BIG NAME.—Among the letters in the New Postoffice is one addressed to John Ollenbaubennsteinershobenbicker. 'We hope our readers will ave an attack of the lock-jaw while attempting

THE WOMEN FOR UNION-TO A MAN.-In certain districts, as we note, Our women claim the right to vote. Grant them the boon, oh! lagislators, And "save the Union" from its traitors; For woman—whatso'er her traits— Will never vote for separate states!

EASTER .- This annual festival occurs this year the last or 31st day of March. Easter was celeed by our pagan ancesters in April, as a festival in of Fostre, the Saxon goddess of love, or Venus he north. It is now observed by the Christian ch as a festival in commemoration of our Savior's rection, and answers to the pass-over of the He-

Our usual Harrisburg Letter has failed to reach this week-our friend "Snodgrass" having gone Pittsburgh ostensibly on business in connection the arrival of the President elect at that places really, we think, for the purpose of "getting on a ar." From other sources we learn with regret there is every prospect of the repeal of the law inst kidnapping, and the passage of both the great oration swindles heretofore referred to in these

BY St. VALENTINE'S DAY .- From the old-fashed celebration of St. Valentine there has been a declension. The day, in fact, has been so much aged, and used as a cover for giving vent to malspleen, and envy, to say nothing of low black. dism embodied in scurrilous prints, that it has en into merited disrepute, and indeed come to be edered a nuisance. At the postoffice in this vilthe falling off Valentines sens through the mails much below that of last year, when the diminuwas very marked.

PRESERVATION OF THE HAIR -Some attention id to this item of propriety would swoid much of Baldness so prevalent in this country. Dr. Beltham, of London, has immortalized his name as the enter of a " Stimulating Onguent," which could be s a luxuriant growth of beigd o qually certain. Messrs. H. L. Hageman & Co. have the entire American market. Hence we for a large increase in hirsute appendages among joung men. See advertisement.

GAS.—We are highly gravified to state that Dickinson House, Passenger Depot and most of stores, shops and offices on Market and Pine Streets now lighted by Gas, and that all who are using it well satisfied with this greatly needed improve t The pipes are laid for some distance upon Street, and in the Spring will be laid through all the principal streets

The Journal office participates in the benefits of this enient and agreeable light, and may now for the time be said to be liberally supplied with "Gas." dening Journal

FO THE LATEST .- The spring tashions for pantais are already out in Philadelphia, and of course soon be introduced here by the "ton." The faile slyle is a narrow plaid, in apormous squares.reportorial cotemporary of the North American a sample the other day, which he thus describes: One bar reads upon the boot, the next at the knee, the third at the hip, the fourth ferming the waistd. The legs of the gentleman sporting these trowreminded us of the long loop hole windows in front of the Penitentiary. The color is a lively rickdust, barred with orange." There's a fashion lat's a fashion!

CARELESSNESS OF EMPLOYEES .- Many thouds of dollars are sonuslly wasted by the careless st and neglect of persons in the simploy others. A sat number of employees never think or seem to how much the property of the remployers is des-Jod. They do not exercise that economy with em to think the saving of appriparily trifling matnothing to themselves. They do not think or tow that the strictest economy; in their part will me to their own benefit. An imployer will soon theorer this in a hand, and will read it by increasional confidence. This very kind of wonomy and care in a great measure the secret of sincess with many ang men. It never fails to be rewarded.

& SCRIB IN COURT—CALLING FOR THE DEAD We occasionally hear very queer things at Court me of which might do to print. During the recent in this village, a man named william Mattison La bout being tried for Assaultran Battery. Now have a good crier in this county, d he takes pride thosing off his "volume of voice," and doing everything bing connected with that office in a proper manner. the custom, before proceeding with a cause, for crier to call the defendant's mame three times.we have said, William Mattison was defendant in aure-which came next on the calendar, and our d-natured friend rose to do thi, customary calling. at he had forgotten the name. A waggish lawyer ha Lawrenceville, seeing the crier's discomfiture, ought to relieve him of his cinberrassment, and whisd in his car . James Madison. "James Madi-" cried W., in stentorien voice, But the old time samen, not to be deceived into the belief that the the setate of Levi Redfield, late of Farmington townin a more was Gabriel's trump neither answered to

The way's lips were again in close proximity to the orier's ears, and again did the crier straighten up.-Thomas Jefferson I he velled Every one now scomed middenly struck with the idea, that their months were made for stretched, and they stretched them. "Thomas Jefferson," again called the crier, but this time in a milder tone. "Thomas," however, probably thinking he had settled all his law affairs ment tipe became general even that countenance of the dignified judge wore a broad smile, and the crier. by this time thinking there was "something rotten in Denmark, sat down.

A CARD We, the undersigned, having in use "P. P. Siew-art's Celebrated Summer and Winter Air Tight Cook-ing Stove" purchased of Parker Brothers, Wellsboro, take pleasure in testifying to the complete antisfaction with which we have used them. For all the practical uses of a Cooking Stove, as well as for economy in fuel, they are unequaled by anything with which we have ever been acquainted. While in winter the amount of heat is amply sufficient for all purposes of health and comfort, its capacity for controling the beat is so perfect that in summer all the operations of the kitchen may be carried on, without inconvenience from the heat, thus making it the most healthy, and convenient, and by its perfect fitting, (ensuring durability) in our estimation the cheapest and best Stove in use.

It is a complete statement of all that is known upon every important topic within the scope of human intelligence. Every important article in it has been specially written for its pages by men who are authoritied upon the topics of which, they speak. They are required to bring the subject up to the present moment; to state just how it stands now. All the statistical information is from the latest reports; the geographical accounts keep pace with the latest explorations; historical matters include the fresheet just views; the biographical notices not only speak of the dead but of the living.
