Introduction of the people of Tioga.

About a year ago, a very miraculous disapte of a young man by the name of Clark ill occurred in the city of Eric, Pa. Young ill was formerly a resident of Middlebury, in here his friends now reside. The sudpersonance of the young man created not a cliement in Eric and vicinity; and as time giving no clue nor discovering any traces of sing man, although a vigorous search had been by the police, the sympathies of the public that the public is single and properly in the public in the police, the sympathies of the public in the public in the public in the police, the sympathies of the public in the public in the public in the public in the police, the sympathies of the public in the public in the public in the public in the police, the sympathies of the public in the pu contributed in Erie and vicinity, as I learn it also was in your county, to aid in prosecuting the search for the supposed dead body of the missing many but he could not be found, or any satisfactory knowledge gained as to his fate. I believe there was a memorand book and some other small-articles, found upon the platform of the depot in Eric, which proved to have been his, and which was regarded by his friends as almost conclusive evidence that he had been murdered, But as the old saying is "Murder will out," so the truth has come out in this case, although there is no murder about it. The young man has within a few weeks turned up at Jacksonville, Oregon, where he thinks but for one thing he would be perfectly happy; but that one thing, I am sorry to say, is not regret at the course he has taken. I must heartily sympathise with his friends: but while I extend to them the deepest compassion. I at the same time deem it no more than just to the public who have been so outrageously imposed upon, that they should be made acquainted with the facts of the case; and as the public are generally acquainted with the circumstances surrounding the disappearance of Mr. Churchill, I will cut short my communication, simply stating that he justifies the course he has ta-ken, by telling that he was robbed of nearly all the money he had with him, a considerable amount of which belonged to other parties. Of the story of rob-bery I will say nothing, but leave it to the intelligent minds of the public to judge whether he has taken the course a man would be most likely to pursue.

And even if he was robbed, I think it no excuse for him to have the course of the public to judge whether he has taken the course a man would be most likely to pursue.

And even if he was robbed, I think it no excuse for him to be a supplied to the public to judge whether he has taken the course a man would be most likely to pursue. ther day, what they were going to sell him to steal out of the country, leaving the impression with his friends that he had been murdered, and subjecting them to the awful suspense which must of necessity follow.

As to the truth of the above statement I can safely By reference to the Pres inm List, it will be vouch, and, if necessary, can produce the proof in let-I sign my name to this letter in full, but would rath-

Endranger Bisiness for one New York Merchart.—We are happy to inform our fellow citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure wines and blquors, as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchan's extensive business, although it will well tepay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20, and 22 Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stoce of Schnapis on hand ready or shipment could not fave been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy some ten thousand cases.—Vintages of 1336 to 1856; and ten thousand tases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Ctoix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellurs, filled with Brandy, wire, &c., in Casks, under Custom House key, ready for bottning. Mr. Wolfe's seles of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and cighty thousand dozen, and we hope that in less than twolyears humay be equily successful with his brandies and wires.

Its business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private timilies who wish pure wires and Lionors for medical use, should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of wines an Idealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of wines an Idealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of wines an Idealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of wines an Idealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of wines an Idealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of wines an
