

THE AGITATOR.

WELLSBORO, PA., Wednesday Morning, Nov. 7, '80.

WELLSBORO, PA., Wednesday Morning, Nov. 7, '80. Wellsboro Academy will close on Friday, Nov. 23d.

The Fall Term of the Wellsboro Academy will close on Friday, Nov. 23d. In the evening appropriate exercises by the students will be given.

The election yesterday filled our Borough with people. Very little excitement was exhibited in regard to politics, but fighting whiskey was plenty, and those who drank it were quarrelsome, of course.

How much longer will you purchase and use inferior or Saleratus? A good, perfectly pure and reliable Saleratus will cost you no more than the other.

By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that the next Annual Meeting of the Tioga Choral Society will be held at Tioga village on Monday, the 19th inst., to continue for five days, and to end with a grand concert on Friday evening.

The Local of the Association tips his hat to Mr. Chas. Williams, our efficient Vice President, for the handsome crossing just presented to this office.

Among the many valuable country newspapers our exchange list, none has been conducted with more spirit and energy during the campaign now closed than the Union County Star and Chronicle.

Accident and Loss of Life.—We learn that three boys were run over and killed by a coal train on the Fall Brook Railroad on Saturday evening last.

The lease for the Fair grounds of the Tioga County Agricultural Society expires this year. The question "Where will the next Fair be held?" is already being agitated.

A rich uncle or aunt or somebody has died and left the editor a pile of money. You're mistaken. We're not so lucky as that, but we mean our hunk to be better than that. But we don't mean our hunk to be any longer. We will let you the whole thing, and we hope you won't let it go any further.

A rich uncle or aunt or somebody has died and left the editor a pile of money. You're mistaken. We're not so lucky as that, but we mean our hunk to be better than that.

Administratrix's Notice.—Letters of Administration having been granted to the undersigned on the estate of JOHN RICE, late of Charleston, deceased, Notice is hereby given that all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them for settlement, to the undersigned at her residence in Charleston, DIANA RICE, Administratrix, Charleston, Nov. 7, 1880.

Friends of ours—have sent us a proposition which we gladly accept. Here is what they say: DEAR SIR.—Having a large correspondence in almost every section of the country but yours, and being satisfied that we cannot introduce our Lotteries to advantage in your neighborhood, we will do so in some other living territory. We offer it to you. We will of course expect you to make it known among your acquaintances, that you have drawn a handsome sum of money, and we will be sure to benefit us to us from this arrangement.

Yea men who hold the plow or wield the axe all day for a dollar or two, what do you think of that? Don't you wish it was you had got this offer? We will not exert any more. We don't feel big. We speak to common folks as usual. We don't know how much the "Good Prize" is going to be—probably not less than $20,000. We have thought some of putting up a five story stone building for an office, but we are still in Roy's block, where we will be glad to see our friends.

On Wednesday, Oct. 17, 1880, by Rev. N. L. Reynolds, Mr. ANDREW SHAW, of Richmond, to Mrs. ELIZABETH SLINGERLAND, of Mansfield.

At the residence of the bride's father, in Lawrenceville, Pa., Oct. 31, 1880, by Rev. N. B. Neers, Mr. WILLIAM G. MILLER to Miss SARAH H. CHAPMAN.

TO CONSUMPTIVES. The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

VALUABLE FARMING LANDS FOR SALE. The undersigned is now offering to settlers a large quantity of excellent farming lands, situated from two to fifteen miles distance from Wellsboro, in Delmar, Shippen, Morris and Elk townships, Tioga Co., Pa.

GUARDIAN'S SALE.—In pursuance of an order of the Orphans' Court to me directed, I will expose to public sale on the premises in Charleston, on Saturday, the first day of December, 1880, the following described real estate, to wit:—The undivided two-thirds part of a lot of land, situated in the township of Charleston, Tioga county, Pa., bounded on the north by land of Adam Klock; on the east by land of Frederick Zipp; on the south by the State Road on the west by highway, separating this lot from Morgan Hart, containing about twenty-two acres, all improved.

Administratrix's Notice.—Letters of Administration having been granted to the undersigned on the estate of JOHN RICE, late of Charleston, deceased, Notice is hereby given that all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same to present them for settlement, to the undersigned at her residence in Charleston, DIANA RICE, Administratrix, Charleston, Nov. 7, 1880.

THE TIOGA COUNTY AGITATOR.

35,000 IN USE! The Autocrat of the Kitchen! ORIGINAL P. P. STEWART Fuel-Saving and Comfort-Producing LARGE OVEN SUMMER AND WINTER AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVE.

FOR WOOD & ANTHRACITE OR BITUMINOUS COAL.—Improved in 1859.—With one and a half large doors, and by the addition of the Celebrated Patent Double Sheet Bottom Flue. Attention is invited to the following points of superiority: 1st. Durability.—Lasting, with proper care, at least 30 years. Stoves are now in use that were set up in 1838.

2d. Manufacture.—Every portion of the stove is thoroughly constructed. Each stove is submitted to a critical test, and none leave our works unless completely and perfectly finished. 3d. Economy.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel.

4th. Economy.—Saving the cost of the stove in 2 or 3 years in the item of fuel. 5th. Ventilation of Chimney.—In the Stewart stove the front doors open directly into the oven, protected by letters patent, securing a direct draft through the top of the oven, by means of perforated holes in the doors and back flues. It will be borne in mind that as the heated air always rises, this method of ventilation is the only one of any value whatever.

6th. Entire Control of Heat.—The heat generated by the stove, may be held therein and used or thrown into the room at pleasure. 7th. The Double Sheet Bottom Flue.—By which a compressing and inverting action of heat is obtained, and the oven more evenly and efficiently heated than by any other known invention.

8th. Broiling.—Performed on the top and without the possibility of smoke entering the room. 9th. A Water Reservoir and Warming Closet.—Both useful and convenient, supplied by the waste heat and without extra fuel. 10th. Water Cook.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range.

11th. Water Cook.—An arrangement for supplying hot water for the bath room equal to any range. Sold by all dealers, on a trial of 3 months, with a written guaranty for that period if asked. Beware of the numerous worthless imitations now in market. See that the names of P. P. Stewart and of the manufacturers are on each stove. None other is genuine. Descriptive pamphlets free by mail to any address. Agencies in all the principal cities and towns in the U. S. Address Fuller, Warren & Co., Troy, N. Y., Sole Manufacturers and Proprietors of the Clinton Stove Works. For sale by PARKER BROTHERS, Wellsboro, Oct. 17, 1880.

S. L. AVERY'S PATENT IMPROVED WINDLASS. PATENTED MAY 8, 1860.—The object of this invention is to apply a brake to a windlass in such a manner that articles attached to the windlass, and raised by it, may be lowered with facility; the hitherto slow and tedious manual reverse movement of the windlass being avoided, and the invention at the same time admitting of the operator having complete control over the descending movement of the article being lowered; the invention is applicable to various purposes; its use in connection with wells may be mentioned as an instance, in which the buckets, after being raised and emptied, may be easily lowered, and their movement restrained at the proper time, so that they will not violently strike the water.—Scientific American.

THE GREATEST IMPROVEMENT OF THE AGE. The Brake acts as a check upon the backward motion of the bucket, without turning the crank, (the crank acting as a brake, by pressing inward at the handle.) All who examine this machine, will at once acknowledge its PRACTICABILITY AND SUPERIORITY. Over every other machine in use. The operation of the windlass is easily controlled, and requires but a few minutes. It combines all the advantages of the old-fashioned with the self-emptying bucket, and adds many new and useful improvements. It can be adapted to wells of any depth, and will raise easily, with ordinary turning, Five Buckets of water per minute. It will work on a well of any depth, and in the same proportion to the depth of two hundred feet. The windlass and brake is also applicable to raising and lowering any kind of weight, and in every respect is far superior to those heretofore in use. Having purchased the right for the Counties of Tioga and Potter, Pa., the undersigned are prepared to offer for sale township rights for the manufacture and sale of the above improvement, on reasonable terms. Oct. 16, 1880. L. D. SEBLY.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHNAPPS. A SUPERLATIVE TONIC, DIURETIC, ANTI-DYSPEPTIC, AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

ALL IN BOTTLES.—I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in this country for the purity of his celebrated Selection of Schnapps. Mr. Wolfe, in his long and honorable career, speaking of the purity of his wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant, and my integrity as a citizen of New York, that all the Brandy and wine which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia. GEORGE H. ASHTON, No. 832 Market St., Philadelphia. Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier: EXQUISITE BUSINESS FOR OUR NEW YORK MERCHANTS.—We are happy to inform our fellow citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure wines and liquors, as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, as it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20, and 22 Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Market street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy some ten thousand cases—Vintage of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Clair Rum, some very old brandy and Cognac, all in this country. He has also three large casks, filled with Brandy, wine, &c., in Casks, under Custom House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dollars, and we hope that in less than two years he may be equally successful with his brandies and wines. His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure wines and Liquors for medical use, should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe until every apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure wines and Liquors. We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small quantities, will sell in country parts up to one dozen of any liquor. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness. 6m5
