A few cords of good dry wood, 18 inches long, vill be taken on subscription at this office, if deliver d immediately.

We have delayed the publication of our paper mtil this (Wednesday) evening, an order to give the result of the election, as near as could be arrived at t this hour.

We give in another column our special report the late Fair. We instructed the reporter to write it down faithfully as it was, without fear or favor. Of to any article on Exhibition, nations can charge him with personalities. Our columns are open for replies to any of the strictures he has rade. If he has been unjust or unfair, it was because he was instructed to be impartial.

Baldwin, Lowell & Co., If Tioga, have recently moved into their new store, which is by far the largest building of the kind in the so enty. We stepped in there the other day and fould them piling away cords of new dry goods, just repr wed from the city. We cite this as a new evidence of the increasing business of our sister town. Tioga, is a very handsome village, and this large new store in the center of it adds still more to its good looks.

A LL IN BOTTLES.—I beg leave to call the A LL IN BOTTLES.—I beg leave to call the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in this country for the purity of his celebrated Scheidam Schapps. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his wines and Liquors, easys: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that that all the Brancies and wines which I hattle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchase." Every bottla has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his sigunature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at lictail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphis.

Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the new York Courier:

Exormous Business for one New York Merchant—We are happy to inform our fellow citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, anotherary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure wines and Liquors, as imported, and of the best quality. We do not fittend to give an elaborate description of this merchan's extensive husiness, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfels extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20. and 22 Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and -21, Marketfield street, His stoce of Schnapps on hand reddy for chipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy some ten thousand cuses—Viringes of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand bases of Madeira, Eherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Ctoix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, wine, &c., in Casks, under Custom House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope that in less than two years ho may be equally successful with his brandles and wines.

It business merits the patronago of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure wines and Liquors for medical use; should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe until every spothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's jure wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of wines and liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be saltained against his tens of thousands of oppodents in the United States, who sell nothing but initiations, ruinous alke to human health and happiness.

ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL. BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

WHEN completed, six years ago, the St. Nicholas was universally pronounced the most magnificent, convenient, and thoroughly organized estab-lishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then, it remains to-day-mithout a rival in size, in sumptuousness, and the general elements of comfort and enjoyment.

The Hotel has accommodations for including 100 complete suites of apartments Six hundred persons can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the traveling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its prac-The early reputation of the house at home and abroad, derived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its kome-like comforts and lazuries, has been enhanced every year by the unwearied exertions of the Proprietors.
