Our flag bere—the starry flag
Our.sto... carefathers gave,
O'er Freedom's home, Free Soil, Free Men,
In triumph long-to wave !
Yet all its bright and shining folds

Foul Slavery seeks to stain,
Till Freedom's host is called to fight
Her sattle oer again!
And fight we will, from vale to hill,
The battle cry is neard,
Till with Free Speech, Free Soil, Free Men,
The nation's heart is stirred.

Oh, blessed Freedom! peerless boom!
Worth all the world besides;
For thee, how many hero souls
Have gladly bled and died!
And tis for thee, dear Liberty,
We gather in this fight,
To save thy flag from stain and shame,
And Slavery's awful might!
Free Spetch, Free Labor, and Free Soil—
Lincoin and Right unrolled,
Are mottoed there for Freedom's host,
On every shining fold.

On every sining told.

Our Flag is there! oh, bright and fair, It leads the millions on,
Till Slavery's surging waves be stayed, And Freedom's hattle won! And valor's arm and beauty's smile Shall bid it proudly wave,
Till not a road of Freedom's soil Is cursed by chain or slave!
Free speech. Free presses, far and wide,
Be these the battle cry,
Till Freedom's flag in Freedom's cause Is crowned with victory!

A Short Sermon to "Douglas Worshippers!" DY WHANG DOODLE.

And devout men caraied Stephen to his burial and made eat lemontation over him - Acts viii. 2.

And devoor men carded stephen to his burial and made great tentomation over him —Acts viii. 2.

My dear Douglas brethren: I intend to talk to you at this time, about the folly and sinfulness of worshipping man. The heathen bow to images of wood and stone, and some worship unclean beasts. But we of this generation linve-been guilty of the meanest idolatry of all in worshipping a little lump of corrupt flesh and blood, dalled, called Stephen, now defunet. A few weeks ago when we ladened our vessels it is not the state of the Principals of this school to impart a therough course of instruction to all wishing to qualify themselves for teachers, either rocal or instrumental as also to those who wish to make greater proficiency in music, either practical or theoretical, for their own individual gradification or benefit.

The course of instruction will embrace the art of playing the Piano Forte, Organ, Melodeon. Violin, violincello, Guitar, and all instruments used in Orchestras or Brass Bands. Singing in all its department, and Composition.

Tuesday, August 14th, 1866, And continue in resident of the Principals of this school to impart a therough course of instruction to all wishing to qualify themselves for teachers, either rocal or instrumental as also to those who wish to make greater proficiency in music, either practical or theoretical, for their own instruments and the music profice of the Principals of this school to impart a therough course of instruction to all wishing to qualify themselves for teachers, either rocal or instruments as also to those who wish to make greater proficiency in music, either practical for theoretical, for their own instruments and themselves for teachers, either rocal or instruments as also to those who wish to make greater proficiency in music, either practical for theoretical for theoretical for the principals of this school to impart a therough course of instruction to all wishing to push themselves for teachers, either or factors of the Principals of this school to impart a the with rum and whisky for our brethren, who were sent as missionaries to the port of Charleston, in the foreign land of South Carolina, to preach the gospel of Dred Scott and popular Sovereignty and gave them gold and silver wherewith to buy their bread and meat, our departed triend was full of promise, and high uplifted as the good of Democracy, and all who would fall down and worship him should have their reward. But, alas! our brethren have returned to us with nothing but his unseemly carcass. "Ind devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lemontation over and elders were gathered together in convention at Charleston, that many of the heathen of that region would not fall down and worship our golden calf. And we said unto them they were wrong? that the golden calf would grant them many indulgences; he would give them Bourbon whiskey, apple jack and red-eye as beverages, and had promised nine hundred and thousand foreign missions, post offices and custom house and take five hundred old fogies into his cabinet. But all this would not avail. Nary bowel of compassion could be moved within them, and therefore our brethren returned unto us. "And derout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lemontation over him."

And the disciples of Stephen spake unto them, saying, that they did not care whether niggers were voted upside down, or downside up, it made no difference. But they were rebellious, and declared that we must get the nigger out of the fence and protect them in the Territories where there are no fences; but we couldn't'do it. We referred them to Freeport, where Stehen spake of "unfriendly legislation," but they didn't care a red for the Police Magistrate of the Territories, but would pasture their niggers there, on Uncle Sam's farm. They wouldn't let us put a fence of unfrienly legislation around them, and because we wolden't give the niggers pasture, they waxed with wrath, and Stephen gave up the ghost. "And devoit men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lemonta-

In vain our brethren promised to erect a falsebottomed platform, to delude the heathen with tricks of legerdemain. Oh, the "irrepressible conflict!" It squeezed our poor little Stephen so hard, that gout nor influenza need trouble him more. They cast rocks upon him. The lions roared at him. The eagle "quivered his tail at him in proud defiance." Old Buck shook his horn at him. The niggers shook their wool and laughed at him, because the "Rail-mauler" received more votes from Suckers than he did. And our own hundred and fifty-two and a half brethren stood by and saw him crushed out, and bewailed ther empty pockets, and the loss of the good things promised them. "And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lemontation over him."

And now, in conclusion, my-dear Douglas brethren, I know it is hard for us to believe that Stephen is snuffed up. We cannot realize it.— But it is even so. We never shall behold his coat tail dragging on the ground any more. Its beautiful folds have been wrapped around his wounded seat of honor, and he has been lain at rest. The "irrepressible conflict" has dealt him a smasher on the nob, and his voice will no longer charm us with the beautiful song of Popular Sovereignty. Therefore cease your blubbering of Stephen. There is yet hope of salvation for us. There is a plank still left for us poor shipwrecked sinners to cling to. Our brethren north and south already stand upon it. Though the heathen have denounced it as a relic of barbarism, yet our elders in the great council of the nation say it is a good one. will go the land of the blessed saints in Utah, where it is fenced in and shout for old Mrs. Polly Gamy. Thre, reposing on her bosom, we will bury all our sorrows for the immaculate Stephen, who was so shamefully martyred at Charleston. Let him rot in peace.

Farewell, then, to poor old Stephen,
The famous Charleston martyr;
For he lied so, we couldn't believe him,
And we won't go tumbling after.

Thus, you see, I have quoted the Dutch poet, and he will close with the words of the text, "And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lemontation over him."

The choir will please sing that good old sockdology, of "Possum up a gum tree," while a collection is being taken up for the benefit of our late missonaries at Charleston.

The other day Mrs. Snifkins, being unwell, sent for a medical man, and declared her belief that she was poisoned, and that Mr. Snifkins done it. "I didn't do it!" shouted Snifkins. "It's all gammon; she san't poisoned. Prove it, doctor; open her on the spot,—I'm willing."

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29, 1859.

To the President of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Society:—The subscribers, your committee to the contents of a Saiamander Safe of Evans & Watton, after being exposed to a strong fire on the Fair Grounds for eight hours, respectfully represent—

That after seven cords of oak wood and three of pine had been consumed around the Safe, it was opened in the presence of the committee, and the contents taken out, a little warmed, but not even scorched.

Several Silver Medals heretofore received by the manufacturers, and a large quantity of documents were in the Safe, and came out encirely uniquired.

The experiment satisfied us of the capacity of Safer of this kind to protect contents from any fire to which they may be exposed.

STILL ANOTHER.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept, 17, 1859.—Messis, Brancand Watson, Philadelphin.

Gentlemen: The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of your manufacture, purchased by us from your Agent, Ferris & Garrett, of our city, some nine months ago, was severely tried by burglars last Saturday night, and although they had a sledge hammer, cold chitely drill, and gunpowder, they did not succeed in opening the Safe. The lock being one of Hall's Patent Pew der-proof," they could not get the powder into it, by drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a lang charge, which was ignited, and although the door, as side and out, showed the explosion not to have been small one, it was not forced open. We suppose the were the greater part of the night at work on it. Yare much gratified at the result of the attempt to engit, and if the above facts are of any service, your at liberty to use them.

GREAT FIRE!—ANOTHER TRIUMPH.

KNOXYILLE, TEXESSEE, March 13th, 1859.—Mean
Evans & Watson, Philadelphia:

Gentlemen: It affords me great pleasure to say h you that the Salamander Safe, which I purchased of you in February, 1858, proved to be what you recon.

mended it—a sure protection from fire. My store, house together with several others, was burned to the ground in March last. The Safe fell through into the cellar, and was exposed to intense heat for six or eight hours, and when it was taken from the ruins and opened, all its contents were found to be in a perfect state, the books and papers not being injured in the least. I can cheerfully recommend your Safes to the community, believing as I do, that they are as near fire-proof as it is possible for any Safe to be made.
