D. Blcon, Sec'y. WELLSBORO ACADEMY .- The Winter Term of Institution commenced last week under yery farable auspices. Mr. ALLEN, the gentlemanly Prinal, informs us that a large number of students are eady in attendance, and that more are expected.— Academy is a thorough School, and should be indantly sustained by our people.

We would ask our friends in various parts of c County to send us from time to time the local news their respective localities, that we may be the better le to sustain the reputation of the Acitaton as a ome Newspaper. With the aid of an intelligent iend-in each township 🛊 send us items of local aportance as they occur, we could make the paer still more lacceptable to the people of the ounty. Give us the items.

MANSFIELD SEXUNARY.—The election of offis of the Mansfield Classial Seminary was held on a 20th of November last. Rev. N. Fellows was sen President of the Seminary, and A. J. Ross, eq., Secretary.

The Winter Term of this Institution will commence the 18th inst, and close March 15th, 1861. It will seen by reference to our ladvertising columns that entirely new board of Instructors has been selected. rol. Wildnan comes well recommended, and we top that under his supervision the School may beome as popular as its meris deserve.

28 SHOCKING ACCIDENT. -Yesterday afternoon a inghter of Mr. Charles Ganley, of this village, aged ghteen years, was accidentally shot by a revolver e was nandling, and from the nature of the injury ill doubtless die. She was in the employ of Mr. orton, station agent at Painted Post, and while mang up a bed found a revolver. In carelessly hand ng the same one barrel way discharged and the ball ruck her forehead just abore the right eye brow. We arn from Dr. Graves that an examination shows that he bullet passed through to the back of the skull. The girl was sensible for souse hours after the accident, ut is now gradually sinking into insensibility.—Cor. ing Journal, 6th.

A RENAWAY .- As three boys, named Oscar d Creon Farr and Edward Hoyt were returning from sleigh-ride in a cutter, yeaterday, and while coming own what is called Kelsey Hill near this village, the oldback of the harness secame suddenly detached row the thill of the cutter, detting the latter against the horse's heels and frightening him into a run. Osar and Creon jumped ou as soon they discovered heir danger, but were slightly bruised in the attempt The borse ran furiously down the road, and in turnng the corner opposite the residence of Wm. Bache, came in contact with Convers's barn, throwing the remaining boy out, and breaking the cutter in a inghtful manner. The by escaped unburt The lorse was stopped at the Wellsboro Hotel, but not before he had severely injuded himself by running gainst one of the posts which support the piazza,-His legs were also much braised.

PAINTUN ACCIDENTS An accident occurred on e Academy Hill yesterday afternoon, which came ear resulting in the death of a boy 10 or 42 years ld, named Edward Bryder, son of a widow lady livng on State Street,' It appears that the boy, in comany with other boys of his age, was engaged in sliing down hill, and that he was the only one on the ed at the time of the accident. A team, unperceived by the boy, was coming upithe road, and before the river could turn out the goy had run between the orses. The team, although much frightened, was ensibility. It is not known whether the horses kickd him, or whether the sleigh passed over him. His lead was badly bruised, and it was feared his skull was fractured. He was convered to the house of his nother, where his wounds were properly dressed by Dr. Packer. We learn to-day that he will doubtless ecorer. This accident should serve as a fearful farning to koys in the habe of sliding down hill on our thoroughfaies.
