The recent brawls in the House at Washington reminds the Cleveland Plaindealer of a story heard in Arkansas several years since, which has never been in print.

It is no disrespect to the present enlightened and genial State of Arkansas to say that in its sucipient or Territorial days it was rather "rough." It was a very common thing for a man to leave the bosom of his family in sound health in the morning and return dead at night. Cutting, slashings and shootings were of daily occurrence. It was dangerous to be safe. The Legislature was chiefly composed of bullies and blacklegs, and the scenes enacted by them were often very eccentric. A fight arose about something in the "House." The Hon. Mr. Bangor, of Napoleon, called the Hon. Mr. Slauger, of Helena, a liar. The Hon. Slanger retorted with a bullet which took off the Hon Banger's left ear. Both then sprang into the middle of the hall with drawn bowie-knives .-The speaker said, "By — we must have fair play in this business!" and rushed out with a cocked pistol in one hand and a tremendous "tooth-pick" in the other, and in tones of thunder commanded the representatives to form a ring. A ring was formed, and in the classics of the times the combatants "went in." They cut each other fearfully, and for quite a spell it was difficult to tell which was the better man. But, finally, Banger, by an adroit thrust, cut off Slanger's head, and instant death was the result. Mr. Slanger's remains being removed, and order restored, Mr. Banger rose and said: "It is my painful duty to announce to this House the death of the Hon. William Slanger, of Helena. He was good at draw-poker and fare, and handled the tooth-pick beautifully .-He wasn't of no account at legislation. He was middlin' on hosses. He put on too many scollops. He had no family 'ceptin' his brother Bill, the best poker player on Red River. I move resolutions of respect be passed and for-warded to his brother Bill." They were

THE PETICOAT FORTUNE.—The peasantry round Josselin retain their old dresses and customes in perfection; the girls, especially, have a habit that would save much trouble were it introduced into more civilized circles. They appear on fele days in red under-petticoats, with white or vellow borders round them; the num ber of these denotes the portion the father is willing to give his daughter ; each white band, representing silver betokens a hundred frances of rent; and each yellow band means gold, and stands for a thousand frances per year. Thus any young farmer who sees a face that pleases him, has only to glance at the trimming of the petticoat, to learn in an instant, what amount of rent accompanies it .- Wanderings in Brittany.

Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, in his speech at Philadelphia a few days ago, returning his thanks for the welcome extended him by his political supporters, said among other things :-"My friends, I made my appearance on the balcony to-night, for the purpose of making and acknowledgment of the compliment which you - have paid me, and not with a view of entering into a discussion on any political topic. It was the first time in my life that I have been placed in a position where I had to look on and see a i fight without taking a hand in it." The editor of the Louisville Journal has been informed by "one of the first men in Mississippi," that Senator Brown, of that State, is "honest but not bright." We don't make boast of it, but the fact is, one of the Indiana Senators is "Bright but not honest."-Madison Courier.

WILMINGTON. Del., Sept, 17, 1859.—Messrs. Evans and Watson, Philadelphia.

Gentlemen: The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of your manufacture, purchased by us from your Agent, Ferris & Garrett, of our city, some nine months ago, was severely tried by burglars last Saturday night, and although they had a sledge hammer, cold chisels, and although they had a stedge hammer, cold chiecls, drill, and gunpowder, they did not succeed in opening the Safe. The lock being one of Hall's Patent Powder-proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, which was ignited, and although the door, inside and out, showed the explosion not to have been a small one, it was not forced open. We suppose they were the greater part of the night at work on it. We are much gratified at the result of the attempt to enter it, and if the above facts are of any service, you are at liberty to use them.

Yours, truly,

BAYNARD & JONES.

GREAT FIRE!—ANOTHER TRIUMPH.
KNONVILLE, TENESSEE, March 13th, 1550.—Messrs.
Evans & Watson, Philadelphia:
Gentlemen: It affords me great pleasure to say to you that the Salamander Safe, which I purchased of you in February. 1558, proved to be what you recommended it—a sure protection from fire. My store-house together with soveral others, was hurned to the ground in March last. The Safe fell through into the cellar, and was exposed to intense heat for hix or eight hours, and when it was taken from the ruins and opened, all its contents were found to be in a perfect state, the books and papers not being injured in the least. I can cheerfully recommend your Safes to the community, believing as I do, that they are as near fire-proof as it is possible for any Safe to be unide.
