LIST OF LETTERS—Wellsboro P. O. NURSERY—Wicks & Bloodgood, Tioga. Wagon Business—Dr. F. Brown Dodg, N. Y. POTTER CO. RAILROAD.

Our account of the Excursion to Falls Brook, is unavoidably deferred till next week.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—We learn that our enterprising friend, Mr. Joseph Riberoles, has purchased the entire Boot and Shoe Establishment of G. W. West and that he intends to connect with the wholesale and retail leather business.

The people of Knoxville are making preparations for a large meeting on the 29th inst. Col. Curtin, G. A. Grov, S. F. Wilson, and Gen. Van Valkenburg, are expected to be present.

We learn that Mr. Grov cannot fill his appointment at Westfield on the 28th inst., the State Committee having made an appointment for him at some other place.

We stepped into the cabinet Ware Rooms of B. T. Vanborn the other day, and saw a new and noticeable article of furniture which he is now manufacturing to order. It is a Dining Room Extension Table which can be set for a small or large number of persons, and occupies no more room than is necessary for the accommodation or comfort of those around it. It is particularly adapted to hotels or boarding houses, though many private citizens are using them on account of their convenience. Call and see them.

On Monday night last we witnessed some of the most singular electric phenomena imaginable. A thunder cloud darkened the sky in the North East, and for about an hour and a half kept spreading around the horizon to the North, West and South West, until it had covered over two hundred degrees. During the progress of the clouds, the lightning flashed in all directions, sometimes in an interrupted zigzag shape, and sometimes in a blaze, varying from the zenith like the Northern Lights, to much brighter. At last a thunder bolt followed by a refreshing rain.

On Monday night last about ten o'clock John F. Donaldson, Esq., Prothonotary, went into his office, and on attempting to light a fluid lamp, it exploded. Some of the fluid got on his clothes, and but for his presence of mind in running out and rolling in the wet grass in front of the office, he would have undoubtedly been burned to death. As it was he was considerably burned, particularly on his hands. He is able now to leave his room, and expects to resume his business in a week or two.

The Republican Convention of Susquehanna County have re-nominated Hon. CALVINA A. GROV by acclamation, and passed the following resolutions: Resolved, That in again presenting the name of our fellow citizen, Hon. G. A. Grov, to the Republicans of the District, we desire to do no injustice to the worthy and energetic gentlemen who may be named from other counties; but Mr. Grov has become a national name, he is identified with great national questions, by his talents and untiring industry he has acquired a standing and influence which the Republican party more need and which ought to be continued in the National Councils. We therefore earnestly solicit the members of the party in the other counties, with their usual patriotism, to yield local preferences to the great demands of the party, and to assent unanimously to the nomination of Mr. Grov. Resolved, That S. B. Chase, Esq., and C. W. Conrad be the Conferees to meet the Congressional Conference of this District at Towanda, Monday, September 30, 1860.

We publish elsewhere an advertisement of a meeting of the Directors of the Potter County Rail Road Company. This company was organized by an act of Assembly last winter, and from the character of the gentlemen named in the Act, we should judge that the proposed Road from Germania to Young Woman's Town, will be built at no distant day. Mr. Bushor, the gentlemanly Superintendent of the Germania Farm Association, informs us that nearly enough stock has already been subscribed to make it a sure thing. Three routes have been surveyed—the shortest being 23 1/2 miles—the longest 35 miles. As soon as space allows us, we shall give a more extended notice of this work and show how Tioga County is to be affected and her laboring and farming interests to be benefited by such a Railroad.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—On Saturday morning last, about 2 o'clock, during a thunder shower, a large barn filled with grain, &c., the property of Hiram Freeborn in Chatham township, was struck with lightning and entirely destroyed. The barn was on high ground and therefore considerably exposed. Farmers should be careful to see that lightning rods are placed upon property of this kind. We learn that the loss is about $400. No insurance.

Since the above was put in type, we learn that during the prevalence of the thunder storm of Monday night, the lightning struck the east peak of the barn of Ezra Stevens in Middlebury, tearing the gable end out about half way down, and setting fire to the hay. A number of harvest hands who were at the house with Mr. Stevens, went to work with ladders and water and soon extinguished the flames. Loss about fifteen dollars.

We have received a copy of the List of Premiums of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Society at its tenth annual exhibition to be held at the Wyoming Battle Ground (near Wilkesbarre) on the 25th, 26th, 27th, and 28th of September. The pamphlet is very poorly printed, but probably good enough for the object of it. We notice that most of the Committees are composed of prominent politicians, who are better at wire-pulling than anything else, and who probably know little or nothing of farming. Many of the most populous counties in the State are entirely omitted in the appointment of the Committees. We believe the whole thing to be an unmitigated humbug under its present management; and if the three or four hundred politicians whose names appear on the committees want to get together for a "good time," they ought not to ask the State to bear a part of their expenses.

Our enterprising friend of the Pennsylvania House, Mr. J. W. Bigoney, has been making some marked improvements in and about this ever-popular hotel. The old nuisance of a chimney, an unpleasant reminder of the "dark ages," together with the elephantine fire-places which has so long graced the biggest half of the bar-room, have been removed, as has also the lilliputian specimen of a bar and counter. A neat counter now reaches the whole width of the bar-room, leaving at the end a space for a small door. The room has also been newly-papered and painted, and certainly presents a cheerful appearance. Other changes have been made for the better both in the arrangement and management of the house, but of which we have not now time to speak. Bigoney is a natural landlord, and we hope he may receive the encouragement and patronage which his efforts so justly deserve.

THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

The several States are entitled to Electoral Votes in 1860 as follows: New Hampshire 3, Maine 4, Massachusetts 12, Rhode Island 4, Connecticut 7, Vermont 3, New York 36, New Jersey 7, Pennsylvania 27, Ohio 23, Indiana 11, Illinois 12, Michigan 12, Wisconsin 7, Iowa 7, Minnesota 4, Oregon 3.

A clear majority is 152. We believe every one of those printed in the first column will go for Lincoln and Hamlin, giving him 179 votes, or 27 more than a majority. We do not despair of either Delaware or California.

We have received from E. E. Robinson a beautifully engraved likeness of Hon. Abraham Lincoln. It is a steel engraving 4 x 6 inches in size, suitable for framing and is sold at ten cents. Mr. B. has also for sale campaign badges, photographic medals &c., of all kinds at his bookstore.

DELEGATE ELECTIONS.

The Republican electors of the several election districts of this County will meet on Saturday, the 25th, to elect delegates to the Convention which meets at Mansfield on Friday, August 31st inst. It may be considered hardly necessary for us to say anything in regard to it, but we cannot let the opportunity pass by without offering a few remarks by way of "improvement."

There are now before the people many very worthy citizens—intelligent and active members of our party—asking for the few offices this year in the gift of the people. In view of the great results involved in, and of the great importance in a National point of view of the State election in October, it is the bounden duty of every good citizen to turn out to the elections, and by this means secure if possible the nomination of such men as will be most likely to create the most enthusiasm, and poll the largest votes at that time. Under our present organization the delegate elections are of far more importance than any other. The result of them is justly considered the voice of the people. It is of the first importance, therefore, that the people should turn out and see that they are fairly represented by selecting men who are known and tried Republicans—men who value the principles of our party far higher than they value the success of certain candidates—men who are reliable, discreet, and competent.

A question arises at every delegate election as to the best method of choosing delegates.—The truest representation of the real sentiments of the people is a direct vote for the candidates—the result of such vote to be regarded as instructions to the delegates. Thus: let each voter deposit in the ballot-box the names of the candidates he would like to have placed in nomination; or if the vote be viva voce, let accurate tallies be kept; then if A has more votes for Prothonotary than B, let the delegates be instructed to vote for A in the Convention; if C has more votes than D for Recorder, let this also be considered as instruction to the delegates; and so with all the other offices. This method seems to us to be the only fair way of getting at the choice of the people. Office-seekers usually bring about so many combinations of interests and influences that if a citizen votes for a delegate who may agree with him in the support of one candidate, he may be giving strength by that same vote to another candidate whose success he would not seek to advance. Electors would do well to think over these matters before-hand.

After every nominating convention, it is usual to hear certain men find fault with the nomination. Upon inquiry it will be found that these men are those who paid no attention to the delegate election, deeming it of too little importance to lose an hour in attending it. These men do not reflect that the primary meetings are the sources of power, and that at such meetings only could they have corrected the supposed errors of which they complain.

LINCOLN OR LANE.

We have lately beheld the spectacle of a once great and powerful party, broken up and completely demoralized by internal feuds, arising out of no conflict of principles which could not have been smoothed over and adjusted.—But the Pro-Slavery Administration faction of the Democracy dying of the corruptions it had fastened upon its own body, was determined that the northern faction which repudiated its corruptions should die also. The Northern Democracy had for so long a time secured themselves place and power and spoils by eating Southern dirt, that they were expected by their slave-holding masters to continue in this (to them) very delightful avocation. It was not enough that the Northern allies of slavery had voted them a law by which any peaceful citizen might be ordered to chase a flying fugitive slave like a dog after a wounded deer; it was not enough that the allies of slavery had abrogated a national compact which had stood for more than the third of a century, as a barrier over which the cursed institution could not come; it was not enough that these same allies accepted the infamous doctrines of the Dred Scott decision, by which a portion of our race were deprived of their inalienable rights. It was not enough that Freedom should lose all these concessions. The Northern Democracy were asked to submit to still another humiliation—a code of laws to protect slavery in the territories—which was refused! The Douglas or Northern Democracy, said in effect: "We are willing to go into the campaign on the Cincinnati Platform, which you know is a very convenient string of principles. In the South you can wear it means Slavery, and the protection of slavery; whilst in the North we can say as we said in 1856, that it means freedom and nothing else. In this way we can humbug the people one more, and pocket the spoils." But the South, which deems itself strong enough to be honest, to this replies: "No; we will have no more Januses for President. We want a man who says what he means, and means what he says, and if you don't like Breckinridge and a slave-code, you must take Lincoln and lose the spoils." The fight has at last been narrowed down to this, that either Lincoln will be elected by the people, or Lane by the Senate, the House being so constructed that no election can be held there. It will be seen by extracts which we gave in last week's AGRICULTURE, that the Herald, the leading Breckinridge paper of the country, gives up the contest, and virtually concedes the election of Lincoln. Enough said.

FROM THE PEOPLE.

Liberty Republican Club.

Editor of Agitator: The Republicans of Liberty township met at the school house in District No. 1, on Saturday, the 11th inst., at 5 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of organizing a Republican Club. On motion of G. E. Veil, Esq., Maj. R. C. Cox was called to the Chair, and stated the object of the meeting. The following gentlemen were then chosen as officers of the Club: President—C. F. Veil. Vice Pres'ts—R. C. Cox, W. L. Keagle. Secretary—G. R. Sheffer. Treasurer—R. Childs.

On motion, the officers elect were constituted a committee to appoint Vigilance Committees in the several School Districts of the township. The following gentlemen were appointed: 1. William Keagle, William Fulkerson. 7. Leon Harter, Jacob Glookner. 8. Jesse Taylor, Burditt Wilson. 9. Abram Foulkrod, Jesse Burdell. 10. M. McKnipe, C. Foulkrod. 11. D. W. Canfield, C. A. Comstock.

It was moved and carried that the meetings of the Club be held once in two weeks, on Saturday evenings. On motion, the Club resolved to meet August 25th, at School District No. 1. On motion, the proceedings of this meeting were ordered to be published in the AGITATOR. After which the Club adjourned to meet again on the date above stated. C. F. VEIL, Pres't. G. R. SHEFFER, Sec'y.

To Teachers.

DEAR SIR.—To the teachers and those intending to teach in the common schools of Tioga County, I have a word to say.

Dr. Burrows, State Superintendent, in his instructions to the County Superintendents says: "The expedient called a 'temporary' or 'provisional' certificate, is unknown to the School Law, and it must soon disappear altogether. If it do not, the annual examination of teachers will become a mere form for the annual authorization of professional incompetency, in greater or less degree."

It is desirable to hasten the period when teaching shall become truly a profession, and teachers receive a "permanent professional" certificate. But this presupposes the most thorough and careful preparation, and an intention to make teaching a permanent business. Again, the State Superintendent adds:—"While the State Superintendent admits that this desirable period," when none but permanent professional certificates shall be granted, "has not yet arrived," he insists that instant and decided measures shall be adopted to hasten it. Accordingly, it is his advice and instruction to all County Superintendents, at once to fix upon certain members in the various branches, according to the circumstances of their respective counties, below which they will, not now issue even a 'provisional' certificate; and to inform all who may obtain these numbers, that if their figures be not improved at the next annual examination, no further provisional certificate will be conceded to them."

N. B. I shall grant permanent professional certificates to all who come up to the prescribed standard of scholarship and success in teaching.

2. The standard of scholarship will be raised at least twenty-five per cent above that of any previous year.

I am conscious that one of the most beneficial results of the Superintendency, is the elevation of teachers. A number of "teachers' drills," will, therefore, be held in different parts of the county during the coming Fall, of which timely notice will be given. HIRAM C. JOHNS, Co. Supt. Mainsburg, Aug. 14, 1860.

National Politics.

To the Editor of the Agitator: The present Presidential campaign bids fair to be one of the most important political contests ever inaugurated in this mighty Republic. The political parties striving for supremacy are very dissimilar in age and creeds. The one appears upon the field of conflict clothed with the prestige of more than half a century, crowned with the laurels of almost uninterrupted victory, and rendered venerable by weight of years.

The other party has not yet passed the first decade of political life. But this disproportion in age is less striking than their antagonism of principles. Here the youthful Republican party stands forth the uncompromising champion of civil liberty and the unflinching foe of every species of human oppression. Republicanism appears upon the arena of conflict not to transfer the balance of power and then add her quota to the political degeneracy that darkens the late annals of our country, but to arrest the strong arm of oppression—to stay the torrent of political corruption that imperils the free institutions of our country. Aged Democracy, weakened in her own camp by internal factions—branded with the infamy of betraying the principles of her youth—lasciviously recreant to the trusts committed to her charge,—has become the champion of human oppression. She has invested American Slavery with all the authority of the legislative, executive and judicial functions of our National Government. She has endeavored to throw around it the sacred shield of the Constitution; she has converted every inch of our national domains, into slave hunting-grounds, and legalized slavery in our territories.

Here, Citizens, Freemen, is an epitome of the principles of the parties that ask your suffrage; that claim your support at the approaching election. Can you endorse enormities of the Democratic party?—a party whose very name is a palpable misnomer? If not, then array yourself in solid phalanx on the side of Freedom. Vote for the Republican candidates at the next Presidential election, thereby bearing record that you desire the perpetuation of American Freedom.

"White's the sun Doth his successive journey run."

Peach Orchard, N. Y., Aug. 10, 1860.

Among the objections urged against Gen. Lane, the Secession candidate for Vice President, by the citizens of Dubuque, Iowa, are the following:

First—He spells God with a little g.

Second—He spells barracks, bar-rax.

Third—He spells dirt with two f's.

Fourth—When in Mexico, he dated a letter "Very Cross."

Fifth and last—He can't keep a hotel.

Meeting in Middlebury.

Editor Agitator: The Tioga County Central Republican Club met at the Hammond school house, in Middlebury, on Saturday evening, 18th inst., as previously announced in your paper. J. B. Potter, Esq., was called to preside, and O. M. Stebbins was elected Secretary.

Mr. Potter then stated the object of the meeting. It was to discuss the leading issues now before the American People, and to prepare ourselves to act well our part in the crisis now before us. He concluded by calling for Mr. Ezra Williams of Tioga.

Mr. Williams, in a short, earnest and interesting speech, showed the noble principles of the Republican party, and tried to show the meanness and corruption of the so-called Democratic party, but failed for want of adjectives. He was able, however, to paint its picture so vividly that everybody in the house despised the party of false pretences, more than ever.

Mr. Strang next took the stand. He showed how the old Whig party died without a struggle—brought to its grave by its treachery to Freedom. In the same way the Democratic party is dying by inches. The Democratic party of our Fathers is known only in history. Mr. S. then reviewed, closely and logically the question of slavery in the territories, its advocates and its opponents. He showed that the arguments of Douglas and of those who hung to his coat tails, were fallacious, and that squatter or popular sovereignty was a cheat and a humbug. His speech was well received.

John S. Mann, Esq., of Potter County, being present was called for and took the stand amid tremendous cheers. He commenced by saying that the people of Middlebury must be true-blue Republicans to want another speech, as it was nearly ten o'clock. He proceeded and gave us a good speech, well spiced up with anecdotes of the richest kind, keeping the audience interested and amused at the same time. In the course of his remarks he had occasion to mention the name of G. A. Grov which called forth loud and continued cheers.

John I. Mitchell, of Tioga, was the next speaker; and at the conclusion of his remarks the meeting adjourned with three hearty cheers for Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin.

A few such rousing meetings as this one was would raise the popular enthusiasm as high as it was in 1856. O. M. STEBBINS, Sec'y.

EVERY SUMMER the demand for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters increases. It is found to be the only certain preservation of bodily strength, during a period when the atmosphere is calculated to induce a feeling of lassitude and indigestion. The worst cases of Diarrhoea and Dysentery give way before its potent influence. Innumerable persons, who are now alive and well, must thank the discovery of this preparation that they have not been swept away in the harvest of death. The Bitters are recommended by the best physicians in the land. This is the best evidence of its real value, because, as a general thing, they will not speak a word in favor of advertised preparations. They have been compelled to acknowledge the claims of the Bitters upon the community. For sale by all Druggists.

DIED.

In Sullivan township, on the 25th inst, JAMES GRAY, aged 63 years. (He deceased was one of the earliest settlers in this County having moved into Sullivan as early as 1807, where he continued to reside to the time of his death. He was an honored member of the Baptist Church, a good neighbor, beloved and respected by all who knew him. He was accidentally killed by falling from a load of hay. He died almost instantly.)

We are authorized to announce the name of AMBROSE BARBER, of Delta Township, as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.

We are authorized to announce the name of Wm. BUTLER, of Blossburg, as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.

We are authorized to announce the name of WILLIAM D. BAILEY, of Wellsboro, as a candidate for election to the office of Register and Recorder, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.

The subscriber is a candidate for the office of Register and Recorder, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention. He has not yet often presented claims for office, generally preferring the independence of private life, but in the present instance, he is constrained to depart from his usual course of action for the following reasons:—1st. He needs the emoluments of the office for the support of that half of his family who are under fourteen—those above that age generally take care of themselves.—2d. He has many calls on his purse for contributions to religious, charitable, moral, literary, and political objects, which he finds it impossible to answer with his present means, and thinks it but just that public patronage should be bestowed upon those who have labored for the benefit of their fellow-citizens.—3d. The office is, as very good pay for the amount of labor bestowed upon it, averaging about one thousand dollars a year, and as the subscriber can perform the duties equally as well as the present incumbent who has had 26 years' experience, he thinks that Tioga Co. will take pleasure in bestowing upon one who has labored for the last thirty-two years, been fully identified with her interests, and improvements. He of course submits his claims to the Republican County Convention. J. EMMET, Wellsboro, August 2, 1860.
