Warner's College, Binghamton. This college, by the enterprise, energy and ability of its Proprietors, has become one of the finest and most valuable institutions in Binghamton.

Its Faculty are unsurpassed in their ability and fitness, and in their zealous devotion to their respective Departments.

Its course of commercial studies, as already appears, cannot be excelled in its extent and thoroughness, embracing all the branches of a commercial education; necessary to make a finished, practical business man.

Its location, in the centre of a village pre-eminent for its beauty, healthfulness, accessibility and general attractions, is unrivalled.

In fine, its facilities, as a first-class Commercial College, are superior to those of any institution of the kind, in the whole country.

Established on a sound and permanent basis, surrounded with all the inducements which any institution can present, it now invites the young and industrious Farmer, the aspiring Clerk, the ambitious Laborer, in any honest pursuit, the "gentleman of elegant leisure" to devote a few months within its pleasant walls in laying the foundations of that practical, every-day education, without which a mingles in the throng of human life, whatever may be his other accomplishments or advantages, has but little security, usefulness or real enjoyment.

The Proprietors of this College have just procured for their graduating pupils, the most elegant, comprehensive and tasteful Diploma which we have ever seen.

It is a beautiful and finished engraving which the business graduate will find not only "useful" but "ornamental."

At its head in the centre, is a life-like group graphically representing Professors Lowell, Warner and Rankin—Professor D., standing, and in the act of presenting a Diploma to a graduate, who is also standing. Professors IV. and R. are in a sitting posture, witnessing the ceremony.

On either side are several appropriate figures, emblems and designs. The body of the Diploma is engraved after the bold, distinct and beautiful style of Pennsylvania so successfully taught in the College. But we do not profess to describe the Diploma. We only glance imperfectly at some of its prominent features.

This beautiful Diploma is the workmanship of the experienced and celebrated Artist Wm. Schuchman.—Binghamton Republican.

THE CONSEQUENCES OF PLAYING EUCHRE WITH A YOUNG LADY.—A constable in Williamsport, Indiana, while paying a visit to a young lady living a few miles away, proposed a game of euchre as the evening's entertainment, which the young lady accepted.

Shortly after the Battle of Princeton, a witty Scotch farmer amused himself by writing a humorous ballad upon it, which so struck one of the officers, who had behaved very badly on the occasion, that he sent the poet a challenge to meet him at H—, for mortal combat.

THE AGITATOR.

HUGH YOUNG, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

WELLSBOROUGH, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 19, 1860.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

HANNIBAL HAMLIN, OF MAINE.

REPUBLICAN STATE NOMINATION.

FOR GOVERNOR,

ANDREW G. CURTIN, OF CENTRE COUNTY.

THE TWO DEMOCRATIC FACTIONS.

Though the Democratic party has been unable to agree in the selection of a Presidential candidate, some sanguine persons appear to entertain hopes that a cooperation may be brought about for defeating the Republican ticket, and so devolving upon the House of Representatives, or rather upon the Senate, the choice of a President.

But to these and all other plans of cooperation between the two Democratic factions there exist invincible obstacles. The same antagonism that produced the original split operates with undiminished force to prevent any reunion, whether complete or partial.

Lowell and Warner's College, Binghamton. This college, by the enterprise, energy and ability of its Proprietors, has become one of the finest and most valuable institutions in Binghamton.

Its Faculty are unsurpassed in their ability and fitness, and in their zealous devotion to their respective Departments. Its course of commercial studies, as already appears, cannot be excelled in its extent and thoroughness.

In this state of the case, great numbers of the Democracy, who have a preference for being on the winning side, would transfer their votes from Douglas to Breckinridge and Lane on the strength of this change in their favor.

Whatever may be the case with the frank and free, there cannot be a doubt that the great body of the Democratic politicians on either side would prefer the election of the Republican candidate to the triumph of that faction of their own party to which they are opposed.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—Heenan arrived in New York last week per steamer Vanderbilt.

—Daniel S. Dickinson, of New York, is out for Breckinridge and Lane.

—"Please exchange," as the printer said when he offered his heart to a pretty girl.

—Cassius M. Clay is going over to Southern Indiana, to stump for Lincoln and Hamlin.

—A patriotic insane man named Charles Berry, hanged himself in Dakota County, Minn., last week, by tying an American flag about his neck.

—G. P. R. James, whose death at Venice has been announced, wrote some seventy novels and romances. His first success was in Richelieu.

—Another mile trot between Flora Temple and Patchen came off at Philadelphia on the 4th, best three in five. Flora won in three straight heats, time 2:22 1/2, 2:21 1/2, 2:37 1/2.

—During the three years of Mr. Buchanan's administration, the Department of the State has issued about 18,000 passports to citizens desiring to travel in foreign parts.

—In Japan, boys become men at about fifteen years of age. They then receive a new name and have their heads shaved. For every advance in rank, the name is changed for a new one.

—Hon. H. V. Johnson, the Douglas candidate for the Vice-Presidency, was hung in effigy last week, in Macon, Ga., and otherwise grossly insulted. He has recently been Governor of the State.

—The hay crop is generally secured in good condition, and with the exception of a few cases of mildew or weevil, the wheat crop is almost without a blemish, and will be unusually abundant.

—The Japanese brought eighty tons of baggage with them. It is said that they carefully preserved all the newspapers which described their visit. If this is so, they took back more than eighty tons of luggage.

—When the tornado struck Camanche, four men were playing cards in one of the buildings totally destroyed. All four were killed with the cards in their hands. What an awful warning to Sabbath-breakers!

—There is not a single paper in the State of Connecticut which supports Douglas! The indications are that the Little Giant will not be able to secure a single electoral vote in the Union! What a formidable candidate!

—A candidate for Congress, out West, sums up his education as follows: "I never went to school but three times in my life, and that was to night school. Two nights the teacher didn't come, and 'o'er the night I had no candle."

—It is not a little remarkable that there is a town in Middlesex county, Mass., another in Grafton county, N. H., another in Prescott county, Maine, and still another in Addison county, Vt., where every legal voter is a Lincoln man.

—When James Buchanan retires, March 4, 1861, the national debt will not be less than $100,000,000. The expenses of the present Administration, in time of profound peace, are greater by double than of Mr. Fillmore's, who paid the debt incurred by the Mexican war.

—Yankees know how and where to turn a ready penny. At the Boston fireworks, on July 4th, a man was present with a wagon load of three-legged pine stools, which he sold readily for twenty-five cents a piece. In New York, last "Fourth," what a God-send this load would have been. They would have used them for combing each other's heads with admirable effect.

—The Cincinnati Commercial says the health of Stephen A. Douglas is completely broken up, and that he has lost the greater part of his property. This, then, is the only possible ground of accounting for his desperate greed for an empty nomination. Now or never, while he has a host of warm friends and admirers of his money. Sink or swim, it is his only chance, and he can lose nothing by the despairing effort.

—Quite an ingeniously-constructed chair has been presented to Mr. Lincoln. It is composed of thirty-three States and Kansas, the names of which are inscribed upon the several pieces respectively. The two main posts of the chair are Hicory and Ash, in commemoration of the "Old Hero" of Tennessee, and the "Sage of Ashland" of Kentucky. Kansas, with her affections, is represented by a limb of Weeping Willow; and in a similar manner appropriately throughout the whole.

—In a conversation between Cushing and Col. Parker, author of Reminiscences of Rufus Choate, Cushing said:

"Abraham Lincoln is a much abler man than is generally supposed, even in his own party. In his canvass with Douglas, he beat him in argument, beat him in law, beat him in wit; and the published debates of that canvass sustain this assertion."

—When Caleb Cushing, the President of both the Democratic National Conventions, voluntarily renders to Mr. Lincoln the honor which is so justly due him, we think the little men of the party who have been charging Lincoln with being a weak and illiterate man, ought to hide their faces in shame for their contemptible meanness.

FROM THE PEOPLE.

Meeting of the County Medical Society.

Editor Agitator: Pursuant to the call published June 6th, several doctors of the county assembled at the office of Dr. N. Packer, in Wellsboro, June 20th, and adopted a Constitution and By-Laws and Code of Ethics as adopted by the American Medical Convention, held at Philadelphia, in June, 1848.

Believing that an elevated standard of the Medical Profession is essential for the welfare of its members and the masses, and a deeper interest therein is to be promoted only by sustaining a Medical Association in the county, in the name of the Tioga County Medical Society, the doctors in all parts of the county are cordially invited to attend its next session, and come in readiness to assist in and cooperate with every effort which may be put forth to promote the honor and usefulness of our common calling.

Republican Meeting at Stony Fork. A large and interesting Republican meeting was held at Stony Fork, last evening. It was organized by selecting William F. Robinson Chairman.

Editor Agitator: The Republicans of this vicinity met at the M. E. Church in Mansfield, on Saturday evening last, and listened to an address by Hon. A. Humphrey, of Tioga.

Information Wanted.—James Davenport, son of John Davenport, left his father's house in Davenport, Delaware county, N. Y., on Sunday, the 27th of May last, at 10 o'clock A. M.

BUCHANAN'S SPEECH.—The Old Public Functionary has done what several of the Presidents of the United States have cashiered their subordinates for doing; he has been intermeddling with the political elections.

WHITE MEN! What do you think of the demagogue who utters such a doctrine, or of the party who seeks to honor him for it? It was uttered, we repeat, by Herschel V. Johnson, and the Democratic party is laboring to make him Vice President of the United States!

THE CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.—A few days ago, both the candidates for Governor of this State were in this city, stopping at the Girard House, and both were seen sitting side by side upon the same sofa, indulging in the most friendly conversation.

A MEAN CANDIDATE.

The programme of the Administration Democrats, and one which they hope to accomplish, is the defeat of Lincoln before the people by withdrawing one or two Northern States from his support, with the view to the election of a President by Congress.

General Lane—I'll tell you. While your humble servant was having his arm almost shattered to pieces, and while other good soldiers of this State were battling in defence of your country's honor, our friend Lincoln was over in Washington voting against supplies for the army.

THE OREGON ELECTION.

The result of this election is gratifying to every member of the Republican party. This meant to us at this time. Gen. Lane, the Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency, is heaviest. "Delusion" Smith is also graciously permitted to retire into private life, and be no more a "delusion" to men.

But the most important lesson taught by such a glorious result is, that the new States already admitted, or those to come in hereafter, will no longer serve as sheet-anchors, as stay-ropes, to the "Slave Power."

Look at the record of Weller and Gurn, of California; of the two Dodges, father and son; of Jones, of Iowa; of Walker, of Wisconsin; of Rice, of Minnesota; of both the victims in the case under discussion. What act is there in the whole catalogue of insidious or open attacks upon liberty, with which the history of Congressional legislation for the last ten years abounds, to which they did not lend an active, hearty, nay, eager support?
