Fire and a residence

We'll show the Democrate this fall What Honest Abe can do. Chonus—Then give us Abe and Hamlin too,
To guide our gallant Ship,
With stalwert boys to man the decks,

Well have a merry trip.

Come, granuy Buck, you'd better go,
While you can see the way;
For I fear your nerves won't stand the shock,
Ganeti election day.
So take your hat!—What's that you say?
You are go cold you shiver;
Why, that's the way you'll feel, my dear,
You'll when salling up Salt River.

CHORUS-Then give us Abe, &c.

I hear that Dug is half inclined
To give us all leg ball,
Projerring exercise on foot
To riding on a rail;
For Abe has one already mauled
Upon the White House plan;
If ence Dug gets astride of that,
He is a used up man.

CHORUS-Then give us Abe, &c. Come fally with us here to-night, Be "Wide Awake" for fun, For we shall surely win the day, Before old sixty-one.

From North to South, from East to West,
Our power shall be felt, I tell you fight with all your might, For Abe shall have the belt.

Cuonca Then give us Abe and Hamlin too. To guide our galla t Ship, We'll make the Loco walk the plank, And then a merry trip.

WHEN PARSON BROWNLOW WILL JOIN THE DEMOCRATS.

An Arkansas correspondent, who probably wanted to "wake up" Rev. Brownlow, of the Knoxville (Tenn.) Whig, wrote to the latter, stating that he had learned with pleasure upon what he "considered reliable authority," that Mr. Brownlow was about to join the Democrats, and asked for the probable date of that interesting occurrence. Mr. Brownlow gave the date, or at least data for the date, as follows:

KNOX TILLE, Aug. 6, 1860.

MR. JORDAN CLARK: I have your letter of the 30th ult, and hasten to let you know the precise time when I expect to come out and formally announce that I have joined the Democratic party. When the sun shines at midnight, and the moon at mid-day-when man forgets to be selfish, or Democrats lose their inclinations to steal—when nature stops her onward march to rest, or all the water-courses in America flow up stream when flowers lose their odor and trees shed no leaves-when birds talk and beasts of burden laugh-when damned spirits swap hell for heaven, with the angels of light, and pay them the boot in mean whiskey when impossibilities are in fashion, and no proposition is too absurd to be believed, you may credit the report that I have joined the Demograts.

"I join the Democrats !- Never, so long as there are sects in churches-weeds in gardens fleas in hog-pens—dirt in victuals—disputes in families—wars with pations—water in the ocean-bad men in America, or base women in France. No, Jordan Clark, you may hopeyou may congratulate—you may reason—you may sneer—but that cannot be. The thrones of the Old World—the court of the Universe the governments of the world, may all fall and crumble into ruin-the New World may commit the national suicide of dissolving this Union, but all this must occur before I join the 111 join the Democracy!-Jordan Clark, you know not what you say; when I join the Demogracy the Pope of Rome will join the Methodist Church-when Jordan Clark, of Arkansas, is President of the Republic of Great Britain, by universal suffrage of a contented people L. R. BURLINGAME, A. B., - - Principal. -when Queen Victoria consents to be divorced from Prince Albert by County court in Kansas-when Congress obliges by law, James Buchanan to marry a European Princess—when the Pope leases the Capitol at Washington for his city residence when Alexander of Russia and Napoleon of France are elected Senators in Congress from New Mexico-when good men cease to go to heaven or had men to hell when this world is turned upside down-when proof is afforded, both clear and unquestionable, that there is no Good-when men turn to ants, and ants to elephants, I will change my political faith, and come out on the side of Democracy "Supposing that this full and frank letter will enable you to fix upon the period when I will come out a full-grown Democrat, and to communicate the same to all whom it may concern in Arkansas,

"I have the honor to be, &c., W. G. Brownlow."

THRILLING. -Ethan Spike, of the Portland Transcript, has commenced a tale which is about as sensible and true to nature-and a great deal funnier-than most of the stories of the Ledger stamp, which are now-a-days published. We extract the concluding chapter of the first number:

CHAPTER V. "ARE THAT A GHOST?"-Old Play. We have sed it was night. And once for all, we say again-

It was night. In the fore room of the widder Tuttle's house sot the widder Tattle's only darter. To say that Serefeener Tuttle-sich was her name -likewise her nature-v is a lovely gal, would be several rows of apple sees away from meeting her case. Her raven tresses was redder than her nose, onexpressible eyes, teeth-grinders-tothers being took acut-probably ivory. Add to these the form of a syrup, and you her one of them gals kalkerlated to make a man strike his father and kick his grandmother, brake the ten commandments, and pretty much every thing else. Leastwise so thought Jemes Perkins, as he nelt at her feet, that cold, cold night.

-The Eric Observer, one of the most prominent Democratic journals in Pennsylvania, not wishing to mislead its readers, informs them that "defeat is inevitable," and warns them not to indulge in "vain and delusive hopes, when there is no room for hope." The Observer winds up its article as follows: "We know it is said there is a silver lining in every cloud, but we apprehend it will take a spy glass at least four years long to see a silver lining in the 'cloud' that spans the political horizon of the Democratic party at this time."

PERSONAL respectability is totally independent of a large income. Its greatest secret is self-respect. Poverty can never degrade those who never degrade themselves by vain pretence or duplicity.

EVANS & WATSON'S SALAMANDER SAFES 304 Chestnut Street, PHILADELPHIA.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH! PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29, 1859.
To the President of the Pennsylvania Agricultura Society i—The subscribers, your committee to examine the contents of a Salamander Safe of Evans & Watson, after being exposed to a strong fire on the Fair Grounds for eight hours, respectfully represent—

That after seven cords of oak wood and three of pine had been consumed around the Safe, it was open-ed in the presence of the committee, and the contents taken out, a little warmed, but not even scorched. Several Silver Medals heretofore received by the manufacturers, and a large quantity of documents were in the Safe, and came out encirely uninjured.

The experiment satisfied us of the capacity of Safes of this kind to protect contents from any fire to which they may be exposed.

WILKINGTON, Del., Sept. 17, 1859.—Messre. Evans and Watson, Philadelphia!

Gentlemen: The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of Gentlemen: The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of your manufacture, purchased by us from your Agent, Ferris & Garrett, of our city, some nine months ago, was severely tried by burglars last Saturdsy night, and although they had a sledge hammer, cold chisels, drill, and gunpowder, they did not succeed in opening the Safe. The lock being one of Hall's Patent Powder-proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, which was ignited, and although the door, inside and out, showed the explosion not to havabeen a small one, it was not forced open. We suppose they were the greater part of the night at work on it. We are much gratified at the result of the attempt to enter it, and if the above facts at liberty to use them.

GREAT FIRE!-ANOTHER TRIUMPH.

KNOXVILLE, TENESSEE, March 13th, 1859.—Messia. Evans & Watson, Philadelphia: Evans & Watson, Philadelphia:

Gentlemen: It affords me great pleasure to say to you that the Salamander Safe, which I purchased of you in February, 1858, proved to be what you recommended it—a sure protection from fire. My storehouse together with several others, was burned to the ground in March last. The Safe fell through into the icellar, and was exposed to intense heat for six or eight hours, and when it was taken from the ruins and opened, all its centents were found to be in a perfect. opened, all its contents were found to be in a perfect state, the books and papers not being injured in the least. I can cheerfully recommend your Safes to the community, believing as I do, that they are as near-fire-proof as it is possible for any Safe to be made.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

In view of the fact that every member of the human family is more or less subjected to some complaint, be sides innumerable other conditions in life, which, by the sasistance of a little knowledge or exercise of common sense, they may be able so to regulate their habits of diet, and with the assistance of a good tonic, secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life; for this end Dr., Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which at this day is not a new medicine, but one that hos been tried for years giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate power fully uppn the stomach, bowels and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to knump over discase.

For the cure of Dyspepsia. Indigestion, Naussa, Viatulency Loss of Appetite, or any Billious Complaints, arising from morbid inaction of the Stitmach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have not Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have not an equal.

Diarrhoea, Dysentery or Flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the cange of water and det, will be sheedily regulated by a brief use of this preperation, Dyspepsia, a disease! which is, probably, more prevalent when taken in all its various forms, than any other, the cause of which may always be attributed to derangments of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions gon the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind, then why not use an article to be infallible! Every country have their Bitters as a preventative of disease and strengthening of the system in general, and among them all there is not to be found a healther people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended its advance the destiny of this great preparation in the medical scale of science.

Ever and Ague.—This trying and propolyting disease, which advance the destiny of this great preparation in the medical scale of science.

Five ann Acue.—This trying and provoking disease, which fastees its relentless grasp on the body of man reducing him to a mere shadow in a short space of time and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be defeated and driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTERES RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, any of the above stated disted diseases cannot be contracted when exposed to any ordinary conditions producing them, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as it neither creates names, nor offends the palatt, and rendering unnecessary any change of died or interruption to usual pursnits, but promotes spund sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is thus removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanegic cure.

as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persone in Advanced Years who are suffering from an enfeabled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and needs only to be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nvrsings these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hoesteter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladjes should by all means try this remedy for all cases of deblity, and before so doing, ask your physician who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION.—We cantion the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hoeter-ten's Celebrated Stomach Bitters' blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.
