WESTFIELD SE E SCHOOL. We are pleased to be able to announce the continued success attending this school. The Spring Term will begin on the 25th of February next, under the most favorable auspices. Mr. Stebbins is a popular teacher, and we with him further prosperity. His advertisement may be found elsewhere.

APPROPRIATE PRESENT.—We learn from the Cameron Citizen that a letter was received at Shippen a few days ago from Gen. Cameron, in which he states that he is about to present Cameron county with a S Pierce bell for the new Court House. The people of that Tioga County county may be sure that the General will present them J S Bryden's Adm'r with a bell " as 'Is-a-bell," and one of which they will not be ashamed. Absolution 19

Large quantities of ice are now being secured by those of que citizens who are so fortunate as to have ice houses, in auticipation of the days when mint-julips, sherry-coublers and ice-creams will have many friends. The ice which passed our office yesterday was very thick and solid, and the indications now are that the streams in this section will be frozen | Bingham Trustees still thicker.

THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC, for 1861, is upon our table. It contains complete returns of the late Presidential election, by States the name and salary of the Governor of each State, the names of the Con gressmen and Senators and the political opinions of sach, and many other facts and statistics of interest to the politician. It is without doubt the best political register ever published. Price, 13 cents, post-paid. Address, "The Tribune," New York, For sale at Smith's.

Gopey's Lady's Rook, for February, is already received. It contains a splendid steel engraving, entitled "A High Walk in Life," a six-figure fashion-plate, beautifully colored, and a large quantity of wood-cuts and patterns. It is surprising to us how Godey can furnish so much that is truly valuable and useful for the low price of $3, and we but echo the opinion of every lady at all acquainted with the Lady's Book, when we say that it is the best. For sale at Smith's bookstore.

"The schoolmaster abroad" has at last turned up in Columbia county, as will be seen by the following "noatis," which we clip from the Bloomsburg Republican. That paper says it is a verbatim copy of an estray notice recently posted in Montour township. The name is omitted:

LOCAL LEGIBLATION At the last session of the Legislature of this State, the following act was passed, which the public should take notice of:—
"That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be required that every application to the Legislature for any act or incorporation, shall be preceded by a public notice or advertisement of the same in two newspapers in the city or county for which the legislation is demanded, if two newspapers are published therein, which said public motice or advertisement shall set forth the names of the commissioners and incorporators of the bill for proposed legislation, and its title, and the same shall he published or advertised in said papers before the bills or proposed law shall be presented to either branching the Legislature."

Geo. D. Prentice pronounces the following a "perfect gem," It is from the pen of William Wallace Harney, associate editor of the Louisville Demoerat, and son of the principal editor of that paper: THE STAR.

On the road, the lenely road, .__Under the cold white moon, Under the rugged trees he strode; He whistled and shifted his weary load— Whistled a foolish tune.

There was a step timed with his own,
A figure that stooped and bowed—
A cold white blade that gleamed and shone
Like a splinter of daylight downward thrown,
And the moon went behind a cloud!

But the moon came out so broad and good; The barn fowl woke and crowed Then roughed his feath, and drowsy mood—
And the brown owl called to his mate in the wood, That a dead man lay in the road.

AGAIN WE SAY, -Uso I've Land & Co.'s Saleraina; if you have any regard for the health of your-self or family, throw to the degs the miserable, impure stuff which has so long tried your patience, and make your bread, pastry, &c., disgusting to look at or to taste. De Land's Chemical Saleratus is perfectly Pure, and will produce the most satisfactory results when used in preparing food. It is sold by most groters and storekeppers. Manufactured at Fairport,
