Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his wines and Liquora, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that that all the Brandica and wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signmature on the certificate. Road the following from the new York Courier:

Enormous Business for one New York Merchant.—Weare happy to inform our fellow citizons that there is one place in our city where the physician, spothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure wines and Liquors, as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchan's extensive business although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20, and 22 Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His store of Schnapps on hand ready jor shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand bases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Coix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, wine, &c., in Caska, under Custom House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope that in less than two years he may be equally successful with his brandles and wines.

Also business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure wines and Liquors for medical use, should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe until every apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure wines and Liquors.
