BLACKBERRIES.

BLACKBERRY CORDIAL.—The following is said to be not only an excellent beverage, but a cure for diarrhea, &c. To a half bushel of black-berries well mashed, add 1-4 lb. of allspice, 2 oz., cinnimon, 3 oz. cloves. Pulverize well, mir, boil slowly till properly done. Then stir pr squeeze the juice through homespun or flannel and add to each pint of the juice one pound of loaf sugar. Boil again for some time, take it off, and while cooling add a gallon of the best cogniac brandy. Dose for an adult, half a gill to a gill; for a child a teasponful or more, according to age.

BLACKBERRY WINE .- Gather when ripe, on a dry day. Put into a vessel with the head out, and a tap fitted near the bottom; pour on them boiling water to cover them. Mash the berries with your hands, and let them stand covered till the pulp rises to the top and forms a crust in three or four days. Then draw off the fluid into another vessel, and to every gallon add one pound of sugar; mix well, and put into a cask to work for a week or ten days, and throw off any remaining lees, keeping the cask well filled, particularly at the commencement. When the PACENIX FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY. working has ceased bung it down; after six or twelve months it may be bottled.

BLACKBERRY JAM.—Gather the fruit in dry weather, allow half a pound of good sugar to every pound of fruit; boil the whole together gently for an hour, or till the blackberries are soft, stirring and mashing them well. Preserve it like any other jam, and it will be found very useful in families, particularly for children— Capital, regulating their bowels and enabling you to disuseful in families, particularly for childrenpense with cathertics. It may be spread on bread or on pudding, instead of butter; and even when the blackberries are bought, it is cheaper than butter.

Sandford E. Church, in a recent speech at Lockport, reciprocated the kind intentions of Mr. Dickenson, as follows:

The disapointed aspirant to whom he had alluded, had q oted in his speech the following

"Twice have I sought Clan-Alpine's glen In peace, but when I come again
I come with banner, brand and bow As leader seeks his mortal foe.

If the gentleman intended this as a threat he would reply to him in the language of the same author:

"For love-lorn swhin, in lady's bower, No're panted for the appointed hour, As I, until before me stand This rebel chieftain and his band."

FUNNY MISTAKE.—A well-known Divine and Philanthropist was walking recently in a crowded street in London at night, in order to distribute tracts to promising subjects. A young woman was walking up and down, and he accosted her. He pointed out to her the error of her ways, implored her to reform, and tendered her a tract, with fervent entreaties to go home and read it. The girl stared at him for a moment or two in sheer bewilderment; at last it dawned on her what he meant and for what he took her, and, looking up with simple amusement in his face, she exclaimed: "Lord, bless you, sir, I ain't a social evil; I am waiting for the omnibus."

LAUGHABLE. The Milwaukee (Wis.) Sentinel, says:

"Three weeks ago, the Democrats of Ann Arbor, Michigan, prepared a handsome pole, to erect in honor of their presidential candidate. But when it was ready to go up, there were not democrats enough to be found to do the required lifting. At the end of a week it was sold to the republicans, who added thirty feet to it, and then run it up with a shout for "Lincoln . and Liberty!"

There are sixty-four inmates of the Ohio State prison, at Columbus, under sentence for life, one of whom has been confined twentyfour years, nine others more than ten years, &c. Of these ten are hopelessly insane, others, are on the last verge of insanity, and the tendency of nearly all is to monomania and despair-facts calculated to inspire the belief that life sentences are by no means cheerful punish-

The patriot John Adams, it is said, was designed for a shoemaker, like his father. One day Deacon Adams, his parent, gave him some uppers to cut out by a pattern that had a threecornered hole in it, by which it had hung upon a nail; and it was found that he had followed the pattern exactly, triangular hole and all .-The Deacon, upon seeing this, declared that John wasn't fif to be a shoemaker, and so he concluded to make a lawyer of him.

An invincible wit and punster asked the captain of a schooner, loaded with boards how he managed to get dinner on the passage? "Why," replied the skipper, "we always cook aboard. "Cook a board do you!" rejoined the wag; "then I see you have been well supplied with provisions this trip, at all events."

A subject put into some minds is like a herb footing," and warrants that all can be "fitted," from the largest to the smallest. In truth, he would assur his friends and the public that petrifies, in some it putrifies. A mind which is merely fervid and busy may make, like boiling water, a slight decoction of it, but it requires spirit and quality in the intellect to extract an essence.

Wealth is not acquired, as many persons sup pose, by fortunate speculations and splendid enterprises, but by the daily practice of industry, frugality, and economy. He who relies upon these means will rarely be found destitute, and whoseever relies upon any other will gen erally become bankrupt.

Gentlemen: The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of

The lock being one of Hall's Patent Powder-proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, which was ignited, and although the door, inside and out, showed the explosion not to have been a small one, it was not forced onen. We suppose they side and out, showed the explosion hot to have been a small one, it was not forced open. We suppose they were the greater part of the night at work on it. We are much gratified at the result of the attempt to enter it, and if the above facts are of any service, you are at liberty to use them. Yours, truly,

GREAT FIRE!—ANOTHER TRIUMPH.

Knoxville, Tenessee, March 13th, 1859.—Messie. Evans & Watson, Philadelphia: Evans & Watson, Philadelphia:

Gentlemen: It affords me great pleasure to say to you that the Salamander Safe, which I purchased of you in February, 1858, proved to be what you recommended it—a sure protection from fire. My storehouse together with several others, was burned to the ground in March last. The Safe fell through into the callest and was expressed to interes heat for six or cellar, and was exposed to intense heat for six or eight hours, and when it was taken from the ruins and eight hours, and when it was taken from the ruins and opened, all its contents were found to be in a perfect state, the books and papers not being injured in the least. I can cheerfully recommend your Safes to the community, believing as I do, that they are as near fire-proof as it is possible for any Safe to be made.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

To view of the fact that every member of the infamily is more or less sandeted to some complaint sides innumerable other chalditions in life, which by assistance of a little knowledge or exercise of common they may be able so to regulate their habits of diet, with the assistance of a good tonic, secure permanent in incoming the may be able so to regulate their habits of diet, with the assistance of a good tonic, secure permanent in incoming the complaint of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life, this end Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country, aration bearing his name, which at this day is not medicine, but one that hos been trief for years, giving faction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate perfully uppur the stomach, bowels and liver, restoring the a healthy and vigorous action, and thus by the simple cess of strengthening nature, enable the system to tric over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia. Indirection, Xausea, Flatul Loss of Appetite, or any Billidons Compaints, arising to morbid inaction of the Sttmach of Bowels, producing Conditions, Conference of Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Merbnis, &c., these Bitters has an equal.

Diarrhoea, Dysentery or Flux, so generally contract new settlers, and caused principally by the cange of and diet, will be sheedily regulated by a brief use of preparation. Dysepspia, a disease which is probably prevalent when taken in all its various forms, than any of the cause of which may always be attributed to dements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fausing HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTER'S, as per direct of disease and strengthening of the system in gen and among them all there is not up by found a healther pic than the Germans, from whom this preparation en ted, based upon scientific experiments which have tend advance the destiny of this grient preparation in the med scale of science.
