The majority of Juncoln in New York is 51,766. This is hely official. We will give the official majorities in the other States as soon as received, New Josev which was reported Breckinridge, elects bur Lincoln and three Douglas electors, which is not quite so bad. It is estimated that 75,000 to 100,000 votes have been polled in the Stave States for Lincoln.—
The New York Heraculin noticing the curious results of the late enction, calls these votes "unexpected suffrage for Lincoln." They were not "unexpected by the friends of Lincoln in the north. Houglas has lost his own State, Illinois, and Breckinridge has lost his own State, Kentuck Both ran best away from home.

In our own County the majority is particularly encouraging. The Democrats polled 54 votes less than in October, while the Republic cans polled 607 more. Our Republican vote is 78.8 per centum of the whole vote cast, or with an a fraction of but one! Of course Tiogs is the Banner-Courty of the State, and we ask the State Committee on behalf of our people to send along the bather we have so nobly won both times.

Since his elep- the north front of the building, tion, some of the save-holding States, infin-enced by the misreplesentation and systematic lying of the pro-slavery fanatics of the North as regards the police of the Republican party, are now threatening to secede from the Union. The Legislature of South Carolina have passed a bill calling a State Convention to meet on the 17th of December, for the purpose of taking the necessary steps to that end. Another bill for the enrolment, organization and equipment of ten thousand volunteers was also being considered at the latest accounts from that State. Federal officers have resigned. In Georgia, Alabama, Florida, and Mississippi, the subject of secession is also freely discussed, and the New York Herald and other villainous sheets are calling on Mr. Lincoln to publish a manifesto to the South, bying forth that the Republican party does neg contemplate the liberation of the Slaves in the South, while they have been declaring all dong that such was our policy. We trust that Mr. Lincoln will treat this not that he will.

The New York Pribune, in a recent article concedes to any Sace the right of peaceful secession. We do not concur in this view. There is no foundation in the Constitution for this doctrine, any more man there is for nullification. Both are treasonaste and can be accomplished only by the exercise of the right of revolution, which is higher toan all constitutions.

We do not believe that any of the Southern States are ready for revolution. We do not believe that the General Government is ready to permit any of the States to make the attempt, even if any State had a reasonable excuse upon which to base sublightempt. Our readers need have no fears in regard to secession. There will be none. The leaders of South Carolina would like to settin for themselves in the form of an oligarchy stocracy, based upon their wealth of negrous but this kind of government would not last fing, and in a few years the people would knock at the door of the nation to be admitted once diore.

Speaking for burnelf individually, we care not whether South Darolina goes or stays: If she rooms to get a glimpse at the AGITATOR to see secedes with the consent of the other States of what day the Covermor has appointed for the great Confideracy, we say, peace and pros- Thanksgiving. We have seen the new Engine purchasell by Robt. C. Simpson Esq., for the Well-horlo Fire Company. It is a beautiful machine, nearly as good as new, and originally cost $1300. Mr. Simpson is descring of the thanks of the Fire Company, and indeed, of the whole community for his efforts in securing for their a large and good engine at little more than hilf the price of a small-sized new one. It is customary for country editors to write a pathetic article on the death of bummer. We approach this melancholy task with more than ordinary billiousness. The beautiful, genial, though sometimes very uncomfortable sunshine which we have had at short intervals ever since about the first of March last, is now only an oceasional visiter. At its appearance, the birds sing again, and the mud tholes "dry up" a little. When the thick, marky, dreary, drizzling, rainy clouds intervent, the birds cease their warbling-all except our leighbor's Shanghai rooster, which "bellers" at daybreak, as usual, rain or shine. The leavesone by one, and sometimes two at a time-have fallen from the trees, and have left the branches, like skeleton arms, naked and bare. The predatory pigs stick their snouts under to the sear and yellow leaves," in hopes that perchance an apple, beech-nut or acorn may "turn up" and reward them for their labor. Gobblers may be seen stalking into our farmer's sitting-

The mud is knee deep in the roads and visiting is ot an end. The County papers contain many Sheriff's Sales and few marriage notices. "The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year."

But friends keep up your courage. Things and "natur" generally are not as blue as they look. In a few weeks the mud will freeze up, the snow will fly, sleighing will be good, rosy theeked girls and boys (young men, you know) will go to apple cuts and singing schools, cheered on their way by the bewitching music of the sleighbells. We will have to worry through new their subscriptions as soon as it may be the winter in this and kindred ways till spring comes, again with new leaves, and birds, and flowers, and so forth. But draw down your faces, for just now it is fashionable to feel melncholy.

EA A Case of FRAUD AND FORGERY.- Te have just learned the particulars of a very adroit piece of saindling in which a "local processer" named Chas. E. Turner, well known in Shippen and Claines townships, in this county, turns out to be the swindler. Coupled with the crime of intendedfraud isthe graver crime of the perpetrator to the State Prison.

-The particulars are as follows on the 12th of October, Messrs. Carloton & Porter, agents of the Methodist Episcopal Book Concern in New York, received an order for Books from a person representing himself to be A. R. Cole. The order was accompanied by a letter of recommendation, purporting to have been written by Prof. Landresh, the present pastor of the M. E. Church of this Borough as follows:
